ROCKWOOD.
 On last Saturday evening a hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown gathered in the Maccabee hall to give them a farewell reception, as they move from here to Gresham. The evening was spent with cards and dancing. A bounteous lunch was served and enjoyed by all. We realize our loss will be Gresham's gain.
 Chester Kronenberg has returned home from school at Eugene and will look after the farm while his father spends a few weeks at St. Martin's Springs. Mr. Kronenberg's health has been quite poorly for the past year caused by overwork.
 A Mr. Staub is fitting up a room in the Snover building and will open an up-to-date boot and shoe repair shop.
 There is talk of the school board removing the fence from around the school yard and otherwise beautifying the yard before the next school year.
 Jack Lucher's large dairy barn is nearing completion and has hay already cut to put in it.
 Archie Campbell went to Madris, Crook county, on last Monday and filed on a homestead and will soon become an Eastern Oregon wheat grower.
 Dr. Ed. Smith was called Wednesday to Bairdsdale to see Seth Hall's to attend a fine Jersey cow, which became foundered from eating rolled oats.
 The Osborn Bros. are now preparing to improve the Osborn park by cutting the underbrush and removing the old legs. In this park is situated the largest spring in Eastern Multnomah and in the near future will be worth a gold mine.
 Mrs. Maude Axtell is still in a critical condition with but very slight hopes of recovery.
 William Ellison is still getting along nicely with his case of blood poisoning while Baby Ellison is still seriously sick.
 Wm. Zimmerman has been moved to the hospital and is a very sick man, a sufferer of liver complaint and yellow jaundice.

PLEASANT HOME
 Miss Leona Jamison of Portland is a guest at the nigel side farm.
 Mrs. J. A. Stephens will move to her beautiful Tia Juana tract, where peacefully flows the rippling waters of Johnson creek, that offers rest to all the weary and heavy laden.
 Leonard Louderback and Miss Keare were guests of Mrs. Cannon Sunday.
 Order to close the warehouse of the Mt. Hood Construction company caused the manager, Mr. Louderback, to go farther east to take charge of same at Bull Run.
 The Brower family are at their farm for a short time.
 Dr. Grant and wife of California visited the Markell family this week.
 Marion Miller of Myrtle Point, Oregon, is visiting his parents.
 Mrs. Edith Miller spent several days at her old home this week.

BORING.
 Mrs. Robert Jones of Fairview came up on Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Roe.
 There is a great improvement being made on the street in South Boring, which is highly appreciated by all.
 About thirty Boringites took in the Rose Festival parade on Saturday night, arriving home on the late car.
 Next Friday evening June 16, there will be an ice cream social and a program at the M. E. church. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Sunday school. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
 A large crowd from Boring went to Pleasant Home last Sunday, where the Boring ball team were to play the Pleasant Home team, but several of the Boring team could not be there so they were compelled to 'pick up' a nine—consequently the score stood 15 to 3 in favor of Pleasant Home.
 Ed. Richards (Casey) is sick with the measles. There have been several cases around here. Ivan Thompson, Mrs. Jack Collins, Mrs. Elmer Collins, Norma Lunday and little Henry Lunday are just recovering from them.
 Harry Miller got struck on the foot with a ball while playing at Pleasant Home on Sunday, and is laid up with a very badly swollen foot. Thanks to the P. H. pitcher, Charlie Palmer and Frank Roseboom spent Saturday and Sunday on an outing near Welches. They reported a jolly time.
 Mrs. Gossie Fisher has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be able to be out among her friends again.
 J. W. Roots and S. E. Card, two of Boring's lively merchants, and Attorney H. H. Hughes were transacting business in Oregon City on Monday.

