

Sheriff's Report

The Morrow County Sheriff's Office has released the following information:

November 26, 2022

-MCSO received a driving complaint regarding a red Blazer that was swerving into oncoming traffic heading south from Lexington on Hwy. 74. The vehicle was gone when MCSO arrived on the scene.

-A male in Irrigon stated that he heard a large bomb coming from the area of the high school.

-A woman in Heppner requested a welfare check because she believed her children were left unattended at that time. She stated her children were 12, 10 and 9 and on the autism spectrum. She advised her ex-husband tells them goodnight and goes to bed without making sure that they are asleep. She did not know if her ex was at the residence at the time but was requesting contact.

-An employee at Port View Apartments in Boardman requested a check on a male resident. His vehicle had not moved in a week or two and no one in the same apartment complex had seen him. A Boardman police officer made contact with the male, and everything was ok.

-Staff at Boardman Harvest Town Foods requested that a female subject be trespassed for life. Boardman PD responded and trespassed the female.

-A caller in Boardman stated someone just stole a bag of cans from his residence.

-Irrigon Ambulance responded to an 89-year-old female in Irrigon who was having labored breathing and nausea. Patient was transported to Good Shepherd.

November 27, 2022

Morrow County Sheriff's Office and Boardman PD responded to a report of a suicidal subject in Boardman. The caller advised the dad wanted to kill himself. Community Counseling Solutions was advised.

-Caller wanted to report a black cow walking eastbound on the westbound shoulder near the fog line on I-84, Boardman.

-A person in Irrigon reported a suspicious vehicle cutting off a license plate of a blue or black Honda. The vehicle had moved on and the caller was requesting contact.

-A woman in Boardman reported that there were two German shepherds on her property attacking her dogs in the back yard. The dog owners took care of the incident civilly, no law enforcement assistance was needed.

-A male in Irrigon advised that the health department put out a notice to notify them when there were random dead birds on their property due to concern about the bird flu. The caller advised he had a dead bird, possibly a hawk, in his driveway. The incident was referred to another agency.

-A caller on Utah St. in Irrigon stated that the white Ford Explorer was parked at the intersection with Division again in a manner that was unsafe to pedestrians. MCSO responded and determined the vehicle was legally parked and no hazard.

-A man in Irrigon reported that about 25 head of calves had shown up at his pasture. They were a variety of ages, some cows and yearlings. There were also a variety of colors, mainly light-colored ones. A deputy responded. The possible owner was located and would be checking the cows.

-A woman in Irrigon called via the Language Line and stated that her husband had her kids and that they had not been to school in a week and she would like to know what could be done.

-A caller advised of loud music coming from a neighbor's apartment in Heppner. A deputy responded and made contact with the neighbor regarding the music.

-A man in Boardman advised he wanted to report harassment from his ex-wife and her boyfriend. The caller requested to speak to a Spanish-speaking officer.

-Irrigon Ambulance responded to a 72-year-old male who had a fever and was not mobile. Patient was transported to Good Shepherd.

November 28, 2022

A male in Irrigon advised he was in a dispute with his father and his father wanted the caller to get his animals off the property or else he would turn them out, but the caller was unable to at the moment. The caller was requesting contact.

-A man in Heppner advised there was a big buck behind his location that appeared to be injured. He requested contact.

-A man near Ione advised he was flagged down and advised of an overturned Suburban with injury. Ione Fire, Heppner Fire, Heppner Ambulance, Morrow County Road Dept. and Morrow County Sheriff's Dept. responded.

-A woman in Boardman advised her boyfriend was intoxicated and wouldn't leave. The male was in the garage and nothing physical had happened.

-A woman in Boardman advised her boyfriend was intoxicated and wouldn't leave. The male was in the garage and nothing physical had happened.

Shepherd and the caller was provided with options and restraining order information.

-A caller at Main Street Laundry in Boardman advised of an open door to a room that is usually closed. It had electrical equipment and it looked like someone went through it. A Boardman PD officer responded and shut the door.

-Boardman PD reported giving a courtesy ride for a juvenile to high school.

