The prizes given by the merchants for the Oregon City rose show, to be held in Willamette hall next Saturday were displayed Wednesday in the windows of the Adams store. They consist largely of cut glass and silverware and are unusually handsome. Arrangements have been made with the Oak Grove girls' band to march in the children's parade and furnish the music during the afternoon at the rose show. Patterson Bros.' orchestra of Gladstone, has been engaged to furnish the music in the evening. The women having the arrangements of the show in charge on Wednesday made a request that all persons having roses, enter them in the exhibition. Children who will take part in the parade are busy decorating their little vehicles. They are taking great interest in the work and much rivalry exists or the handsome prizes to be given.
