J. H. Hoss has purchased lots in Clananah addition.

Miss Minnie Lawrence visited in Portland Sunday afternoon.

W. E. Wood will have charge of Harry Wood's barber shop while the latter is at Bull Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Renolds of Portland are visiting with their uncle, Chas. Renolds.

W. H. Karr is reported as recovering from his recent illness. We hope soon to see him about.

Mrs. W. S. Aton was quite ill the first of the week, but is reported much better today.

It is reported that contractors have been asked to submit bids on several neat bungalows to be erected soon in Cleveland's addition.

W. W. Wood and Roy Wood have bought lots in Zenith addition on Hood avenue and intend to erect houses. This is to be commended.

Mr. Foster has taken possession of the restaurant on Powell street, formerly run by Mrs. Burgess, and is painting, papering and making the place look like new.

Maurice Wilworth went to Portland Monday morning with his team to begin work on a job in the Mt. Scott district.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cook of Portland, together with their daughter, Gayle, visited Sunday at the Kidder home. Mrs. Cook is a sister of Mrs. Kidder.

Mrs. L. P. Manning went to the city Sunday to visit her brother, J. M. Sherwood of Cottage Grove, who is now at the hospital in Portland.

A. H. Gould is having a new bungalow built on a lot adjoining his residence. When completed this will be offered for sale or rent. This is a good move. We need more houses in Gresham.

Harry Wood has gone to Bull Run to put in a barber shop. Mrs. Wood will join him in about a week and they will spend most of the summer there. Harry will leave his shop here in good hands.

The Gresham Real Estate company made out five contracts for lots in Zenith addition last Friday. In a few years these locations will be in the center of the city which is spreading out in all directions.

Claude Smith quit work at the depot Monday and will devote his time to the interests of his motion picture show. The show will be continued each night in the Grange hall until the new building on Main street is ready.

Mrs. A. H. Gould showed an egg Saturday to the Outlook, which measured 6 by 8 inches. It was laid by a Rhode Island Red hen and measured by a representative of this paper, so we can vouch for this story. Mrs. Gould says that all eggs laid by this hen are large size.

Mr. Johnson, agent for the O. W. P., has erected a tent for temporary shelter while the rail road company will proceed to build a neat bungalow on the hill above the street south and west of Thompson & Pugh's real estate office. The hill will be graded and terraced so as to make a very neat and slightly building spot.

The Methodist Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference will hold its silver anniversary convention at Sellwood, June 1 and 2. Mrs. T. G. Hill of New York, national organizer of the society, will give a series of lectures at different points extending over a period of one month. She will be at the M. E. church in Gresham next Sunday afternoon and evening.

Rev. F. H. Freund of the Zion Evangelical church, and the following ladies, Mrs. Paul Hoetzel, Mrs. Andrew Brugger, Miss Hecker, Mrs. Schwedler, Mrs. Theo. Brugger, Mrs. Bratsel, Mrs. Walter, Mrs. Blumacher, went last Thursday to the home of Mrs. Mullenhoff at Damascus where they spent a pleasant social time and held a meeting of the Frauen Verein.

The members of the Baptist church will give a reception next Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall to their pastor, Rev. F. M. Burtch, and wife. A musical and literary program will be given and refreshments will be served free. Everyone is cordially invited. Renewed interest is being taken in the Baptist church and a good attendance is looked for.

The Mt. Hood railroad company has a crew of men and teams at work on the new county road between the Dan Talbot farm and the five acre tract bought last fall from Wm. Gedamke by A. R. Lyman. This road crosses the Mt. Hood railroad at a point where the grade is seven feet above the level of the ground. This will necessitate a big fill by the railroad company in making approaches and also by the company to bring the road up to an easy grade. It is expected that a waiting room will be built at this point.

Mr. Kidder has gone to Sandy for a few days on a business trip.

Regular Grange meeting next Saturday.

Mrs. D. A. Cathey of Corvallis is visiting at the home of Mrs. S. C. Jones.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Raper have been spending a few days with Clarence Cathey and wife.

Don't forget the meeting of the milk producers next Saturday at 1 p. m., in the Commercial club room, Metzger building.

A. Y. Beach, deputy county assessor, is spending a few days in this vicinity. Mrs. Beach was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Wirtz last week.

It is rumored that a store building will soon be built and a store started in the northeast part of town.

Miss Holliday's place in the post office is being filled by Miss Lusted this week while Miss Holliday is caring for mother, who is ill.

W. K. Hamilton is completing a modern five room bungalow near Troutdale for his brother-in-law, R. Emerson, and is contemplating building another one.

Miss Norma Hundley from Hillsboro, visited with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Dinger last week. Miss Louise Jordan of Sellwood, also visited with Mrs. Dinger on Sunday.

Next Sunday, at the Baptist church, the morning sermon will be a study of Enoch. In the evening a sermon on The Burden Bearer. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

Miss Gilbert, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism the past fortnight, is reported as much improved in health.

John Conkle of Lyle, Washington, visited with his sister, Mrs. Sterling, the latter part of last week and transacted business in this neighborhood.

Lafe Manning and wife spent a few days last week with the home folks. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning. Lafe is representing the Wilkinson Machinery company of Portland.

J. E. Kronenberg of The Dalles was here Saturday and Sunday. He has bought 24 acres on the Base Line of Tom Hensley and expects to move to it the latter part of this month.

The crew which is laying pipe for the Shaw-Batcher company have crossed the Mt. Hood rail road just east of Gresham. The ditch is being rapidly opened between Gresham and that point about seventy-five men being at work there now.

The Gresham high school played ball with the Oregon City high school team last Saturday afternoon. While our boys were beaten by a score of 2 to 5, yet there was some consolation in the fact that they put their opponents out entirely after the second inning.

N. L. Smith, whose land adjoins the fair grounds has consented to let the Fair association use a part thereof for race track purposes. This makes it possible to construct a good half mile track and will make it possible for the management to put on a good program of races and other sports and attractions which can hardly be dispensed with if we expect to have a good fair.

Cut their coffee with a Royal Mill

This mill throws out the chaff which injures the flavor of coffee ground in the old way.

To those who love Good Coffee

we would say, Try a pound of our coffee cut on our New Royal Mill and we know you will be pleased with the result.

Powell Street - - Gresham

Rains of the past week have been hailed with delight by all sections of the state. Eastern Oregon has welcomed the showers for they were needed to supply moisture to the grain fields. All other sections report that the rainfall makes crop prospects particularly bright.

The road which crosses the O. W. P. track and Johnson creek at Preston station is having some good work done on it. The approaches to the bridge have been raised so as to be above high water and the cut down the hill has been widened. The road is now being graveled and will be put in good condition.

To aid the development of the Northwest states, from Minnesota to the coast, delegates from the section interested met during the past week at Helena, Montana, and took steps to form the Northwest Development League. It will exploit the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota and the territory of Alaska. Meetings will be held each June and December, to be known as the Northwest Development League congress. The December meeting will be held in Minnesota, in connection with a big land show. The 1912 congress will meet in Seattle.

The Methodist church was beautifully decorated Sunday with flowers and plants. We understand the Queen Esther circle and Miss Florence Brown in particular deserve the credit for this work. The choir sang some special selections well worth listening to, especially the one rendered by the male sextet in the evening.

Milk is excellent for laying hens, as it contains the constituents of the white of eggs. One bad egg is enough to lose a good customer. Poultry for the orchard and the orchard for poultry. Tarred paper in the nest boxes will keep out lice.
