MC Transit introduces interactive transit map

We are excited to announce the launch of Morrow County's new interactive transit map, now available at Fixed Route Viewer \(arcgis.com\)). This innovative tool provides comprehensive route information and includes several features designed to enhance the user experience.

view of the transit routes and stops.

We are thrilled to introduce this vital component of our transit system, which marks a significant step forward in improving accessibility and convenience for our community. Additionally, we have ordered new signs and are diligently working on getting them placed in the near future to further support this initiative.

Key features of the interactive map include:

- Real-Time User Location: Allowing users to see their current position relative to transit routes.
- Stop Times and Locations: Providing detailed information about bus stops, including schedules and locations.
- Zoomable Interface: Enabling users to easily zoom in and out for a more detailed or broader

We invite you to explore the interactive map and experience the benefits firsthand. Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your continued support as we strive to enhance our transit services.

ing will be distributed to the Elementary Schools in Morrow County just before school is out. We will also have some available at the fair office where you pick up your fair premium book. If the kids color the page and bring it to the fair, they will get to display it on "Spot On Entry" which will be a large bulletin board to display all their work. The fair is Aug. 14-17th this year and elementary kids are encouraged to color these and bring them to the fair for a ribbon and a fair treat. Makenzie won an Art set from the Morrow County Fair. We appreciate her participation and incredible artistic ability. We want to thank her for being a part of our fair and helping us to get the word out. Her drawing matched the theme this year of "Admiration for Generations." We hope people come to see all the great talent at the fair this year.
