CARD OF THANKS

Diane and I want to express our sincere gratitude to all those that helped make the Suicide Awareness and Prevention Dinner and Auction held on September 7th a success. Thank you to all those that donated to the silent auction and raffle, our crew that made this possible: George Nairns, Cyde Estes, Donita Counsell and Katie Fuller. Thank you to our speakers Chris Humphreys, Brett Koss, and Donita Councell who educated and spoke bravely about their experiences with suicide. Thank you to Taste of the South for the exceptionally wonderful food that was served and thank you to those who set up and cleaned up for this event. We also would like to thank the Heppner Mustangs Cheerleaders, Caroline Robinson and Nicole High and squad for babysitting and helping with the raffle. Thank you to Hopeful Saints Mission and Outreach who generously allowed the receiving and dispersing of the funds we raised. Your generosity and support helped us to raise over $6000.00 dollars to help support families in Morrow County who have been impacted by suicide. Suicide touched our family in February of 2023 with the loss of our son Shelton Sharp and with the tragedy our hope is bring awareness and support to others in our county who deal with the effects from suicide and to raise awareness to help each other. You are not alone. We are looking into setting up a permanent foundation but for now if you know someone who is needing resources or help due to loss of someone from suicide, please reach out to us.
