GRESHAM

J. C. Hudson, bookkeeper of the construction company for the Mt. Hood railway, was a business visitor in Gresham yesterday.

Lonner Pugh was home Monday and left Tuesday morning on his trip to Madras over the new railroad. He is news agent for Barkro Brothers of Portland and is sent out on various trips.

F. Caldwell, a photographer from Portland, was taking pictures of the interior of the stores and offices of Gresham this morning.

J. W. Shattuck returned the first of the week from Alaska where he and Mrs. Shattuck have been visiting their son at Juneau and Skagway. He reports a very pleasant and interesting trip. Mrs. Shattuck is at Seattle visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Max Schneider and Mrs. Elkington are planning for an auto trip to Seattle next week.

Work was resumed this morning on the county road which crossed the new Mt. Hood railroad between the Talbot farm and the Wm. Gedamke tract. Supervisor Kenney states that the road will now be put in condition for travel and the railroad people will put in a station at the crossing.

When you go on your vacation keep informed. Order the twice-a-week Outlook sent to your vacation address.

The Baptist church in Pleasant Valley is being given a coat of white paint which will improve its appearance greatly.

D. W. Rich and family, who have been here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bachmeyer, returned last Tuesday to Cincinnati by way of Seattle and Puget Sound and over the Canadian Pacific railway. They were very favorably impressed with Oregon in every way except its mosquitoes and may return to make their home here some day.

The way some people are crowding the buildings in some parts of Gresham would indicate a dearth of land, better spread the town out more and give people a chance to breathe.

The pipe line ditch is being rapidly filled up this week by a crew of 31 men and several teams and scrapers. There will be some surplus earth to be disposed of in some other way, however.

The Outlook received yesterday a very nice letter of appreciation from Edith Will, librarian for the East side Portland reading room, in which the receipt of the paper was acknowledged and the statement was made that it would be enjoyed very much by the patrons on account of their interest in Gresham.

G. H. Sunday is building a new barn for himself this week.

Wilbur Thompson has gone to The Dalles for a few weeks' visit with his brother, Dr. Fred Thompson. Wilbur is slowly recovering from his recent severe illness.

Dr. O. S. Murray of Pleasant Home gave The Outlook a pleasant call the other day. He can relate some stirring war experiences.

Lewis Shattuck and wife and Mrs. Dinger went to the mountains Saturday and returned Sunday.

H. E. Davis and family go to the mountains today for a short vacation.

Mrs. Theo. Brugger has been quite ill this week with the quincy but is much improved today.

Rev. F. H. Freund has returned from his trip to Idaho and will occupy the pulpit of the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday morning.

The pastor will preach both morning and evening in the M. E. church next Sunday. Morning subject, "A Bewildered Man." Evening, "God's Grace."

Mrs. T. A. Lawson went to Portland Wednesday and on her return was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Gertrude.

Donald Thomas, a boy working on the Ruby ranch was struck yesterday in the forehead by a whiffletree which broke in front of him while he was driving a horse to hoist hay into the barn. Dr. Belt was called and took him to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. The skull was found to be fractured but it is thought that he will recover.

The six graduates of the Powell Valley school had their pictures taken yesterday. They were so busy at the close of school that they could not get together but the principal, Mrs. Lansdowne, got them together yesterday.

At the close of the prayer meeting Thursday night at the Methodist church the election of a delegate to the Lay Elect oral conference was taken up and resulted in the unanimous choice of C. E. Pugh. The Electoral conference will meet at Salem the last of September in connection with the Oregon annual conference.

The meeting of the Commercial club Wednesday night did not materialize. Many were away, others forgot and a few came. The first and third Wednesday nights are the meeting nights.

Henry Worter, recently from North Dakota, has purchased the D. W. McKay place of about 33 acres on the Base Line road and will take possession with his family at once. Mr. Worter is a brother-in-law of the Bratzel's at Gresham. Victor Berg, who has been on the place will go to Aurora.

Mr. Young, a medical student from New York, who spent several weeks during the winter with the families of Mr. Hill and Mr. Aton but is now employed in Portland, came out Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hill.

Gust Larson went Wednesday to Vancouver, Wash., with Tommy Omsdorff to attend the funeral of an aunt of Tommy's, who died recently.

R. H. Hughes, manager of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and W. R. Biddle with Olds, Wortman & King, were guests of Carrol Smith with whom they spent some time autoing about the country Thursday evening.

E. E. Marshall will be absent for several weeks having gone out on expert binder work for McChell, Lewis & Staver of Portland.

The Gresham Giants have been invited to play baseball some time in the near future at Prineville in Eastern Oregon. The trip there and return will cost nearly $1,000 but the boys have been asked to come their terms and a game may be arranged for before the season closes.

Owing to an indisposition on the part of some of the Shattuck & Lindsey baseball boys last Sunday, the game which was to be a decisive one, was so poorly played that it went to the Pheasants. Manager Joe Bowden has resigned and the team will probably disband unless a new manager wants to try his hand at resuscitating them.

G. S. McCord moved his household goods here from Lents this week. He expects to bring his family soon and will occupy the rooms on the first floor of his new building on Powell street.

Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker has gone to Dayton, Wash., for a few weeks' visit with her daughter.

Services at the Baptist church on Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours. At the morning service the pastor will discuss the "Sabbath" and will treat the various phases of the question that are interesting people today. At both services a young people's choir will take special part in the music.

Thomas Ginder and Miss Lillian Ginder are spending a few days visiting relatives in Portland.

B. W. Emery recently shipped over a carload of hay to Bull Run. It was last year's hay and was in fine condition.

The frame is going up for Carroll Smith's new bungalow on Hood avenue.

Why Are We Moving?
To Meet the Demands

Courteous treatment of patrons; promptness of delivery; high standard of goods and right prices have so increased our business that we have been compelled to seek larger quarters and consequently are moving into the finest storeroom in Eastern Multnomah County.

TO MEET THE DEMANDS of our growing trade we have been gradually acquiring the sole agency of a number of the best brands on the market, both in the dry Goods and Grocery lines.

DRY GOODS
In our Dry Goods Section can be found the
"LAST FOREVER" STOCKINGS for Men, Women and Children. A Stocking for 25c with a guarantee.
H. Wolf & Sons "BOSS OF ALL" Overalls and Shirts.
"COMMON SENSE SUSPENDER," the most durable and practical Suspenders on the market,
A full line of the J. C. C. CORSETS ranging in price from 75c to $5.00. Everyone guaranteed.
A staple line of wash fabrics, including DOMESTIC PRINTS GINGHAMS, Etc., also LAWNS and MOHAIRS.

GROCERIES
In our GROCERY Section will be found a full line of DEPENDABLE COFFEES, TEAS and SPICES; The MONOPOLE and RED X GOODS in staple lines. We have tested the above brands and know them to be of the best quality. Others carry them in mixed lines, but we make a specialty of them.
We expect to greet you in our New Store about August 1st. But Don't Forget we are still at the old stand, Second and Main Streets, and are meeting our trade each day with New Goods.
OUR MAXIM IS: NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT HOW GOOD.
