Announcement!

On the first day of the Fair Thursday, September 21, THE NOVELTY SHOP opens for business

We are located on Powell Street in the room formerly occupied by Schnieder the Photographer, and we will carry a complete line of 5, 10 and 15 cent goods. We believe in the value of little things; little courtesies, little comforts, little prices. Come in and get acquainted.

W. R. Biddle, Prop., The Novelty Shop.

The new head of the electrical engineering work at the Oregon Agricultural college, W. A. Hillebrand, was called from an assistant professorship at Stanford, where he has been since graduation at Cornell in 1905 except for a short season when he was with the Western Electric company. He is author of a number of valuable papers on electrical science.

Ed. Aylsworth has made a change in his show window which is unique and shows off his display of shoes and haberdashery to good advantage.

D. W. Rich and family, who visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bachmeyer, during the month of July, became very much impressed with the country and expected to return in September, but has had to change his plans for the present and take his wife to southern California for the winter, her health being very poor.

The milk producers held a meeting Saturday at which it was decided to purchase feed in carload lots, each member putting in an order for what he will need for the next six months. It is estimated that about 20 carloads will be used.

Twenty-six crates of fine registered poultry for the fair arrived over the O. W. P. Sunday.

Two pretty showers were given last week in honor of Miss Jennie Metzger. Both were miscellaneous showers and many beautiful pieces were received. The first shower occurred on Thursday night and was given by Miss Elsie Metzger at the home of Dan Metzger. About 15 guests were present some of whom were from Portland.

Mrs. Lucy Toepelman gave a shower on Saturday evening to which a few intimate friends were invited. Those present were, Misses Elsie Metzger, Lottie Davis, Helel Hoas, Bessie Howitt, Grace Lawrence, Minnie Lawrence, Maude Michel, Bessie Osborne and Hope Anderson. The table was beautifully decorated in red and white at which dainty refreshments were served. Most enjoyable evenings were spent on both occasions.

Among other improvements which will be much appreciated by fair visitors this week is the new walk recently completed by Mrs. Schultz, Mr. McLean and Mr. Jennings, between Main street and the entrance to the fair grounds.

W. H. Mankin, the representative of Oregon Life Insurance Company, has been getting acquainted in Gresham. He can be depended upon to give everyone a square deal. People doing business with him will get just the kind of a policy they pay for. He has been with Oregon Life since organization of the company and is held in high esteem by his business associates.

Elizabeth Halliday and Ethel Wilkinson began their course Monday in the Good Samaritan hospital where they are taking nurses' training.

Mary Hansen went to Salem Saturday to make arrangements for entering Willamette University.

Mrs. Grace Talbot has returned from a two weeks' visit with her parents at White Salmon, Wash.

Rev. J. F. Dunlop and wife left for Salem this afternoon where they will attend the annual Methodist conference.

Mae Dougherty returned from White Salmon, Washington, with her sister, Mrs. Grace Talbot, and will attend school here this winter.

A trip through the valley reminds one forcibly of the loss sustained by farmers as a result of recent rains. On almost every farm grain and hay is uncovered in the field, hop growers have suffered and much fruit, peaches, prunes and pears have been beaten to the ground by hail and wind.

Glenn Davidson returned from Parker on Saturday where he has been visiting relatives about three weeks.

Pete Peterson and daughter, Winnie, of Parker, Oregon, visited his brother, J. C. Peterson, last week.

Dr. H. H. Ott's new residence is being painted by Frank Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller of Portland spent Sunday at Gresham with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnston.

About 150 persons attended the play, Broken Fetters, at Metzger's hall last Friday night. The weather was very unfavorable or the attendance would have been larger. The audience was highly pleased and only words of commendation are spoken.

S. E. Markley and Margaret Lockwood, both of cottage Grove, were visitors at Rose Lawn over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gill of Eugene visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Manning. Mr. Gill was an old partner of Mr. Manning in the blacksmith business here ten years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hill and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Crooks of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Crow Sunday.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effective for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by Gresham Drug Company and all Dealers.

The present morning Cottrell train running daily except Sunday on the Mt. Hood railroad has been made a daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dukes of McMinnville called on Mr. and Mrs. Crow Sunday. They were on their way to Bill Run where Mr. Dukes is an engineer.

Roberts & Littlepage have purchased the garage business of Young & Hollipeter and will conduct the business under the old name of the Gresham Auto Company.

The final business meeting of the quarterly conference and official board of the M. E. church was held at the church last night. Reports for the various departments showed that about $2,000 had been raised and expended during the year, the Ladies Aid having made a splendid record. The church property which is free from debt is valued at $7,000.

A card from Wedheke to the Outlook says the autumn days are here and some rain, the campers are got until another season rolls around. The mountains are clothed in the most gorgeous colors of the rainbow, from the autumn leaves which make the scenery worth coming to see and would make an old man feel young again.

Fritz Stoker visited friends and returned yesterday.

Mrs. Cora Carrill is visiting in Portland today.

Miss Grace Wolfe of Portland visited Mrs. S. T. Crow on Sunday.

Miss Annie A. Robbins, formerly nurse U. S. army hospitals, now national lecturer and organizer of the W. C. T. U., will speak at the M. E. church next Sunday, both morning and evening in the interests of the temperance cause. No question is more vital to the future welfare of Gresham so a large attendance, and great interest is expected. Miss Robbins comes to us highly recommended. Do not fail to hear her. She is expected also to deliver an address in the afternoon at the fair grounds.

By the first of October the Mt. Hood railway company will have the grading and track laying completed on Villa avenue at Montavilla so that the trolley cars can discharge passengers at the Mt. Hood depot. This will save people going and coming from the city the long walk between the depot and the trolley line.

E. Dewey is spending this week with his daughter, Mrs. Crow. He is very much interested in the fair and will stay to attend it.

The Mt. Hood railroad company will in a short time supply the public with a pocket size time table and will also publish a booklet on the resources and opportunities of this section.

What Makes a Successful Bank?

The desire to please will not alone suffice.

Banking is a study of service.

The confidence of the public is the best gained and held by keeping it well informed as to the condition of the bank. We refer you to statement showing condition of this bank printed in this paper last week.

A bank should be run in the interest of all those entitled to its service and not in the interest of any group of men. Such is the
