The Heppner High School chapter of the Technology Student Association (TSA) competed at the Oregon TSA State Leadership Conference last week.

The state officers did a leadership workshop called "Communicathalon" for members attending. In Dragster Design, Dailen Schultz took second and Thomas Bales, third.

For VEX robotics, Rylee Palmer was first with Lily Nichols second and Delilah Saucedo third.

For Technology Problem Solving, Madison Palmer and Jacob Finch placed first, with Trevor Nichols and Saul Lopez second.

There was also a Fashion Design event.

Several Heppner members also ended their terms as state officers, while others took on the state leadership mantle.

Outgoing state officers are Madison Palmer, president, and Jacob Finch and Trevor Nichols, officers.

Incoming state officers are Rylee Palmer, Lily Nichols, Elizabeth Finch and Delilah Saucedo.

Five Heppner TSA members will be going in June to the National TSA Conference in Louisville, KY. They are Madison and Rylee Palmer, Jacob and Elizabeth Finch, and Delilah Saucedo.

The Heppner Junior High TSA Chapter will be competing at its state competition on May 11.