-A woman in Boardman reported missing her nine-week-old black lab puppy named Yoshi. The dog had a black collar with a red tag and had been missing since 5:20 a.m.

-A caller at Driftwood RV Park, Boardman, requested Boardman PD contact regarding the maintenance building having been broken into over the weekend. The caller advised there were two electric drills missing from the building and unknown if anything else was taken.

-A man in Boardman requested Boardman PD contact regarding an ongoing issue of a person harassing him and making physical threats against him in person and by phone.

-Boardman PD served a restraining order.

-A female advised Boardman PD that there was a protection order approved that day and that the order stated the caller's husband got the kids from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.. The caller stated the male had been making threats to her and refusing to return the kids. She requested officers accompany her if possible.

November 29, 2022

A caller at Lamb Weston in Boardman advised he crashed into a semi truck across from the location. There were no injuries, and it was non-blocking. Boardman Ambulance, Boardman Fire and Boardman PD responded.

-Boardman Fire and Boardman Ambulance responded to a 50-year-old male at Lamb Weston in Boardman who had lacerations on two fingers, possibly down to the bone. The patient was transported to Good Shepherd.

-Irrigon Ambulance transported a 73-year-old female with tightness in the chest and nausea.

-Irrigon Ambulance responded to a 14-year-old male who was breathing but unconscious. The juvenile had been sick. The patient was transported.

-A caller with the City of Ione reported vandalism done with a pellet gun. He advised it was not on city property, but the subject had to shoot over the post office to hit the abandoned building. The caller believed he knew who was responsible and requested contact.

-A person in Irrigon stated that in an empty lot to the north, some trash had been dumped.

-A caller on Hwy. 207 near Lexington advised of a pallet jack and heavy equipment cylinder on the roadway. The caller had managed to get it off the road but wanted to advise Bailey Heavy Equipment that it possibly fell out of the truck.

-A Morrow County Sheriff's Deputy advised being out with a possible disabled vehicle near Boardman. The individuals were picking up cans.

-Irrigon Fire advised MCSO of a vehicle versus fire hydrant motor vehicle accident. No fire or emergency services were needed.

-A woman in Gilliam County advised that her daughter's ex had been threatening her and making suicidal threats. Gilliam County advised her to contact MCSO because the male lived in Morrow County. MCSO made contact and advised her of her options.

-A man in Irrigon advised his pug mix ran off from his location. Pug had no collar or tags. He advised it was okay to give out his information if the dog was located.

November 30, 2022—Morrow County Parole and Probation sanctioned a subject to 20 days in jail. Subject was already lodged at Umatilla County Jail.

-A caller requested a welfare check on a female in Irrigon. She had been making suicidal comments to family members and the caller was concerned because she had three kids in the residence and the caller was concerned for their welfare. The caller had not spoken to the female because they were no longer on speaking terms, and wanted to remain anonymous.

Morrow County Sheriff's Office made contact and determined the female was all right.

-A woman in Irrigon advised her sister's ex kept messaging her mom and threatening her. MCSO made contact and advised the individuals of their options.

December 1, 2022—Boardman Ambulance transported a 36-year-old male with low potassium who was feeling weak.

-Boardman PD, Boardman Fire and Boardman Ambulance responded to a three-year-old male with a bloody nose that wouldn't stop bleeding. The patient was transported to Good Shepherd.

-Heppner Ambulance transported an 84-year-old female on blood thinners with a bloody nose that wouldn't stop.

-Irrigon ambulance responded to an 88-year-old female who was breathing but not conscious with possible stroke. Patient was transported.

-A 58-year-old female approached law enforcement at the Irrigon Shell and advised of pains and medical issues. Irrigon ambulance and Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and the patient was transported.

-A caller in Boardman advised of a female in red pants and a red jacket making a disturbance in front of the residence. MCSO, Boardman PD and Community Counseling Solutions responded and the female was transported to CCS.

-MCSO was advised that all the mail boxes had been broken into on Kunze and Parkside in Boardman.

-MCSO conducted a welfare check on a juvenile in Irrigon.

-A deputy advised of a vehicle that hit a deer on Hwy. 74, Heppner. MCSO advised the individual was actually attempting to catch a kitten.

