GRESHAM

Mrs. Clara Collins has been quite ill this week.

Mrs. George Isham has gone to Wyeth, Oregon, for a short visit with her parents.

Miss Parmely has been spending a few days in Gresham and went to Portland to visit Tuesday evening.

Miss Harvey of Lents, who taught in the Powell Valley school was in Gresham Wednesday.

A. F. Miller of Sellwood was a visitor in Gresham last Saturday and attended the Grange.

Bert Lindsey has been sick with tonsillitis this week and part of the time unable to be in the store.

Mrs. Minnie Fairfield, of Newport, recently visited her brother, Ed. Smith.

Work on the buildings at the poor farm is well along. Workmen are now putting on the roofs.

Miss Balch arrived Tuesday from Colorado and will visit this summer with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Ferris.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood had a visit on Monday from an old friend, Geo. Folsom of Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Nellie Wilnot of Portland visited Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Hanson and other relatives.

Herbert Cecil of Portland was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood this week.

Carl Congdon had an operation performed yesterday on his throat which it is hoped will relieve him of a distressing trouble.

F. E. Todd has painted two attractive signs which are being hung upon the Dowsett-Pateneau building announcing the occupants.

Mrs. I. McColl is having forty-two new boxes put in the Gresham post office. The local business of the office has increased until every box was in use.

Rev. M. M. Reid passed through Gresham Monday on his way to Oregon City. He will visit his parents in Vancouver before returning.

Several cars of lumber were unloaded Tuesday by the Mt. Hood railway company, preparatory to building a depot. We understand that the building will be about 24x72 feet.

Sim Stafford of Banks was seen greeting old friends in this locality this week. He came down to sell his love. Did anybody hear him say, "I love you Banks, but O you Gresham?"

Mrs. J. W. French, of The Dalles, made Mrs. Jennie Kronenberg a present of a very valuable driving horse. It was shipped to Portland Wednesday by boat from The Dalles.

Mrs. Kronenberg went in and drove the horse home that night.

On June 21st a deal was consummated whereby J. W. Parker became the owner of the pool room and confectionery store of Cooley & Miller. Mr. Parker expects to take personal charge as soon as he can complete the house he is building.

Rev. A. B. Calder will preach in the Methodist church Sunday at 11. In the evening reports from delegates returning from the International Sunday school convention will be given. An interesting service is promised.

E. E. Chipman, carrier on route 1, has had "Old Sally" retired and her engine fixed up so that now she moves off along the road just like a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Undoubtedly Mr. Chipman will enter "Old Sally" in the amateur auto race.

G. H. Dammeler and Miss Hazel Jensen, daughter of L. P. Jensen, of Woodburn, Oregon, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. A few relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dammeler will spend some time this summer touring Oregon by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roberts of Welches arrived in Gresham Tuesday afternoon by stage. They will remain several days. Mr. Roberts is a witness on a homestead final proof. He reports things lively at Welches. Many people are planning to be at the resort next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. Freund of the German Evangelical church had a very pleasant surprise last Sunday afternoon when about twenty members of his German class appeared with dainty refreshments at his boarding place, Theodore Brugger's. Many older people of the congregation came in later and spent a very pleasant afternoon with their pastor.

Mrs. Dahl Miller, principal singer of White Temple, Portland, and vocal teacher, had a vocal recital of her advanced classes Tuesday evening. Quite a number of invited guests listened to the creditable singing of the different young ladies and Mrs. Dahl Miller herself. All students did splendidly and were applauded. Miss Grace Hessel of Gresham and Miss Ray Zimmerman, formerly of Fairview, now Portland, were among those who participated. J. C. Hessel was one of the invited guests.

The next regular council meeting will be held Tuesday night, July 11.

Miss Myrtle Cann of Portland has been visiting her niece, Mrs. J. M. Johnston.

The Commercial club holds its regular meeting the first and third Wednesday nights of each month.

The Shattuck & Lindsey baseball team will play with the Portland Pheasants in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Purdy of Eugene, Oregon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sibbald, the latter part of last week.

Sterling & Johnston have the contract to furnish all the hardware supplies for the Dowsett-Pateneau building.

Emory Roberts is home from Eastern Oregon where he has had charge of a surveying crew. He will remain for the Fourth.

Master Gormally Merrill had the misfortune yesterday to fall from his Shetland pony, which shied at a dog. His left arm was broken above the elbow. Dr. Short was called to dress the arm.

Miss Winnifred Osborn entertained her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtiss of The Dalles, Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawrence.

Roy Wood is seen limping slightly with a sprained ankle. It is reported he got into a little tussle with a "crank" and was turned down.

M. O. Nelson made a business trip to Portland Thursday. He has nearly finished his strawberry picking, having marketed only forty crates last Wednesday. Some days during the rush he sold as high as 140 crates per day.

Miss Ruth Tasker joined her parents near Troutdale a few weeks ago. She was left behind at Hamlin University, St. Paul, Minn., when Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tasker came west in the winter. Miss Tasker contemplates entering some college in Oregon this fall.

Three cheers for our illustrious Washington, St. Patrick and Jack Johnson. Also for all our other illustrious 4-fathers, for had it not been for their glorious efforts we would have been sitting at home lonely and forlorn next Tuesday thinking about the score of the baseball game last Sunday, and not have our grand good time on our glorious 4th of June years. It only comes once this year so let us lay aside our sparring and other business troubles and cares and join in a jolly good time in the high old-fashioned way with firecrackers and fun. The following styles will be prevalent this year:

3:40 a. m.—or a few hours later—Grand gathering of the Duphunes from all corners of the county, including Troutdale for the reception and entertainment of visitors at Hom Towitt's butcher shop.

Afterwards—Forming the procession in three or four divisions of wild goose columns each.

First division—Grand Mogul, the mayor and his aids. All sober and good looking characters will be in this division. What a waste of beauty this will be. A burlesque Liberty car with a section of Bull Run pipe fitted up in fantastic array.

Second division—Low spirits. Band of Octor Dott's windjammers. All mean and colored looking coons will get bounced. Bicycle phunny phellows will fall in here.

Third division—Jack Sprout's Scrapbook music will lead. All advertising wagons, but no infernal machines or powder factories allowed here. Will be blown if we'll have 'em.

The line of march will begin at Lattuck & Sindsey's on Strain meet and then go until you smell bacon grease at the restaurant. There we'll turn round and go down to the graveyard and past the creameries. Don't go in to see the boys for they'll come out to see you. From here you'll go back up to the Hout Mood railroad to meet a friend. Now come back to Ren Baine's corner and get onto the fair grounds in time to hear the sprouting of the orator who has been fed up for the occasion. The tail end of the procession will then be passing Haul Pretzel's dough shop and be buying buns for lunch.

During the march there will be a monstrous waste of noise by Octor Dott's band as follows:

"What are the Wild Waves saying about the Bull Run Pipe Line?"

Symphony, "I don't care if School Keeps or Not," by Patsy Bolliver.

Bazoon solo, "Up in an Airship," by Barney Futsur.

Closing hymn, "Oh What Lots of Fun Boys," by Lukey Sizuheel.

On the grounds there will be more of the same and some other things we can't think of. But be sure and bring all your small change as we need it in our business of celebrating.

Hurrah for the Fourth!

By Job Toplift.
