CARD OF THANKS

Words sometimes seem inadequate for expressing ourselves, and "Thank you" seems inadequate to Damon, Darci, my grandchildren, and me right now. For beautiful cards, kind words, words of comfort, words of encouragement, food, phone calls, visits, assists when we needed them - we thank you all! Your support truly means so much to us, and feeling your care helps to ease our pain. Dan Brosnan crossed paths with so many people as he worked and played throughout Oregon, and I was fortunate to be by his side for 57 years as he did so. When our family laid him to rest last Sunday, we had learned more about the effect he had had on lives beyond our own, as we reaped overwhelming remembrances, kindnesses and sympathy from his friends, co-workers, and relatives who sent their caring thoughts or came to say their "good-byes." Thank you. 3-22 1c

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you for the honor of being one of the Grand Marshalls on the Irish Coffee Hour this year and for treating us to a parade ride on the new Loop Bus. Kay Proctor: organizing this group was probably harder than herding cats! So many memories which began at the first coffee hour in 1982 to about twenty years of schedules, entertainment, contracts, publicity food handler licenses, insurance, committee meetings, porta poties, fundraisers, details, details, and many Irish shenanigans, fill my head. The reward was the Kuma Coffee Hour and the Ceili, the place to be to enjoy Irish music, hear real Irish brogue, jokes, history, and reunite with old and meet new friends followed by the Great green parade. It takes a village, the Chamber of Commerce, the City of Heppner, Counties Morrow and Umatilla to keep a Wee Bit of Ireland going and growing. Event chairs and hundreds of helpers are the greatest. Couldn't happen without you! Never lose the old and the new, the reunions and laughter, and listening from the Irish calving pasture! Remember forty plus years from now, somewhere over the rainbow or under a toadstool, we'll be looking up or down to see a Wee Bit O'Ireland in Heppner Oregon. Thank you from the bottom of my heart! Claudia Hughes. (brevity was never my long suit)