-MCSO was advised there was a miscommunication at the Circle K in Heppner and an individual drove off without paying for gas. MCSO made contact with all parties.

-MCSO was advised of a pickup pulling a flatbed with a car on it. The pickup was speeding 80 mph and the car only had one strap on it. MCSO gave Emerald Lee Eshleman a warning for no trailer lights but determined the vehicle was strapped down correctly.

-A caller at Heppner Les Schwab advised there was an injured cat that ran into the shop. The cat was taken by a local rescue and was transported to the vet in the morning.

-A person at Irrigon Shell advised MCSO that a red SUV with Washington plates was harassing them while driving; it was slamming on its brakes in front of them, then followed them to the gas station. They advised the other vehicle was currently on the other side of the semis at the Rustic Truck. MCSO made contact with the caller but was unable to locate the other vehicle.

December 2, 2022—Heppner ambulance and Heppner fire responded to a 75-year-old male in Heppner who was conscious and breathing but was shaking with a 102.3 fever and couldn't get warm. Patient was transported to Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

-Irrigon ambulance transported a 69-year-old male who was having trouble breathing.

-A caller in Irrigon told dispatch they wanted to report child molestation.

-A caller in Irrigon reported a black Subaru WRX with a rack on top on SE Utah; reported it stopped at the stop sign debating on what he was going to do, spinning his tires and fishtailing. Morrow County Sheriff's Office was unable to locate.

-A caller on SE Utah in Irrigon reported a four-door maroon pickup was headed toward Division and did not acknowledge the caller, who was walking on the side of the road.

-MCSO received report of a trespass in Irrigon. The caller reported a Ford F150, white, 90s model, drove through their yard at Frederickson Farms and headed eastbound on the shoulder of the road. The caller advised they had never seen the driver before and didn't believe he worked there. MCSO arrested Marco Antonio Garcia for Driving While Suspended-Misdemeanor. He was lodged at Umatilla County Jail with no bail.

-A caller said he was advised of an injured duck, which he located. The individual was given the number for Blue Mountain Wildlife.

December 3, 2022

Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to a call from a female at Riverview Mobile Court on Hwy. 730, who advised her boyfriend was not letting her leave. The female then advised she was able to leave and did not want deputy contact.

-MCSO was advised of a male who was suicidal and walking to the Irrigon Marina. A deputy responded.

-A female in Irrigon asked to speak to a deputy regarding an individual harassing her by phone. And MCSO deputy responded and took the incident under investigation.

-Dispatch received an EMS call for a 59-year-old male who was conscious and breathing but incoherent and unable to talk. Multiple agencies responded but the patient refused transport.

-At 10:37 p.m. a female at SE Park Place in Irrigon advised that her neighbor was operating loud machinery and asked that they be contacted and asked to do it in the daylight hours.

-Boardman ambulance received a call from Lamb Weston East Plant in Board-

177 N. Main
P.O. Box 337
Heppner, OR 97836
Chris@sykesrealestate.net

Broker
Chris Sykes
541-215-2274

This classic split level 2 bed, 2 bath home overlooks Heppner with a relaxing back deck and beautiful backyard. 1 car garage leads into the lower game room/office with bathroom. New furnace in 2020 with ac and air purifier, new roof in the last 5 years, new carpet in 2021. Cozy living room, dining room and bedrooms. Upper and lower Sqft is approximate. 140 S Gilmore St. MLS#:23505395

This house is ready to go. Recently updated windows, kitchen and bathroom. Heat on demand water heater, new paint, fridge, washer, dryer and dishwasher. Large back yard. Within walking distance of the Heppner pool, high school and softball field. 485 W Morgan St. MLS#: 23328135

Three bedroom, one bath home on quiet street in Heppner. Real wood floors and knotty pine walls give a warm and comfortable feeling when you walk inside. Large fenced backyard with excellent soil will give you a great garden, and there is an access gate off the back street (Riverside) for additional parking. A full walk-in basement is waiting for you to finish out and add lots of additional living space. New pellet stove. 335 W Union Ave, Heppner
MLS#: 23220466