Pleasant Valley

These items were received a little too late for publication last week.

Roy Crosier and Miss Vadus Thurman were married a week ago Saturday evening. The bride is a niece of Mrs. S. R. Durland and their friends wish them all the happiness and prosperity in their new venture. They are at home to their friends at the Ryan ranch.

Geo. Middleton left last week for North Yakima, where he took his week-old baby to place in the care of his brother's wife, who will give it the best of care. We hope it will thrive in the new home.

Miss Daisy Dickson has returned from the mountains with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reynolds, much improved in health.

Thomas Grant has been quite ill again, but at last reports he was improving. He is quite along in years. Mrs. Graham has been retained as nurse.

Miss Pearl Jones was in this vicinity visiting old friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Herbert Lewis, who has been ill, is reported to be improving.

Miss Campbell and Mrs. Borden were callers at Mrs. Kronenberg's one day last week.

The sound of the woodsaw is heard in the neighborhood and the neighbors who have their wood prepared are very glad to hear the welcome buzz of the saw.

School in Dist. 28 began yesterday and Miss Ethel Shupe will have charge of the Lynch school and Miss Frances Lee will again take charge of the Buckley school. Success to them in their new school year and every mother should co-operate with the teacher to make such.

Everybody was glad to see the rain once more as the dust was becoming unbearable, in fact, the rain was needed very much.

Little Clyde Moore, who was shot several weeks ago, is rapidly improving.

Clifford Harmon, with his father, is contemplating a trip to the White Salmon district. May they have a pleasant trip.

Mass was celebrated Sunday, September 10th, at St. Joseph church, Powell Valley road at 10:30 a. m.

Miss Ida Steele was a home guest Sunday.

Watch the Outlook for the news.

What Makes a Successful Bank?

The desire to please will not alone suffice. Banking is a study of service. The confidence of the public is the best gained and held by keeping it well informed as to the condition of the bank. We refer you to statement showing condition of this bank printed in this paper last week.

A bank should be run in the interest of all those entitled to its service and not in the interest of any group of men. Such is the FIRST STATE BANK as its growth signifies.
