GRESHAM

Wm. Wilson left here for Bull Run yesterday.

J. F. Wilmarth of Boring was in town yesterday.

O. O. Cone is digging a well for A. R. Lyman this week.

Ed. Osborn's shop has been given a new coat of paint.

On account of the recent rains there will be no ball game here next Sunday.

L. L. Kidder and Jas. H. Sterling were in Portland on business Wednesday.

Richard Beadle is constructing a cement basement on his place near the Elliott Co.'s store, preparatory to erecting a fine large barn.

F. M. Lantz has just finished painting the Commercial club's hall, making a great improvement in its appearance.

There should be a large attendance tonight at the Odd Fellows hall to extend a welcome to Rev. F. M. Burtch and family.

Mr. Packer was down from the construction camp at the Sandy river yesterday. He says the work is progressing rapidly.

Mrs. Jane Culy is recovering nicely from the severe cold and threatened pneumonia which caused her many friends considerable anxiety.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton have returned to their home on the Mountain View Farm for the summer.

Henry Kane of Portland, was in town Wednesday visiting his parents. He and his father took a run in the auto out to the farm.

H. E. Davis, manager of the Cotton farm, is in Corvallis this week on business but is expected home this evening.

Daly & Rector, contractors for digging the section of the pipe line ditch through the city of Gresham will begin work at once with a new crew of men.

Mr. McNeal of Vancouver, Wash., has just completed the work of drilling a 120 foot 4 1/2 inch well for A. B. Elliott at his residence. About 35 foot of water has been struck.

The water is settling into some of the lower places in the pipe line ditch in such quantities that it is necessary to pump it out with a large pump and engine in order to complete the ditch and lay the pipe.

Ed. Anderson, who has been in St. Vincent hospital the past seven weeks, having his knee treated, was returned to his home yesterday by the Red Cross ambulance, much improved.

Joseph Cook, father of C. J. Cook, now contractor on the Mt. Hood line, died recently at his home in Portland. It is interesting to recall the fact that Joseph Cook was one of the main contractors on the old Bull Run pipe line.

Sunday morning at the Methodist church the choir will sing a new anthem, "Praise the Lord All ye Nations." There will be a solo by Miss Viola Mathews. The services afternoon and evening will be special.

Special services in the M. E. church next Lord's day. The pastor will preach in the morning from "The Effect of Joseph's Prosperity." In the evening Mrs. Hill, W. H. M. secretary of New York, will speak. Mrs. Hill will also speak to the Epworth Leaguers at 7 p. m.

Mr. Fancher is conducting state examinations in the Powell Valley school this week. A class of six pupils is taking the examinations. Their names are Bertha Pitts, Teckla Shuholm, Walter Erickson, Ella Nordling, Lillian Sell, Nellie Johnson.

The big Mt. Hood auto truck which runs between Bull Run and Portland was stalled all of Wednesday night on the Powell Valley road east of Gresham about half a mile. The recent rains and the earth thrown out of the ditch have made this road almost impassable.

We are informed that Ben Mathews is about to erect a new building 40x80 feet just south of Harry Wood's barber shop on Main street. The building is to be a brick veneer and will be fitted up for a moving picture show and hall for public entertainments.

Arthur Leland has purchased the blacksmith shop of Luckey & Hamilton near his barn, while Ed. Osborn has bought the stock and Mr. Luckey will be found hereafter at the latter place where he will assist Ed. in turning out first-class work.

Robert Lansdown has been laid up since Wednesday on account of injuries received while working on the Dowsett Patenaude building when a section of the second floor fell with three of the workmen. Fortunately none were seriously injured.

Abundant showers in May insure abundant crops in the fall.

Mrs. Irvin Peier is reported very sick.

New cement walks are in various stages of construction for Ed. Metzger and Lewis Shattuck.

H. A. Darnall, State Lecturer, is attending the State Grange at Corvallis this week.

A petition is being circulated for the graveling of Hood avenue. This is badly needed and the work should be done at once.

