GRESHAM

The Outlook recently referring to the visit of the gypsies to this place implied that they did not pay a license fee. This was a mistake. Marshal Gullikson was onto his job and got nine dollars from them.

Mrs. A. M. Widner and mother, Mrs. Laura Barnes, were renewing acquaintances in Gresham Thursday.

Hotel Congdon had its first guest last Wednesday in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson of Hood River. Mr. Dan McGregor and daughter Isabelle from Sherman county, Oregon, Mrs. C. McGregor and two daughters from Sleepy Eye, Minn., who are making a tour of the West. The latter two young ladies are Minnesota school teachers. All seem to be very favorably impressed and talk quite strongly of making their future homes some where in the vicinity of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Littlepage spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Haugen at Bridal Veil.

Rae Langworthy and his sister, Miss Emma Langworthy, spent a day recently with their aunt, Mrs. C. Oliphant. They are from Minnesota and spent two months on the way visiting Yellowstone Park and other places of interest. They have gone to Newberg to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howard are moving into A. H. Gould's new bungalow. Mr. Howard is a painter and paper hanger.

Mrs. C. Oliphant spent Sunday in Lents with her son Arlie White, who is recently from Minnesota.

The Woman's Home Missionary society held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Gould. Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Ed. Rushef being the hostesses. The local society voted to furnish a room in the Working Girls Home soon to be opened at 12th and Morrison streets, Portland.

Rev. S. P. Pitts will preach in the Free Methodist church Sunday morning.

John Freeman will begin his two weeks' vacation next Monday. Mrs. E. E. Stanley will substitute for him on route 4.

C. C. Hopper, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., is visiting his old schoolmate John Freeman. Mr. Hopper was in Oregon 20 years ago and has longed to return. He may decide to locate here.

The First State Bank of Gresham will break ground soon for a new brick building on the lot just west of the present building to face on Powell street. Particulars at this writing are not obtainable.

Mr. Leonard, who has been painting the big bill board near the O. W. P. depot, is now working on one to be placed near the Mt. Hood. The work on the one completed is very creditable. Gresham cannot have too much advertising so if we must have billboards let them be of art.

Work has begun on Fred Fieldhouse's new residence in Regner's addition. The building will be hurried to completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murphy are moving into rooms in the Regner building.

The Outlook will in a week or two occupy the store building just vacated by Sterling & Johnston in the Regner building on Main street.

Mrs. R. R. Carlson is spending a few days visiting friends at Salem.

Roy Wood and family have moved into their new home on Hood Ave.

Emmet Kelly now occupies a temporary home on Kelly avenue in Zenith addition.

An important meeting of the Commercial club will be held next Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine have returned to their home at Missoula, Montana.

Mrs. M. L. Kent and family arrived up from California early this week.

Well, it was a sight, and some fun, to see the bucking bronco start for the mountains with our enterprising hardware man, Will Johnston, aboard. But he got through all right. Here's for a good time, Will. Look out for bears.

Several bunches of correspondence reached us Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, which were evidently intended for Tuesday's paper. But then they don't have to wait till next Tuesday.

Mr. Beckwith from Portland has been employed as a permanent helper in Fred Fieldhouse's jewelry store.

D. M. Roberts and family have returned from their outing without any serious mishap. D. M. says that inasmuch as the band was not waiting to serenade him, nor the people to give him a reception, he doesn't know as he will go again.

Mark Naugle of Portland is visiting his aunt, Mrs. B. W. Emery.

C. L. Crenshaw is doing the plumbing on the new Mt. Hood depot.

Harry Osman, who has been sick for the past two or three weeks, is able to be up. He was a caller at the Outlook office today.

The new Mt. Hood depot is nearing completion.

The store room recently vacated by W. H. Bachmeyer has been rented to Mr. Powell, recently from Nebraska. He will put in a racket store. The family will occupy room upstairs. Mr. Powell has a nephew at Hood River, who has a large store there.

Services at the M. E. church both morning and evening next Sunday. The pastor will speak on "Eli's Mistake" in the morning. An interesting subject will be treated in the evening.

The Fairview column is very full this issue due to the fact that items for Tuesday's issue were not received early enough for publication. We have thoroughly investigated the cause of this delay and believe it to have been purely accidental. We trust that such delays in the transmission of the mails will not occur very often.

This issue of the Outlook contains many ads. which are worth reading. Don't overlook them.

Rev. Thomas A. Meier, O. L. B., from St. Benedict's Abbey, Mt. Angel, Oregon, is instructing the first communion class in the Catholic church here, the instructions taking three weeks. Communion day will be August 20th.

Mr. Reed of the Vancouver mill, who was seriously burned by the gasoline tank of the automobile truck exploding while he was filling the tank, the front lights igniting it, is slowly recovering. His clothes caught fire and he ran to a nearby well and put out the fire by a tub of water. His arms were so badly burned that the flesh dropped from them. Dr. Lupton was immediately called and states that Mr. Reed will recover. He is now at Marmot with his family.

The Four Hundred club gave a private dance at the Sandy hotel Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pomeroy visited ex-Sheriff M. R. Pomeroy of Clatsop county while on their honey moon to the coast. Mr. Pomeroy will build a bungalow on his property which they will occupy.

L. E. Hoffman is putting a foundation under his house and loves the same. He will soon move shop and build a modern market.
