MELROSE

Victory school, District No. 49, taught by Miss L. E. Bourgeois, closes a very good year with an entertainment and basket social to be given at the school house tomorrow night, May 27th at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is expected and a good time is assured.

Two other entertainments have been given in this new district this year. There are only a few eighth grade pupils in the school, but all who took the recent state examinations have passed. Twenty-seven pupils have been enrolled this year and there has been a good average attendance.

The quarterly meeting will be held at Hiff Memorial church, Sunday, June 4, 1911, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Jas. Moore will be present. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered and it is hoped many will attend.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home, Thursday, June 1st. There will be a family reunion. Their sons, Isaac T. and Wm. S., who live at Melrose, with their eight grand children will be present.

Roads in this vicinity are being graveled as fast as the weather will permit and a good job is being done.

Rev. Brown and brother have recently purchased a twenty acre tract of Thompson & Pugh and will erect a good house at once.

Mr. McKay is engaged in starting a chicken ranch on the Forbes tract.

Mr. McCreary will soon begin the erection of a residence.

John Burns is building a fine large barn.

Mr. Kerslake has just completed his $2,000 house.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Mrs. M. Kronenberg has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks with a severe case of la grippe. We hope she will recover soon.

Frank Jones, while shingling Mr. Harmon's house, had the misfortune to fall and jar himself up very badly, also breaking his nose. The scaffolding on which he stood broke and he fell about thirty feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bills of Oakland, California, were the guests of Mrs. Bills' brother, Martin Kronenberg, Friday.

Owing to the sickness of Mrs. Kronenberg, the school district of No. 28, will give a picnic instead of holding an entertainment at the school house, as she was to drill the children in their singing.

Mrs. Herbert Lewis is reported to be quite sick and had to return to the hospital again. Her speedy recovery is expected.

Mrs. Taylor is reported to be slowly improving.

Pleasant Valley Grange will hold an all day session Saturday, May 27, it being the seventh anniversary.

It is expected that Mr. Kruger of Lents, and J. J. Johnson and other members of Evening Star Grange will be present.

FAIRVIEW

William Anderson, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, died at the family residence here Monday afternoon after seven weeks' illness. The child was 20 months old.

School will close here Friday. The pupils, with their teachers, will have a picnic in Stone's grove on that day, and will give an entertainment in the Presbyterian church in the evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of Smith Memorial church, will hold a special meeting on Thursday afternoon in the church.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS.

Strawberries are coming to the front in Clackamas county this season. Some of the members of the Oregon City Fruit and Produce union went to Clackamas Tuesday evening, to hold a second meeting with the growers of that district.

After a number of talks on benefits to be derived from the union, and the method of working same, the Oregon City delegation returned home, leaving the Clackamas men to take up the matter of joining amongst themselves. Among those who spoke to the gathering were: O. E. Freytag, Ben Kuppenbender, G. W. H. Miller and Mr. Blum of Portland, who is a member of the brokerage firm that is to handle the crop. P. A. Schmidt, of Oregon City, also addressed the meeting on the benefits of farmers' unions.

H. F. Wilson, assistant entomologist at the Oregon Agricultural college, was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Wilson while here conferred with many of the Clackamas county farmers regarding the depredations of the insect known as the pear blight beetle. Mr. Wilson will visit Hubbard, Aurora and Hillsboro, where pears are grown in larger quantities, and instruct the grower how to prevent the blight.

While visiting in the city he went to the Maple Lane district, accompanying C. W. Swallow, one of the prominent fruitgrowers of this county, whose home is at Maple Lane.

The expert visited the orchards at that place and examined affected trees carefully, taking cuttings from many of them, and upon his return to the Agricultural college will make a thorough examination, and send the pear growers a full report of his discoveries, with information as to the combating of the pest.

One million pike perch eggs have just been shipped from Northville, Mich., to the United States Bureau of Fisheries at Clackamas Station. Upon being hatched at this station the fish will be shipped to Tacoma and liberated in Gravelly Lake, near Tacoma, under the direction of W. F. Sheard. This is the first time that eggs of the perch have been sent in quantities to the Pacific Coast. The pike perch is a fine food fish and is gamey. It is the same class as the pickerel and is quite common around the lakes of the middle West.