E. C. Lindsey is home this week from Warren where he has been engaged for some time in building operations.

Mr. Miller, of the Northern Trust company, with a party of Portland people spent Tuesday sizing up the country around Gresham.

Ben Mathews appeared on the streets of Gresham Wednesday morning. It's a girl, only weighs seven pounds, but looks big to him.

The Queen Esther circle will meet this evening at the home of Miss Ava Thompson. This is a very important meeting and it is hoped all members will be present.

The surplus earth from the pipe line ditch is being used to fill in the approach to the grade of the Powell Valley road west of the Talbot farm where a large fill is necessary.

Miss Culy, custodian of the reading room, and Miss Hogue of Troutdale, did not make their usual trip to the Portland library on Thursday. The Portland library people are very busy putting in three new reading rooms and a branch library. The reading rooms are located at St. Johns, Woodstock and the Jewish neighborhood house. The branch is in North Albina.

C. W. Miller of the Mt. Hood company was in town yesterday. He says much machinery is waiting for transportation across the Sandy river. It is probable the first construction train will cross the new bridge next Sunday. The crossing has been put in place where the Mt. Hood line crosses the Troutdale branch of the O. W. P.

R. W. Calkins was in town yesterday. He is still suffering from the effects of a runaway which occurred last week on the Base Line road. His team became frightened and started to run. The tongue dropped and threw Mr. Calkins out. In the fall his collar bone was broken. Mr. Calkins is making a good recovery.

The big hole which appeared in the glass door of Foster's restaurant Thursday morning was not caused by a burglar or a rough house. Only by Robt. and Wm. McNally, who were doing some painting late in the evening when the ladder gave way throwing Robert on to his brother who was working below and incidentally knocking out a pane of glass. Robert will be more careful about coming down in the future.

Mary Hanson will spend Saturday and Sunday visiting friends at Salem.

Ford Metzger and Miss Edna Hamlin were married in Portland last Monday. They will make their home in Gresham.

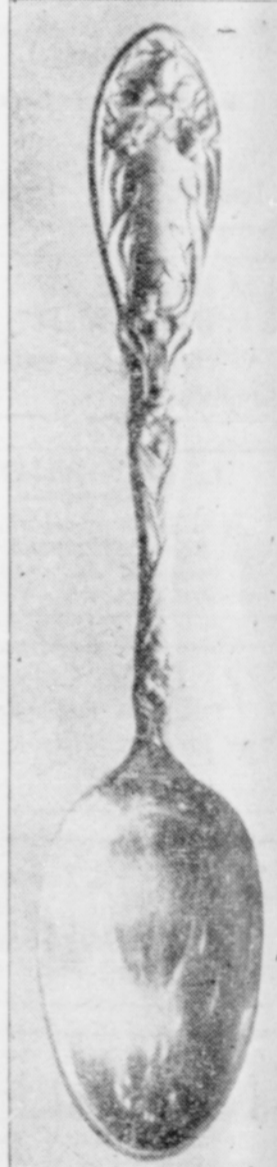

Steve Gvktch got to celebrating a little too much the other day on our streets and was taken in hand by the marshal. He was brought before Recorder Roberts charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $8 which he refused to pay but finally decided to do. Then he claimed the privilege of boarding out the amount at the town's expense. He was finally persuaded to vacate the jail.

God Wants the Boys, the Girls.
 God wants the boys, the merry boys,
 The noisy boys, the funny boys,
 The thoughtless boys;
 God wants the boys, with all their joys—
 That He as gold may make them pure
 And teach them trials to endure.
 His heroes brave He'd have them be,
 Fighting for truth and purity;
 God wants the boys.

God wants the girls, the happy girls,
 The lively girls, the romping girls,
 The cheering girls;
 God wants the girls, in tresses or curls—
 That He may make them all His own,
 To love, and serve; each duty done.
 His daughters fair as pillars to stand
 In temples holy, pure and grand.
 God wants the girls.
