"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the post office at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

SOMETHING WRONG

To send a man to the rockpile for drunkenness and leave his wife and six small children to suffer for food and clothing, looks like poor business for a city or state. But that often happens. The fact was emphasized the other day when a mother and six needy children plead for the release of the father, John Dick, who is serving a $200 fine and 90-day sentence for drunkenness.

Another bad feature is the fact that the imprisonment does not benefit the city or state much nor does it have a tendency to reform the drunkard.

But back of all this is perhaps the worst feature, that the makers and sellers of the poisonous stuff, which robs men of their manhood and homes of their rightful support, are licensed to do so by the city and state. It looks as though the city was in league with the saloonkeeper to encourage criminality and then punish the criminal by fine or imprisonment or both, leaving his family often to suffer or depend upon charity.

It is only fair to ask, under the present system, is the real criminal punished? Does the man punished suffer as much as those dependent upon him? Does the punishment lessen the offense?

A big stock show will be held at the Portland Union stockyards next March, the dates being 18, 19 and 20. It will take $6,000 to pay the premiums. Considering there are no entry charges and no gate fees, this is a very liberal prize list. The event is the second annual Pacific Northwest Livestock show and is strictly educational in character. J. J. Hill and R. S. Lovett have again consented to act as vice presidents and M. K. Parsons, of Salt Lake City, is president. The show next year will be broader in its scope than heretofore, so as to include the breeding classes of cattle, sheep and hogs.

The city of McMinnville has had a similar experience to that of Gresham in regard to its bond issue. The bonds were rejected because of an irregularity in posting notice of election and a reissue will be voted on. McMinnville also desires to issue bonds to defray expense of taking out wood pipe and putting in its place a cast iron system of mains.

According to the report of the canal commission the Panama canal will be opened to ships about June 1, 1913. Rates and regulations will be fixed by congress soon and the maritime world will begin to readjust itself to meet the new conditions.

There is a plan on foot to flood a portion of the great Desert of Sahara. It is claimed that steamers could cross the portion flooded more safely and quickly than camel trains do now.

Oregon Child Welfare Exhibit

Before thousands of spectators at the Armory the first Child Welfare Exhibit ever held west of Chicago was formally opened Wednesday night. The exhibit is under the auspices of the Oregon Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teachers' Association of Oregon and is modeled after the exhibits held in New York and Chicago. The exhibit will be open daily from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m., closing Sunday night, and is free to the public. In addition to the exhibit, sessions of the Mothers' Congress will be held Saturday morning, at which subjects pertaining to the welfare of children will be treated in addresses and papers, followed by discussions. These meetings are open to all women interested.

In the afternoon the work of the various institutions and societies represented in the exhibit will be demonstrated for the benefit of visitors. A booth is maintained by the Public Library, at which will be shown the methods used by the modern library in developing an appreciation of books. At 4:30 o'clock a moving-picture entertainment is given, illustrating various activities relating to children.

Rodgers Nears the Pacific

The intrepid coast to coast aviator, Rodgers and Fowler, met Wednesday at Maricopa, Arizona, and exchanged greetings. They started over a month ago at about the same time one on the Atlantic and one on the Pacific coast. Fowler, flying east, soon met with serious accidents which have delayed him, though he is still trying. Rodgers is nearing the end of his transcontinental flight.

The County's Fruit Crop

The October number of Better Fruit contains a statistical survey of the fruit industry of the whole country. There are special articles on apple production in the western states and also in New England. A handsome three-color cut of apples adorns the cover page. This beautiful magazine of 100 pages is one of the finest on the fruit industry.

Month of Apple Shows

This is the month of great land and fruit shows. The Oregon Apple show will be held in the Yeon building, Portland, November 15, to 18. The American Apple exposition will be held in Denver, November 12 to 18. The fourth National Apple show will take place in Spokane, November 23 to 30.

Large Choir for Meetings

A large choir is practicing for the Gipsy Smith meetings which will begin November 10 in the special tabernacle just finished. There were over 500 voices in the choir Wednesday night and 1000 are expected by the time the meetings begin.

The peak in southern Oregon known as Mt. Pitt, has been given a new name. It is to be called Mt. McLaughlin. This is not altogether a new name, as it is claimed that seventy years ago it was so named.

Japan, it is said, will spend about $175,000,000 during the next seven years in constructing a new navy. The program includes seven great dreadnaughts, two armored cruisers and many smaller craft.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by Gresham Drug Company and all Dealers.

Reviews of New Books

The following reviews of new books, added to the Gresham library, will be of interest to our readers and all patrons of the library:

Mary Stuart, by Florence A. MacCunn, a sympathetic biography of Mary, Queen of Scots. "Again and again her story has been told, a story strange and pitiful and terrible, and of undying interest. Volumes have been written to prove her innocence, and counter volumes to prove her guilt, but, innocent or guilty, she has never lost her hold on the hearts and imaginations of men."

Hawthorne's Country, by Helen Clarke. A companion volume to "Longfellow's country." The best of New England is in this book, its rural beauty, industry, pride and probity, and the exhaustless charm of a poetic imagination of the first order.

Keeping up with Lizzie; by Irving Bacheller. As a piece of terse and homely philosophy about certain tendencies in American life, the book is well worth while.

Queed; a novel; by Henry Harrison Sydnor. An interesting and original study of the development of a youthful scholar into a human being.

Winning of Barbara Worth; by Harold Bell Wright. A present-day story of reclamation. "Give fools their gold, and knaves their power."

Let fortunes bubbles rise and fall; Who sows a field, or trains a flower, Or plants a tree, is more than all."

Fruit Survey of the State

A fruit survey of the state is being undertaken by the Oregon Agricultural college. The experts will start in the southern part of the state visiting the principal fruit centers gathering information regarding orchards and all the methods and conditions of fruit growing. A special study will be made of prune orchards. While not every orchard in the state can be visited, it is planned to gather such facts as will enable the horticultural department to make a complete study of the fruit industry of the state.

Profits in Poultry Raising

The profits are there, and the profits are great; but to get them you must apply right methods. You cannot learn from a book. Rule-of-thumb methods take time and often end disastrously. The right way is to be guided by poultry experts who "have already 'made good.'" That is the kind of instruction the International Correspondence Schools offer in their course of 12 home lessons in poultry raising. The course covers everything on poultry raising, from eggs to profits. It doesn't matter how few or how many birds you start with, this is the only true way to do it and make it pay from the word "Go."

The value of this course to you is beyond estimating. You soon get the price back, and more, in increased profits, and the knowledge that will keep these profits coming your way. Start poultry raising right this way, then there'll be no failure—no halfway success—but the greatest success. For free descriptive circular, write the
