

TROUTDALE

Mrs. Hogue will soon move into the Hudson cottage from the Heling residence.

J. S. Hudson and family have moved to Bridal Veil where Mr. Hudson will again open up tonsorial parlors.

Things are coming our way now. Vacant houses are filling up and all we need is a get together spirit and a pep boost!

Allan Tiller entertained a number of his local friends Saturday evening by treating them to a private dance.

Messrs. Mickley and Knarr, our local carpenter firm, have been employed on the Nelson farm erecting new buildings.

Miss Salina Fox has been quite ill for the past two weeks but is now improving. She is under the care of Dr. W. C. Belt.

Mr. Smith, our new O. W. P. motor man, has moved into the cottage recently vacated by Charles Lewis who has gone to Estacada.

Mrs. A. Latourelle and daughter Irene have been in Portland for the past week at the bedside of Mrs. Latourelle's mother, who is very sick.

Mrs. L. Allard, who has been in the Portland hospital all winter until recently, is still in poor health, but claims to be improving. Mrs. Allard is an optimist.

The O. W. R. & N. bridge crew will soon begin the erection of another bridge across the Sandy here.

Preparatory to the general plan of double tracking the system from here eastward. The rails are now being laid on the Peninsula cutoff and trains will soon be routed in Portland by that way.

Supt. R. F. Robinson is forming plans now for a week's series of educational meetings to be given at different points in the county during the month of April and has chosen Troutdale as one of the points. It may be that Gresham will be able to obtain a date also and receive the benefits of the work.

The Parent Teachers' Club of Troutdale held its regular monthly meeting in the school house Friday afternoon and after a program were given a luncheon in room one by the fourth grade boys and girls. The program as rendered was: Vocal solo, Florence Latourelle; dumbbell exercise, fifth and sixth grades, M. E. Hogue, director; vocal solo, L. A. Harlow; address, County Superintendent R. F. Robinson. Prof. Robinson spoke on "What Constitutes True Education" and was heartily applauded and complimented by those present.

The suggestion in the last issue of The Outlook that Fairview should try to get at least a stopping place on the O. W. P. at Peterson's is bearing fruit quickly. Interested citizens were out Monday with a petition and up to noon had secured at least 60 names. This will be presented to the company and it is hoped will bring about the desired effect.

J. E. Stansbury, county fruit inspector, is expected tomorrow to set out the orchard for the county farm, it will cover seven acres.

John Brown and J. H. Schram were in Portland on business yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Tegart is sojourning at Tillamook for a few days called there by the death of her sister Lena.

Oscar Wood, family and brother John, who left here 18 months ago to make their home in Kansas, have returned and settled at Ames, where their future home will be. Oscar says Oregon rains are preferable to eastern blizzards.

A social evening was spent by a few invited friends at the home of Oscar and Gertie Wallin Friday evening, where light refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time.

Ole Danielson is completing a snug little cottage on his place and rumors of a bird being caught soon are heard.

Mr. Angell has rented his place at Bardsdale station and is fitting up the house for the renter.

Saturday night at Estacada the girls' basket ball team defeated the St. Johns girls to the tune of 9 to 2. The game was well managed and satisfied the large crowd of spectators.

The boys' basket ball team played a fast game with the boys' team of St. Johns. This stunt ended in a victory for St. Johns in a score of 23 to 2.

After the games ended the Estacada professional business men and farmers appeared, fat, lean and medium. Then the audience had fun. The game from start to finish furnished more fun for the crowd than for the players, judging from the numerous hard falls, but it all ended in a general hearty laugh for all.

A special car from Portland carried the large crowd of merry-makers who all went home happy.

Monday afternoon the Mt. Hood Construction company closed camp No. 3, located about three miles east of the city. The large 70-ton shovel will be moved on east and will pick up small work left at cuts along the road. About 120 men have been employed at this camp. Some of them will be employed in other camps while a number have left for Portland and other points.

Two good cows, fresh soon. For particulars and terms see P. Donahue, 2 miles south of Hogan.

George Reynolds was in Gresham Tuesday.

T. Lucas was a business caller in Gresham Saturday.

S. E. Toppelman, the potato man, has been picking up potatoes in our locality. Why go to Portland to sell when Gresham has a buyer extra! If not superior to any you can find?

Much excitement has been caused of late by a whole lot of surveyors who worked from Troutdale to a point four miles beyond Springdale. It looks like a car line survey was being made.

C. C. Crawford and wife, accompanied by F. E. Bates, have started on an evangelistic tour and, we expect to learn every day of their labors in Kansas. C. C. is an energetic, fervent and gifted evangelist whose labors around Springdale for the past 14 years bear testimony not to be overlooked.
