Mrs. Fred Harlow is in the hospital in Portland where she has undergone an operation.

Mrs. Daniel Fahey of St. Johns visited at the home of Mrs. Matilda Hogue on Sunday.

Mrs. C. S. Wilson has been visiting her children in Portland.

Miss Florence Latourell had the misfortune to fall from her horse and sustained a severe sprained wrist.

Miss Lulu Ott of Portland spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Kummer. Her son Wilbur who has been staying with his aunt, returned with his mother.

SECTION LINE

Mr. Gossman is remodeling his house.

F. Fritz has moved back on the Labowitch place. He intends to buy another horse and start in farming again.

The late rains have made the prospects look favorable for the grain, potato and berries as well as other crops. It was much needed in this vicinity. Many people have their late potatoes planted and some early potatoes are up.

Parties having cows in the pasture leased by S. Sorenson, as well as himself have been annoyed by having their cows partially milked by unknown persons lately. They are suspected and if caught will be taught a lesson to keep them from doing such misdeeds again.

MELROSE

Sim Stafford and son Roy were down from their new home at Banks and spent Sunday with the folks.

Irvin W. Fisher has sold his farm and expects to go into some line of business in Portland. The family will be greatly missed by their many friends in this locality. Mr. Corser, the purchaser, is from Portland and will take possession at once.

I. McColl, P. M.

The State Department of Fisheries will maintain an extensive exhibit in Astoria during the Centennial Celebration showing in detail the methods of the propagation of fish and salmon in particular. A number of Aquarium tanks showing the many species of fish native to the State of Oregon as well as a fish hatchery in active operation will make this exhibit complete and an educational feature of great interest to all centennial visitors.

The Outlook has made special arrangements so it can offer the best inducements possible to persons who wish to take both city daily and this paper.
