Rockwood

The Lady Maccabees of this place opened the winter's monthly socials last Saturday evening to an overflowing house in spite of the fact that after they had announced their social through the columns of our local paper, the Rockwood Grange advertised a dance for the same date in the Grange hall. It would have been a serious question with the ladies what to have done with the people had it not been for the Grange dance, as standing room was at a premium during the hour of rendering the exciting program, prepared for the occasion. It was difficult to say which part of the evening's socials was the best. Several of the dancers said supper was, as they came and paid extra for what they said was a feast, seldom fallen to man. The following program was rendered:

Song, by members of L. O. T. M.; recitation, "The Jiners," Mrs. O. J. Brown; song, Mable Pullen; recitation, David Wyland; recitation, Hazel Richmond; instrumental music, Bertha Wyland; recitation, Winnifred Tagert; recitation, Burielgh Quesberry; song, Mrs. O. J. Brown dialogue, entitled Mr. X., which held the audience spell bound, on the anxious seat awaiting the outcome. Song by T. O. F. M. Charity Hive which brought forth great praise.

The fish pond full of hungry fish, pleased the young and was soon emptied. The fortune teller from California was kept busily engaged and while she brought forth smiles from some, others shed tears as she unveiled the dark future to them. All enjoyed the dance and the ladies were fortunate in getting good clean music. It is useless to try to say anything as to the supper farther than say they outdone anything they had ever had in the past if such could be done. One hundred and thirty-eight empty stomachs were filled and the general fund of the Hive swelled $26.85.

Watch the Outlook for the news.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Troutdale

TROUTDALE, Oct. 30—One of the most pleasing social events of the season was a Halloween party given in the Masonic hall last Saturday night. Misses Ethel Hogue and Blanch Brink were hostesses. Nearly 100 invited guests were delightfully entertained with cards, tricks and games. In the receiving line were two witches, impersonated by Mrs. J. Alfred Larsson and Mrs. James Knarr. Miss Gladys Lumsden, arrayed as a gypsy, received in her tent and told the fortunes of her guests. A grand march led by the witches in which frequent halts were made, to blow out a row of candles, eat apples suspended from a string, or catch apples in a tub of water, was one of the entertaining features.

Autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and yellow paper were used in decorating the tables, the refreshment booth and the walls of the reception room. At the dining table a pumpkin face peered out from each plate and a black cat held together the crepe paper napkin rings. The electric bulbs and candles had pretty yellow paper flower shades.

Herman Blaser won first prize in cards. Miss Olive Wilson, John Logan and A. B. Kendall carried off prizes for the trick games. Chicken sandwiches, pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Mrs. Rhodes is spending some time visiting relatives in the middle west.

C. I. Raker has rented Miss Mary Buxton's place now occupied by Harvey Watkins and Mr. Watkins will move to his place near Mt. Hood.

Miss Ethel Warner expects to go to British Columbia soon to take up her residence.

Miss Blanche Brake is spending some time in Portland.

Miss Ethel McGinnis was a guest of Ivy Cornett at Fairview Friday night and Saturday.

Emanuel May and daughter, Miss Fannie May, of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Fox.

Miss Salen Fox was here to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

The Troutdale library and reading room will be moved into the Blaser building the first of next month.

W. Latourell and wife, who have been occupying the Blaser building, are living at the mouth of the Sandy.

An entertainment will be given by the public school next month for the purpose of raising funds to pay for the school piano.