FAIRVIEW
 Pomona Grange will be held here on June 21 in the school house.
 Children's Day will be observed next Sunday at the Smith Memorial church. The exercises will begin at 10:30 a. m.
 Rapid progress is being made in the grading of First and Second streets although considerable of rock blasting has to be done. The work is under the supervision of Robt. Robertson. The citizens seeing the good work going on are now becoming anxious for the streets to be graded along their property, hence there is a possibility of several streets being graded at once.
 E. L. Wilkinson, who resigned the O. R. & N. agency here a short ago, has accepted a position in the baggage department in Portland and has moved to Woodlawn. Mr. Boyle, our new agent, being transferred from Hood River after five years' service there will move his family here as soon as he can find a house. Mrs. Boyle herself has had considerable experience as an agent and with her two daughters form an orchestra of their own.
 A camp has been erected on the Mt. Hood line at Barker's road or what will be known as Sellwood, where the balasting crew of said road is located and balasting is being rushed as fast as possible.

TROUTDALE
 Prof. P. M. Nash made a business trip to Ranier Monday.
 Frieda Holm has gone to Gresham today on business for her father who has been ill for some time. Mr. Holm is improving in health and is now able to sit up.
 Mrs. H. Surber and daughter, Opal, went to Kenton yesterday to attend the Adventist camp meeting.
 There will be a dance in Tiller's hall Saturday evening.
 The Union Telegraph baseball team played here Sunday with the Troutdale boys and were defeated by a score of 9 to 16.

William Robert Carlson, Milwaukie. Electrical engineering course — Bernhard Olsen, Milwaukie. Mechanical engineering course — William Everett Taylor, Oregon City; Joseph Benjamin Yoder, Needy. The honor students were Dorris Young, William Taylor and Joseph Yoder, the two latter being the only honor students from the department of mechanical engineering Taylor's record is especially good as he completed a four years course in three years. Among the Clackamas people who attended the commencement exercises were I. D. Taylor and son, J. L. Taylor, Mrs. Samuel Elmer and Mr. Yoder.
 The Fourth of July celebration at Sandy promises to be more extensive this year than before. Twice the amount of money has been raised than for other years and everyone is helping to make the picnic a success. A parade will be given with many novel features. The committee has full charge of the grove, and better accommodations and more stands will be erected on the grounds. A large dancing platform will be erected for the afternoon, and an effort is being made to secure a dance hall for the evening. George C. Brownell will be the speaker of the day.
 Jonsrud Brothers' sawmill is running with the largest crew employed since the mill was built, putting out ties and lumber for the Mt. Hood railroad.
 C. M. Rosenman, Mr. Lehman and Mr. Morrison, of Bull Run, were entertained by Misses J. C. Perez and Mildred Holmes and Mrs. A. J. Mr. and Mrs. James Mullen have returned to Portland after spending a few days at the Mt. Hood hotel as guests of Mrs. A. J. Gould.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Remington of Bull Run have gone to Hood River to visit Frank Davenport, Jr., and family.
 G. Davis, brother of Marshall M. Davis, has gone back to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to visit his mother.
 Rowe & Holden are erecting 50 summer cottages at Rhododendron, near the hotel, and will rent them to campers.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Miles of Sandy are the proud parents of a baby, born Tuesday.

Look Here Son!
 Your father had it pretty hard in his day. There was no way for him to get the special training essential to promotion. With the opportunity offered young men of to-day by the INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS, it's easy for you! If you don't get a high position and a good salary it's your own fault.
 To-day I. C. S. students are holding the most highly paid positions all over the country, as manufacturers, superintendents, overseers, foremen, and experts.
 Every month several hundred students voluntarily report increases in salary and position through the help of the I. C. S.
 What the I. C. S. has done for them it will do for you. It will give you the right start, train you to advance in your present line, or help you to change to an occupation that suits your inclination.
 Mark the coupon as directed and mail it to-day. The I. C. S. will advise you freely how to qualify for an advance. This advice will cost you nothing but a stamp, and put you under no obligation. If you are open to conviction, if you are ready to grasp the hand held out to you, do not be deterred by fear that you cannot succeed.
