Fairview Mill Enlarged

The Sun Dial Milling Co., has finished another story to the mill and are now installing some new machinery of latest type. Two large ventilators will be placed on the top of the mill, doing away with so much dust which proves very disagreeable to the men at work in the mill, also giving cleaner products from the mill. Nothing too good for the Sun Dial Company.

MANAGEMENT AND POLICY

No matter how strong a bank may be in capital and surplus, its strength depends chiefly upon the character of the men back of it, and the conservative policies to which they adhere. Neither the Directors nor the Officers of this bank speculate with their own funds of the bank. No bank is any stronger or better than the men who manage it. The policy of the officers and directors of this bank is to maintain its well-earned reputation for safety and conservatism.

Mrs. L. P. Manning has gone Woodburn and Salem on a visit with relatives.

Will E. Coats, and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair yesterday. Mr. Coats is at the head of a firm of appraisers and engineers who are doing business in all parts of the country. They contemplate establishing a branch in Portland. Mr. Coats is visiting the leading coast cities, and is on his way to San Francisco.

Mrs. Wm. Harnecker is the possessor of one of those handsome Laurel ranges purchased recently from Sterling & Johnston's.

The Queen Esther circle will begin the fall work soon and meeting will be held in the near future to lay plans.

Mrs. L. D. Creary from Blaine, Oregon, arrived last Saturday and will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. M. Vogel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kardell and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shattuck are attending the fair at Canby today.

Mrs. Mary Martin of Portland has bought two lots in Whitehead's addition and will build a residence at once.

Ben. Mathews will attend the fair at Canby while it lasts.

Mrs. W. R. Kern returned yesterday from a few days' visit with friends in Portland.

Robert Jonsrud of Kelso was in town on business yesterday and favored the Outlook with a call.

W. H. Mankin, of the Oregon Life was in town yesterday in the interests of his company. He is well pleased with the business he has gotten in this locality but of course is after more.

Albert Doane is making cement blocks for many of the new houses now going up in Gresham, among them, Ed. Aylsworth's, Wm. Hookinson's and John Brown's. He is making blocks for Dr. Bittner's fence.

There will be a meeting for the purpose of organizing a local of the F. S. of E. at Hazelwood hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock, also one at Corbett Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. Wednesday at Columbia Grange hall.

Shattuck & Lindsey have been making a special effort to show their new line of goods and as a consequence their display windows are unusually attractive.

Several of the new plate glass display windows in the Gresham stores are showing as fine a line of goods as can be bought anywhere.

Yearly Report of Church

Rev. A. B. Calder of Pleasant Home, Boring and the Hill church, returned home from conference on Tuesday last. He reported his charge as follows:

Salary, $800; house rent $60; home missions $28; foreign missions $28; board of education $2; children's fund $6; board of Sunday schools $10; board of conference claimants connectional fund $8; temperance society $1; Freedmen's Aid society $4; Bible society $1; Woman's Foreign Missionary society $30; Woman's Home Missionary society $1; American S. S. Union $20; Willamette University $12; Laymen's association $5; support of conference claimants $24; general conference expenses $4; central office of the Epworth League $2; Episcopal fund $8. The $30 reported for Woman's Foreign Missionary society was presented by a member of the Pleasant Home church. In addition to this $25 was donated by a member of the Boring church to the Endowment fund of Willamette University.

Two of last year's pupils again returned to high school last Monday, namely, Ray Metzger and Mary Pitts. Ray has just returned from the hop fields.

The Juniors of this year have begun class movement. Last Monday evening they met and elected the following officers: Russell Pugh, President; Margerite Michel, vice president; Viola Mathews, secretary, Floyd Metzger, treasurer. Besides those mentioned, the class consists of Pearl Fleming, Ray Palmquist, Ray Metzger, Lillian Ellis, Helen Hoss, Mabel Burch, Wallace Wilkinson, Fred Wagner, Christina Burkholder, Roland Quisenberry, Chester Daily and Cleveland Bliss. Mrs. Woodard is class advisor.

Miss Pearl Fleming will visit her folks in Portland over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Fleming was in town Thursday and part of Friday.

Miss Marion Robertson, besides teaching her own grades, is teaching music to the entire school of nine grades. She also teaches the ninth grade Latin.

Sewing lessons will be given the girls of the high school at 35 cents per lesson and one lesson a week. This opportunity evens up with the one the boys have, namely, manual training.

Pleasant Home

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Mary Bacon when her friends gathered at her home Tuesday to spend the day in honor of her birthday. At noon the guests brought forth many well filled baskets, which, with Mrs. Bacon's ever filled pantry, made an unequalled feast. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with music, sewing and chatting and all were astonished to find Grandma Hite as spry and able to entereth as she was ten years ago. Mrs. Bacon's daughters, Mrs. Nellie Ahlson of Sellwood and Mrs. Lizzie Hagan from Bull Run, and her sister from Portland were among the guests. Many beautiful gifts were brought with good wishes for the coming year.

The people here were glad indeed to have Rev. A. B. Calder return from conference to spend another year on this charge. There will be church services as usual Sunday evening after Epworth League.

A good representation of livestock at the Gresham fair went from this vicinity. Frank McKinney and Wm. Calvin each took first prizes on their fancy horses and B. C. Altman made a fine showing with his prize Jerseys, having had ten head entered. They were the only Jerseys there. Mr. Altman has about seventy-five such cattle on his dairy farm here, which are the finest in the state.

We are glad to see E. L. Thorpe able to be on the mail route again after so long a sickness. You see, it was impossible for him to be sick at fair time as he always takes an active part, so he immediately got better, like the little boy does when confronted with bitter medicine.

Miss Hazel Goger won first prize on a layer cake at the fair, also first prize on handpleeced quilt top. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Markell and daughter, Mabel, came out from Portland in their auto to spend Tuesday with Mr. Markell's brother W. E. Markell.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Hayworth, where a very enjoyable time was had and much sewing done.

I. N. L. Shriner is having his house painted white, which makes it a very attractive one. The painter is also retouching the interior and making changes.

Mr. Markell is having his well cleaned out and walled up. I. N. L. Shriner and W. E. Markell were Portland visitors the first of the week.

Alva Louderback and family spent several days at the old homestead. Mrs. Ed. Louderback returned to Weston after spending the summer here.

A physician was looking over this place as a favored spot to locate. F. McKinney took his stock to the Canby fair.

Mrs. Stephens spent a week in the city.

The blacksmith and butcher are the busy men of the town.

The school professor's wife has arrived from the East and will locate here.

Mrs. M. Lenartz and sister leaves for the southland the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gergeson and family from Hoover, Washington, stayed at the home of M. Lenartz for a few days. Mr. Gergeson and family drove all the way from their home in Washington, coming to Portland by way of The Dalles. They will settle in Boring until Mr. Gergeson finds a suitable farm to rent or buy. They are highly pleased with this country.
