Three more chances to 'meet your mummy' this week

It was a successful opening night on Tuesday when the Heppner Drama Club's junior high cast took the stage to present the comedy "How I Met Your Mummy."

For those who missed opening night, there will be three more chances to take in the hi-jinks this week. The junior high cast will perform the play again Friday, Nov. 10. The high school cast will act out their roles on Thursday, Nov. 9, and Saturday, Nov. 11.

All performances will be at 7 p.m. at the Heppner High School cafeteria. Admission is $3.

"How I Met Your Mummy" is a two-act play by Todd Wallinger. The comedy features a romp through a museum at night, with a cast that includes clumsy thieves, a teenage film crew, a pushy news reporter and a zany Egyptian priestess—all trying to meet their mummy.
