"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the post office at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

DON'T BE A KNOCKER

Hide your little hammer and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you may really know yourself to be. When a stranger drops in, jolly him. Tell him this is the greatest town on earth—and it is. Don't discourage him by speaking ill of your neighbors. There's no end of fun minding your own business. It makes other people like you. Nobody gets stuck on a knocker.

The many friends of Dalles Simonsen in this locality were pleased to hear of his marriage which took place at Lents last Wednesday. The bride is Miss Tressa McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Simonsen went on a brief trip to The Dalles to visit his relatives. The Outlook extends a warm hand and best wishes.

The esat wind during the past week or two has given us a chance to expand our lungs with plenty of dry air even though at times heavily dust laden. The nights have been clear and cool, affording a magnificent view of Brooke's comet alittle above the eastern horizon, between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning. In fact, the common morning greeting has almost come to be, "Have you seen the comet"? Only a few days remain for seeing the bright nucleus with bright, straight tail pointing directly upward.

This is a fine time of year for a trip to the top of Gresham Butte. Few of those who have not had the view from this nearby prominence can realize how extensive, varied and captivating is the panorama of fields, woods and mountains unfolding to eastward, northward and westward for many miles. From that viewpoint Gresham is seen as a beautiful thriving city in the very center of a rich agricultural and suburban residence district. The trip is worth the effort for the physical benefit and the broadened vision. No one can get the view without thinking more of the city and country surrounding and realizing their greater attractions and possibilities.

We have all been enthusiastic baseball fans the past week or two, watching at long range the games at Los Angeles and at Philadelphia. It has been a matter of little concern to us which of the big league teams in the East won. It has been a championship game and no doubt the best team won. The championship of the big league teams has now passed from the New York Giants to Philadelphia athletics, who are now the world's champions. Incidentally we have been interested in Portland's Beaver's race for the pennant which they won from Los Angeles. These games have been the grand finale of the baseball season. That thousands of people have been more enthusiastic over baseball than over some really better things, and have spent their money freely to witness the great sport, only shows what a fascinating game it is—this distinctly American game—and what lovers of exciting sport we all are.

"From Portland to the mountains look out for the Outlook."

At the meeting of the Minnesotans last night in the Commercial club room in Portland, 253 former residents of the gopher state were enrolled in the newly organized society of Oregon. A. E. Clark was chosen president and Emery Ormstead, secretary. It is proposed to hold a reception in the near future so that members may become better acquainted. The president, A. E. Clark, who is a prominent attorney in Portland is a son of John Clark, Sr., of Redwood Falls, Minn., and an old schoolmate of A. R. Lyman, the business manager of the Gresham Outlook.

It is gratifying to know that the school and townspeople are taking up the matter of a gymnasium for Gresham. The most feasible plan seems to be to build a good, large substantial building on the school grounds, connected with the school heating plant and available for school and other purposes under direction of the principal.

We are heartily in favor of a school gymnasium and think the citizens of Gresham and all patrons of the district should assist in building equipping and maintaining it.

Attention has been called to the fact that the W. C. T. U. has taken it in hand to try to close up certain places of amusement keeping open on Sunday. Among these are the pool room, skating rink and motion picture show.

In order to know exactly their rights and privileges in the matter, the attorney-general for Oregon was communicated with. In reply he refers to the statute found in Lord's Oregon Laws, section 2125 which reads as follows:

"If any person shall keep open any store, shop, grocery, bowling alley, billiard room, or tippling house, for the purpose of labor or traffic, or any place of amusement, on the first day of the week, commonly called 'Sunday' or the 'Lord's Day', such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not less than $5.00 nor more than $50; provided, however, that the above provision shall not apply to theaters, the keepers of drug stores, doctor shops, undertakers, livery stable keepers, butchers and bakers; and all circumstances of necessity and mercy may be pleaded in defense, which shall be treated as questions of fact for the jury to determine when the offense is tried by jury."

Under this section he says that skating rinks and pool rooms are required to be closed on Sundays, but motion picture shows, which are considered as theaters, are not within the prohibition. There are many who think they should be included also.

Students Obey Own Laws.

Sixty under-graduates of the Oregon Agricultural college, who had crowded into a moving picture theater without tickets as a joke, withdrew quietly when reminded of the rules they had made themselves in the student council. It needed only a word from S. O. McFadden, of the student council, to put them at once on good behavior, The proprietor went out and invited them to return as his guests, but after cheering him for his hospitality they withdrew.

WORK STOPS AT BULL RUN

BULL RUN, Oct. 28—The past week has seen quite a letting up of the activities which have made this locality such a busy place during the past summer. Twohy Brothers have ceased operations at the main reservoir which is about completed. Contractor Fuller has laid off men and teeams during the week. The three and a half miles of flume, from theL ittle Sandy river to the reservoir, to bring the water from the dam to the little Sandy river is nearly completed. The big tunnel through the Devil's Backbone is about two-thirds done. It will be 4700 feet long when finished.

The preliminary work on the dam above Bull Run has been done. The rock crusher and other machinery is on the ground in readiness for resuming the work early in the spring. Eighty thousand bags of cement have been hauled to the dam site at the Big Sandy.

Work is progressing rather slowly but surely at the power house. Some machinery has been installed. The three big tubes, conducting the water from the big reservoir to the power house are now in place. About 75 men are at work on the power house works in connection.

The work will be steadily pushed to completion although it will be some six months or more before the Mt. Hood company will be able to turn power onto its own lines.

Cottrell

Mrs. George Blackburn gave a tea to the ladies of the Pleasant Home sewing society Wednesday afternoon. Quite a large crowd was present. All expressed themselves as having a delightful time.

Mrs. Ella Schneider is spending this week with friends and relatives at Mount Angel.

Mrs. H. Ball has been quite ill for several days but is recovering now.

Miss Hart returned from Washington last week where she has been visiting relatives for some time.

Miss Lola Ball of this vicinity and C. R. Lee of Salem were united in marriage at the Salem hotel, Saturday evening, October 21st.

Death of Mr. Howard

Warren J. Howard died at his home near Gresham, Ore., October 14th, after an illness of three days.

Mr. Howard was born in Iowa in the year 1855. He was a pioneer of southern Oregon, having crossed the plains in 1865 and settled near Medford, Oregon. He was married in 1883 to Miss Ida Clark of Phoenix, Oregon. Eleven children blessed this union, six of these died in infancy..

Mr. Howard's death is mourned by his widow, Mrs. Ida Howard of Portland, and five remaining children—Mrs. J. E. Laing of Portland, Mrs. Charles Johnson of Portland, Edward Howard of Gresham, Jesse Howard of Gresham and Gussie Howard of Gresham.

Mr. Howard was a loving father and and affectionte husband, a good neighbor to all who knew him and there are many who will mourn his death very deeply.

Profits in Poultry Raising

The profits are there, and the profits are [illegible] but to get them you must apply right methods. You cannot learn from a book. Rule-of-thumb methods take time and often end disastrously. The right way is to be guided by poultry experts who have already "made good." That is the kind of instruction the International Correspondence Schools offer in their course of [illegible] lessons in poultry raising. The Course covers everything on poultry raising, from appetite to profits. It doesn't matter how few or how many hens you start with, this is the only true way to [illegible] and make it pay from the word "Go."

The value of this Course to you is beyond [illegible] mation. You soon get the price back, and [illegible] in increased profits, and the knowledge that will keep those profits coming your way. Start [illegible] try raising right, this way, then there'll be [illegible] failure—no halfway success—but the [illegible] success. For free descriptive circular, write
