GRESHAM

Mr. Congdon has been suffering the past week from a severe attack of tonsillitis on account of which he had an operation performed on his throat.

M. L. Kent returned yesterday from a trip to California. Mrs. M. L. Kent and children will remain for a time at Rendondo Beach.

Wm. Hessel is here from California spending about a month's vacation with the home folks. He likes our cool summers and is especially fond of fishing. He will walk a long ways for a few trout.

Mrs. A. M. Clark of Portland and niece, Nanny Anderson, of Fairview were the guests of Mrs. Clark's daughter, Mrs. J. T. Stillion on Sunday.

W. D. Rich, wife and two sons are expected today from Cincinnati. They are old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bachmeyer whose guests they will be while looking for a location.

Ed. Kent who is teaming for the pipe line at Bull Run, is spending a few days in town.

Shattuck & Lindsey ball team was beaten by the Portland Pheasants at Kenon Sunday by a score of 10 to 9. Eleven innings were played. Batteries—Shattuck and Lindsey, Middleton and Hamlin. Portland Pheasants—Hoskie and LaNorme. Another game between these two teams will be played on the Gresham field at 9 a. m. July 4th.

J. J. Kent and wife who have been visiting his brother, M. L. Kent, have returned to Edgewood, South Dakota, where Mr. Kent has a good position as yard master on the Burlington.

C. E. Clark of Gates received an ugly wound in the head last week. He went to split a log with a maul and wedge when a piece of the wedge broke off and striking him just a little to one side of the middle of the forehead cut a deep gash.

Ed. Roberts and wife returned to Welches Monday.

The Gresham Giants won the game Sunday against Rupert's Eschels by a score of 6 to 2. These teams will match bats again on the Gresham Fair grounds at 1 o'clock July 4th.

Mrs. J. P. Powell went to Portland Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clananah in their new auto, where she visited with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Forrester.

W. C. Burch and family have returned to Gresham from Boring where they have been camping for a few weeks past while Mr. Burch was engaged on a clearing contract.

E. A. Baker has been painting up his buildings and making things look like new.

Our friends and readers will find many evidences of haste in this number of the Outlook. Please remember that we go to press one day earlier and we are going to celebrate the Fourth of July with the rest of the people.

Mrs. Herbert Schofield of Newminister, B. C., is visiting with the Congdons this week.

Max Schneider has been hustling the last few days on those souvenir cards mentioned in his ad.

The Royal Rustlers class of the M. E. Sunday school will have a picnic at Cedarville Thursday. They will have as guests the girls of the Sunshine class. Each class will be accompanied by its teacher.

A local of the F. S. of E. is being started in Gresham. Already nearly 50 have signed as charter members.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beadle were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Conley.

Rev. A. B. Calder preached a helpful sermon Sunday morning at the Methodist church taking for his theme "The Love of God." Mr. and Mrs. Calder were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr on Sunday.

The Outlook erred last Friday in saying that Mrs. Jennie Kronenberg was the recipient of a fine horse (a gift of a friend from The Dalles. It should have said Mrs. Joseph Kronenberg.

The roads were in such prime condition Sunday that hundreds of autos were out speeding on our dustless well oiled roads.

Miss Edna Shoemaker, missionary and teacher from the Baptist Chinese Mission School of San Francisco, is spending a short vacation with her mother, Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker.