A. Kohl, 22 years old, was seriously injured in an accident at a saw-mill in Logan Wednesday. In reaching for a piece of wood his clothing caught in the saw, and three of his fingers of his left hand were severed.

J. C. Bates, aged 80 years, of Oregon City and one of the oldest and best known settlers of Clackamas county, died of pneumonia Wednesday morning. Mr. Bates settled in Redland in 1872. He was prominently identified with the building of Clackamas county and was beloved by all who knew him. The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock Friday at the M. E. church in Redland and interment made in Redland cemetery.

KELSO

School closed last Friday and the teachers, Miss Jessie Johns and Miss Bessie Lewis, have returned to their respective home at Gladstone.

The basket social held at the school house last Saturday evening was well attended. The proceeds amounted to $42.89, part of which will be used to purchase a flag for the school and the balance for books.

Alfred Rich brought a herd of horses from Eastern Oregon last week.

TROUTDALE.

A. Fox, who has been in business here for twenty years, is planning to remove in the near future to much better and more commodious quarters.

The pupils of the Troutdale schools with their teachers and friends are enjoying a picnic today down by the Sandy river on the camp ground.

Laurence Hudson of Bridal Veil is attending the school picnic here today.

Miss Beulah Griffith of Kenton is renewing acquaintances and taking in the school picnic.

All teachers of Troutdale school have been re-elected.

Mrs. Ethel Mitchell, who has been visiting with Mrs. E. W. Greivish the past fortnight, has returned to Portland.

Miss Zurble and Ethel Wilson, together with Robert and Lewis Wilson, all of Portland, visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson last Sunday.

A. R. Lyman, the business manager of the Gresham Outlook, was here Wednesday looking up subscriptions and taking orders for job work.

Mrs. John Larson, who has been visiting in Bellingham and other Washington points recently returned to her home.

Blanch Copeland and Hazel Holtz of Fairview were visitors at the home of Mrs. Matilda Hogue, yesterday.

O. M. Nelson has gone to Seattle for a few days.

Mrs. J. W. Greivish will leave in a few days to visit her mother, who is very ill in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Mrs. Zimmerman was a visitor of Gresham friends last Tuesday.

W. Pasgar of Minneapolis has moved his family into the Chapman house. Mr. Pasgar has also rented a part of Cherry Orchard park near here.

BORING

Miss Norma Kumbly and two of Elmer Hickey's children are down with the measles. All are reported as being better.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hederman left Friday for a six months trip through Germany where they expect to visit relatives and friends.

The Stevens Cubs of Portland defeated the Boring team on Sunday. Score 9 to 7.

W. R. Telford made a business trip to Camby on Monday.

The new livery barn of Turner & Morgan is almost completed. They expect to be ready for business about the first of June.

Mrs. Gunn has returned from a three months' trip through California. She reports that she had a fine time.

F. M. Morgan made a business trip to The Dalles last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morand and son made a trip to Cascade Locks and Stevenson, returning Monday evening.

Mrs. I. D. Turner has been on the sick list for several days but is now improving.

The Boring ball team will play the Eagle Creek team next Sunday at Boring.

POWELL VALLEY

The six eighth grade pupils of the Powell Valley school, who took the recent state examination, have all passed and will receive their diplomas tomorrow evening without any conditions. This is certainly a great credit to the pupils, to the school and their teacher, Mrs. Lansdown.

SECTION LINE

School closes here the 26th and the pupils of the Buckley school are planning to have a picnic on that day.

Miss Margaret Dickson has gone to Pendleton to visit relatives.

County Supt. Robinson called at the Buckley school Monday.

The pipe line is in to the top of Mt. Tabor but the Section Line road is still in a bad condition.

SANDY.

The Sandy Commercial club at a largely attended meeting and banquet last Monday night among other things decided to hold a big Fourth of July celebration under the auspices of the club. They also decided that Sandy ought to be incorporated and a meeting of citizens is called for next Monday night to take preliminary steps towards incorporation. The sentiment is strongly in favor of the move and it will likely go through.

No Use for Them.

"You should have one of these bedroom telephones said the agent.

"No, thank you," replied the housewife. "Neither my husband nor I talk in our sleep."—Detroit Free Press.
