CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to everyone who helped on the Lone Rock Fire. Thank you to the South and North Gilliam County fire districts, Gilliam County Road Dept., fire districts from across the state and state and federal agencies for coming together to fight this fire. Most especially we thank our neighbors, friends and family who reached out to us with prayers and support, phone calls and texts, brought food, helped us move belongings and animals and kept watch with

I want to give a big thank you to all the ambulance crew and the firemen who came to my house and got me to the hospital when I had heat exhaustion and dehydration. They were all great. Those big guys put me in a special chair and packed my two hundred pounds down 21 steps to the ambulance. I want to thank the nurses and doctor in the E.R. at our great little hospital, they did a great job getting me hydrated and sent me home to rest. Special thanks to our great neighbors, Bill and Sharon Morris who helped Sharon make all the right calls when I passed out. They came over to help her while

Phil and I would like to thank everyone that dropped everything to come help with the Lone Rock fire; neighbors, friends, family, and all the firefighters that worked tirelessly to help make fire lines. The emotional support from friends and family was so helpful and appreciated. We are truly blessed to live in this amazing community. Thank you, Phil and Kathy Carlson.
