Scout Matheny has earned her way to the state Elks Hoop Shoot competition by placing first in the eight- to nine-year-old girls at the East District shoot in John Day on Jan. 12.

Scout will compete against the other winners around the state in Silverton on Feb. 8. Each competitor shoots 10 free throws, rests, then shoots 15 more for a total of 25.

The East District consists of Condon, Heppner,

Milton-Freewater, Enterprise, Baker, John Day, Burns, Bend, Madras, Prineville and Ontario Elks lodges. Each lodge has an opportunity to send one participant from each of the six age groups.

Weston Christy placed sixth in the eight- to nine-year-old boys group, Emma Mullins placed fourth in the 10- to 11-year-old girls group and Mikalie Duncan placed fifth in the 12-13 girls group.

Sonny Matheny and Charlie Mullins qualified for the district competition but were not able to attend.

Corey Sweeney, the local and East District director, said he was very pleased with how the participants did at both shoots.
