"JUST LIKE THE LAST YOU SENT ME"

is a phrase constantly used by ladies who come here for their groceries and table luxuries. That proves that what we sent must have given satisfaction and that is what we propose to have go with every order. "Peerless quality at popular prices" is the motto which should induce you to give us a trial order.

Watch the Outlook for the news.

The Outlook will visit a relative or friend for you 104 times during the year, brim full of news. Isn't that worth something to you?

"From Portland to the mountains look out for the Outlook."

GRESHAM

A Ladies' Aid society was organized for the Baptist church at a recent meeting of ladies. The officers are, Mrs. Lucy Cook, president; Mrs. Mary Davidson, vice president; Mrs. F. M. Burtch, secretary; Mrs. M. Shoemaker, treasurer. The next meeting will be held next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Davidson. The ladies hope to interest as many as possible in the various lines of aid work.

Scott Aton, who is very ill, has some symptoms this morning which indicate that he may rally and be able to get around again but his disease is of such a nature that it is difficult for physicians to tell what may be the immediate outcome.

Services at the Baptist church next Sunday at the usual hours. You are invited to meet with the Sunday school at 10:00 o'clock for an hour of interesting Bible study. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. Topic, "One of the most astounding claims of Jesus Christ." An evangelistic service, at 7:30 p. m. You will be welcomed heartily at any and all services.

A meeting was held last evening at the Baptist parsonage for the purpose of organizing an adult Bible class. Quite an interest was manifested and a live organization was effected.

Miss Norma Hundley spent Sunday with her parents at Hillsboro.

Laura Davis has been ill for a few days and out of school this week.

Wm. Green of Salem visited his sister, Mrs. Geo. F. Hopkins, yesterday.

H. L. Bulkeley and Dr. Brown of Portland were callers in Gresham this morning.

E. S. Smith, formerly bartender for Dan Murphy, has accepted a position in the same capacity at Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elkington took in the beautiful scenery and inspected the progress of development at Bull Run last Sunday.

E. C. Lindsey has finished his concrete walk on Third street and is now making preparations to build a cottage on the same street.

Miss Snoda Cook underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday, having her tonsils and adenoids removed.

At the Ladies' Aid meeting Wednesday plans were perfected for a social to be known as a sock social, to be held Friday night, Nov. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmarth and Mr. Krause of Boring were callers yesterday on Scott Aton, who has been quite ill for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Della Benedict, of Peatonica, Illinois, and Miss Anna Sumner, of Rockford, Illinois, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder on Sunday.

Geo. McCord has begun the erection of a neat bungalow just west of his shop on Powell street. He is building it with a provision for moving in the future when the site will be needed for a brick business block.

Miss Gladys Miller has been on the sick list during this week.

Chas. Swanson has sold the Kidder farm of 17 acres which he bought a year ago and will return to North Dakota where he has property interests. The place has been bought by J. N. Faris.

Plans are being laid by Professor Robinson, superintendent of the Gresham schools, for holding an art exhibit some time in the near future for the purpose of education along this line and also with a view to getting some good works of art to grace the walls of the public school rooms.

A. M. Burke has been appointed train master and contracting freight agent on the M. L. Hood road with headquarters at Gresham in place of T. A. Lawson who resigned. Mr. Burke has been contracting freight agent for some time and now has the added duties of train master.

John Freeman is reported slightly better this morning. He was taken sick Sunday with ptomaine poisoning, resulting from eating highly colored cake. His trouble developed into cholera morbus. His sufferings have been intense but he is now gaining. Mrs. Stanley is substituting on his mail route.

The topic for the morning service at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday will be "Small Content" and the evening topic will be "Opportunity". The pastor is pleased to see so many at the services, but there is room to welcome many more. He gives a hearty invitation to all who have no church home to attend regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton of Wenatchee, former Greshamites, were callers in Gresham yesterday, spending Wednesday night with Mr. Hamilton's brother, E. D. Hamilton at Lusted. Mr. Hamilton has sold his undertaking business and bought an apple ranch near Wenatchee, which he says is the greatest apple valley in the world. They plan to visit relatives at St. Johns.

The witches must have cast a spell over the Outlook force last Tuesday, causing several funny mistakes. The guests, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, who were said to be visiting a sister, Mrs. Faris, were instead guests of Mrs. O. W. Tarr, who is a sister of Mrs. Douglass. The funniest mistake was in Metzger Bros. ad. The headings told the story but the type lines got badly mixed and were like Barnum's first show feature—a horse with his head where his tail ought to be. They are correctly arranged now, of course, as you will see.

The W. C. T. U. met at the Free Methodist church yesterday afternoon and discussed the Sunday closing of the pool room and motion-picture shows in Gresham. After the meeting a delegation of ladies went to the proprietors of the pool room, conducted in connection with the Central Hotel, by Shearme & Windsor, and asked them to observe the state law in regard to Sunday closing. They said they desired to keep the law and would close on Sundays. The W. C. T. U. is circulating a petition which it is understood will be presented to the council to pass an ordinance requiring the motion-picture show to close on Sunday.

The large tanks, one for water and one for petroleum, located on the tracks near Hood avenue are now completed and in use. Water has been piped to the depot where it is now used for general purposes. The pumping house has been equipped with two gasoline engines one for pumping water and one for oil. The oil tank holds two tank cars full of oil. A tankful of 20,000 gallons, will last about two weeks for the two engines. The old temporary tanks raised on ties near Roberts avenue will be taken down at once and moved to Bull Run.

Miss Culy is exhibiting at the library a novelty in this part of the county in the form of a round shell about four inches in diameter filled with Brazil nuts. This gives a good idea of how they grow.

Mrs. S. H. Raney has had the barn removed from her lot on Third street and the ground is being cleared preparatory to building a neat bungalow. E. C. Lindsey has the contract.

Gust Wold has moved with his family into the Lindsey cottage on Roberts avenue, recently occupied by Mr. Ramsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parker were Portland visitors yesterday. Mr. Parker has recently gone into the confectionery business here and the more he sees of the locality the better he says he likes it.

D. A. Paine, president Eugene Loan & Savings Bank, Eugene, Oregon, has purchased 80 acres of the Talbot property, east of Gresham, and will immediately have the balance of the property cleared and the whole of it cut up into acre tracts. Surveyors will commence work tomorrow morning and tracts will be on sale within ten days.

Miss Viola Mathews will sing regularly at the Scenograph theater.

The Lady Maccabees of Rockwood Hive, No. 28, held their Hallowe'en entertainment last Saturday night at Rockwood. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed a fine program followed by a dance. The supper provided by the Hive was highly praised. Meetings are held the second and fourth Saturday afternoons each month and the membership is increasing.

There was a little Scotch boy who had the quality of astuteness highly developed. The boy's grandmother was packing his lunch up for him to take to school one morning. Suddenly looking up into the old lady's face, he said:

"Grandmother, does yer specs magnify?"

"A little, my child," she answered.

"Awell, then," said the boy, "I wud juist like it 'dye wad tak' them off when ye're packin' my lounch."
