Boom!

There are some things you just don’t do...like let a two-year-old run around with scissors, give your car keys to your inebriated neighbor, or let a country that wants to annihilate you have a nuke. Just not smart.

So, I am very grateful for a president with the guts to do what others should have done. The efficacy of the mission to take out Iran’s nuke capability was phenomenal, and I believe God-directed. I’m also thankful for the support President Trump has shown Israel. It’s the right thing to do (Genesis 12:3). He showed some excellent strategy in dealing with Iran. So much for the “Trump is delusional” mantra. But you can be sure the Left will be hurling the hate...“Hitler! Warmonger!”

News flash: Stopping a bully doesn’t make you a bully. It makes you a hero.

Trump gave Iran some options for peace. They declined. They also made it pretty clear they aren’t looking for peaceful solutions. They’ve been stirring the Middle Eastern pot for decades. Destruction by Proxy has been their method. Just give your dirty jobs to others and then claim your innocence. The hatred goes deep. Their quest for the destruction of “Little Satan” is just hors d’oeuvres. Next on the menu is the main course...The Great Satan (America).

So now we have known terrorists in our country just waiting for their cue (paggers in hand). Thanks a bunch, Biden. I’m sure the billions you made available to them have been a big help. Can you imagine him running the show right now?

“Here’s a couple more billion. Gotta keep that oil flowing (anywhere but America). Nuke? Nah...it’s all good.”

I’m pretty thankful for those last election results.

I’m also thankful for the cabinet Trump chose. Great leaders are making the job way easier, to the chagrin of the Left. The more he accomplishes, the more ridiculous their criticism. The whole “No Kings!” thing is laughable...and the height of hypocrisy. They want no authority, no laws, no restraint...unless they say so, of course. Then they’ll take away your guns, gas stoves and “gas-guzzling” cars...oh...and your Bibles. Can’t have any of this God talk...might shine the light on the evil they excuse. Oh, and just to clarify...Yes, when we have been threatened by another country (“Death to America!”), our Commander in Chief can and should make decisions concerning the defense of our country. Any congressman who tries to stop him is a traitor.

So, what now? I’m guessing the rest of the world is still trying to digest what’s happened...while taking Trump a little more seriously. If you know Biblical prophecy, you know that, at some point, Iran, Turkey, Russia, Libya and Sudan will join up to attack Israel. But God will stop them in their tracks (Ezekiel 38). As we watch prophecy unfold, and in the light of our current situation, it would be good to consider this; since about 2,000 of the 2,500 Biblical prophecies have already been fulfilled, we might want to pay attention to the rest of what the Bible has to say. It’s life-saving.

“For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all people” 1 Timothy 2:5.

HHS Class of 2000 to hold 25-year reunion

The Heppner High School Class of 2000 will be celebrating its 25-year reunion this Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28, at the Morrow County Fairgrounds. Class members are also inviting all parents of classmates and all of their past teachers and other faculty to attend.

An Italian dinner will be served Friday evening at 6 p.m. to anyone who would like to join for a fun evening of visiting. Feel free to drop in any time Friday from noon to 8 p.m. or Saturday 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Lots of fun for all ages.

Contact Ashley Lindsay at 541-379-4079 with any questions.

Over the Tee Cup

Ten ladies teed off under beautiful weather conditions for a spirited round of golf at Willow Creek Country Club on Tuesday, June 17, during the weekly ladies’ play day.

Pat Dougherty led the field with the low gross score, while Betty Carter secured the low net of the field. Karen Smith-Griffith earned accolades for having the least putts on the day.

Flight A Results: Tiffany Clement claimed low gross honors. Corol Mitchell finished with low net, and Pat Dougherty also took home the long drive title.

Flight B Results: Shirley Martin recorded the low gross. Kris Lindner earned low net, Sharon Harrison had the least putts, Colleen Neubert hit the longest drive, and Karen Smith-Griffith was closest to the pin (KP).

Stay tuned for next week’s play day recap—fore!
