

FAIRVIEW

There is an unusual amount of harvest in the fields this year awaiting the baler and ere many days the hum of the thrasher will be heard as grain cutting and stacking is the order of the day. Grain promises to yield well, of good quality. Plenty of fruit, good crop of potatoes and the farmer happy.

A. Kronenberg has purchased an up-to-date auto and is busily engaged building a garage. He and his family will enjoy life now. Chester in the auto, Mr. K. behind his Liga steppers and Mrs. Kronenberg enjoying a fine piano, which was presented to her by Mr. Kronenberg a short time ago. Hard work, good crops, is causing prosperity at this home.

Mrs. F. D. Axtell, who has been seriously ill for the past four months and who underwent a painful and serious operation, was able to be out on the porch last Saturday in a wheel chair and received several callers. As soon as she gains strength enough she will have to undergo another operation. She surely is having her share of suffering.

Fred Andrews is suffering from a piece of iron in his left eye. While it is not dangerous, it is very painful.

KELSO

Mrs. Gilbert Jonsrud and Miss Stella Jonsrud have gone to Astoria to attend the celebration.

Rev. James D. Corby of Portland will speak in Jonsrud's grove Sunday afternoon, August 13, at 2:30. Everyone is cordially invited.

At the last council meeting it was decided to proceed at once to finishing the graveling of First, Second and Cedar streets as the work had stopped on account of harvesting. Robert Robertson was appointed street commissioner, he being unable to procure sufficient teams within the town has hired outside teams, much against his wishes and has a force now finishing the work. Mr. McMain's resigned his chair as alderman and Ralph Copeland was elected to fill the vacancy. There is yet one vacant chair in the council.

Several years ago Napolian Davis, a resident farmer of this place, instigated the movement of a push or improvement club being organized here. Considerable of improvement was gained through this club but the time came when about all they congregated together for was to hear the Buster and Eagle scream two local papers written by members of the club. The club died and was burned with all the pomp of Antiochus. Some new blood has gotten into our town, the old blood sees wherein we stand and have called a mass meeting in the Grange hall next Saturday evening, August 12, for the purpose of resurrecting and putting into actual common sense use our old push club. Every man, woman and child is urgently requested to be present and as the Buster used to say to us don't drag or pull, but push. ## FAIRVIEW

Miss A. Jensen of Portland and old time friend, Gertie Wallin, is enjoying a fine visit at Bairdsdale and is highly pleased with our country life, fresh fruits, vegetables, lovely shade and such grand views across the Columbia.

R. W. Wilcox and Wm. Butler were appointed a committee to wait on O. W. P. officials and ask for a midnight car.

J. H. Schram's boy is improving. He has been quite sick.

J. P. Province of Fairview got his hand badly hurt at Cleveland's gravel pit by a single tree breaking, the end of the singletree striking his hand. It required 10 stitches to sew up the cut.

Ira Brooks and family with Ed. Burlingame and family have gone to the coast for three weeks' outing.

Oscar Wallin of Curtis joined his wife at St. Johns Sunday morning for a da among friends there. Oscar went in over the Mt. Hood line and reports a good ride and fine treatment, even if it was on a flat car.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schram and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wallin will spend a few days at McIntyes next week, eating trout, slaughtering bear and deer, while the women fiko can grasshoppers for winter.

Guy Bennet has gone to Eastern Oregon to make his fortune shoveling wheat.

Those who dance must pay the fiddler. O. J. Brown deposited a slug with the Clackamas county officials for speeding his auto last week.

The many friends of Miss Mabel Pullen of Brunner Station are entertaining fears that she will be required to go to the hospital for treatment. The family have our sympathy.

Edd and Clara McDaniels of Rockwood have gone to Albany to spend a few weeks, visiting and helping their folks through harvest.

John McLinn spent the week here looking after the home while Uncle and Aunt Rowen were sojourning in the mountains.

A watermelon feast will be enjoyed by the members of Rockwood Lodge, 213 L. O. F. and their wives Thursday evening, the 10th.

Miles Grimshaw and wife are visiting J. E. Kottering and wife at Hood River this week.

