GRESHAM

Bessie Camp fell from a cherry tree early last week and hurt herself quite severely. She was picking cherries at Jas. Lawrence's and was well up in the tree when the limb broke and let her drop to the ground, striking another limb on the way which helped break the fall. She struck on her hip and while no bones were broken she was quite badly bruised.

Saturday George Lane in jumping from a load of lumber fell and struck the ground in such a way as to dislocate his arm at the shoulder and bruise the shoulder bones severely. He went to Portland yesterday for an X-ray examination as the doctors have had difficulty in locating the trouble. George was riding on top of the load when the horses became frightened by the lumber crowding upon them and ran. The accident happened near Oscar Thoren's on the east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Sheller, who live on route No. 1, were driving along Ladd avenue in Portland, when the horses became frightened at a passing automobile and ran away. The horses swerved into the curb, throwing Mrs. Sheller out. Mr. Sheller was also thrown from the buggy and dragged several rods before he got on his feet and stopped the team. The buggy was badly smashed. Mrs. Sheller was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mrs. W. H. L. Henley and daughter Bertha of Geddes, South Dakota, who have been making a tour of the west and visiting with O. Thomas, started on their homeward journey Monday.
