The Mt. Hood railroad agent has rented E. M. Carpenter's house for a year and takes charge of the station at this place.
Mr. and Mrs. Putney and son, William, visited Markell's Sunday and Monday.
Minnie Shriner is working for Markell while Carl is on his vacation to the mountains.
Mrs. Stephens has been on the sick list for a few days.

The gentle rains stopped the forest fires that was raging in the timber, but it somewhat set the threshers and hay ballers back on their calculations.

Mrs. O'Kisha is in Spokane visiting her daughter and family.
F. Townsend was in town Sunday.
Mrs. John Louderback was in the city several days last week.

Ada Calvin was out from the city spending several days with her father.
Mr. Moore, who terrorized the neighborhood here a short time ago, is now safely lodged in jail as the heavy ball required for his release has not been forthcoming. The people here rest easier now as he had threatened several lives. The family have been able to stay at home since they know he can do them no harm. This is what whisky can do for a man who earns $150 a month. Very little of his earnings went for the support of the family. We are proud to say that this place is not responsible for the broken home as he went many miles for the deadly curse.

FOR SALE—Set of double buggy harness, complete, in first-class shape. Bridals, collars, breechen, pole straps and lines. Everything almost as good as new. Price $25. Geo. W. Alder, phone 136, Troutdale, R. 1, box 83. 57

DOVER
Best wishes to the Outlook in its new home.