W. A. Rowen and wife of Columbia spent last week at Cherryville camping with Wm. McLinn. They had an enjoyable time and the rest for Mr. Rowen was worth more than dollars and cents, as his health has been poorly for some time. Mrs. Rowen's only complaint was she could not get enough to eat. Oh, such trout.

Eberhart and Hall, who occupy the John Brown store at Rockwood, are now beginning to do business in earnest. In the beginning it took some time to learn the methods and wants of the people. They were very careful and now have a good trade and increasing fast. They are old storekeepers and thorough business men and run a meat market in connection with the store. They have been in the same kind of business at Oregon City for years.

The harvest fields of Eastern Oregon are luring some away from home. The wheat fields are not what some think they are. It is not an 8 or 10 hour day there, it is usually 12 or 15 and sometimes 25 hours with poor water, poorly cooked food and a tough class of men. We have plenty of work here for those who wish to work with the comforts of home surroundings. Large wages are offered as an inducement when compared with hours of work put in is actually less than we get here. Of course, there are exceptions. We are speaking of common laborers, the bad habits contracted, the cost of coming and going, the loss of time by break downs. All in all, you will be far better off at your home neighborhood with less wages and home comfort. Stay at home, boys, stay at home.

A well is being dug and a water-trough for the public will be put in at the Pebbles on the Base Line. This place will receive a thorough renovating and will now become a popular stopping place for all travelers along the Base Line.

BORING

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson of California are here visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Maxwell, and looking over this beautiful country of ours.

O. Roe and son, Roy, left on Wednesday morning for Independence, where Mr. Roe will do teaming the rest of the summer.

W. H. Boring transacted business in Oregon City Wednesday.

The telephone central office has been removed from Lewis Ritzer's store to J. W. Root's store.

The Epworth League held their regular monthly meeting at the church Tuesday night. The League has quite a membership now and some lively workers.

Rev. A. B. Calder and wife have returned from their vacation trip to Bay City. They made the trip with a horse and buggy and on the way home, as they were camped up in the picket rope injuring it so badly they were compelled to leave it and come home by car. Rev. Calder filled the pulpit at the regular meeting hour on Sunday morning.

J. W. Roots is having the ground graded up around his store which will certainly make a great improvement. He is also clearing the lots adjoining the confectionery store, preparatory to moving his warehouse on them.

Boring is to have a new $3,000 depot. This has been a long felt want and everybody is delighted. It will be erected on the site where J. W. Roots warehouse now stands as soon as the warehouse is moved.

Mrs. Benjamin Kimbly from near Pleasant Home visited with her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Ritzer, on Tuesday.

The "I Will" Bible class of the M. E. Sunday school will give a basket social at the church in the near future. As the date has not been stated yet, further particulars will be announced later.

Mrs. Lillie Aceck was called to Portland very suddenly the first of the week, where she learned that her husband Mr. Aceck, who is visiting a sister in Palouse, Washington, was very seriously sick. She, with her two daughters, Mrs. Lester Townsend and Mrs. Herb Rankin, left for there at once.

Our school house is having some improvements made, the upper floor is being finished up, a new stairway built and everything is getting in readiness for the beginning of the fall term of school. On account of the increased enrollment of pupils it has been necessary to engage another teacher. Mr. Johnson has been hired as principle and Miss Ulrich of Mt. Scott and Miss Robinson of Gresham for the other two rooms.

J. T. McDonald and Miss Beth Childs of Portland spent Sunday with the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. F. Roseboom.

We understand Mr. Root intends to build an addition to his warehouse after he gets it moved. It is hoped he will finish up the upper floor for a good large hall, as that is something Boring needs. Mr. Ritzer has a nice hall but it is too small to accommodate a large crowd.

S. E. Card and Frank Roseboom were among the number that went to Portland on Thursday.

The "Live Wires" held their regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rich on Monday night. They have very nifty looking bills out announcing the next attraction at the Boring opera house, a drama "My Jim," on Aug. 26th, followed by a dance. Always something stirring with the "Live Wires."

Who says Boring isn't some town? Why we are going to have electric lights. J. C. Shultz of the P. R. L. & P company's power plant will commence wiring the residences as soon as the material arrives. Most everybody will have electric lights and those who didn't order them, will be sorry. Keep your eye on Boring. Watch us shine.
