CARD OF THANKS

There are not enough words to express our family's deep gratitude for everything that has been done to help us in the planning and execution of Robanai's celebration of life. To those who called, texted, and visited, you made her final weeks exactly what she wanted-surrounded by those who loved her. To those who brought food, so that we could focus on one less thing, thank you. To the wonderful nurses, doctors and volunteers who cared for her in her final weeks, and to those who were there when she passed, we are deeply grateful. To those who helped us through planning her celebration of life at The Hopeful Saints Ministry and The Elks Lodge, you listened to her wishes and made the process so much easier. Thank you. To those who set up, tore down, decorated, and brought food, your kindness means the world to us. To everyone who showed up to celebrate her life, your presence is a testament to how amazing she was and how deeply she touched so many lives. For the cards, flowers, donations, stories shared, hugs, and tears, we are so grateful. We are blessed to live in a community where we pick up the pieces for one another, where we step up when it matters most. From the bottom of our hearts, and from Robanai in heaven, we thank you for showing kindness, compassion, love, and support-and for celebrating her life with us. Duane, Kylee and Taylor.
