"JUST LIKE THE LAST YOU SENT ME"

is a phrase constantly used by ladies who come here for their groceries and table luxuries. That proves that what we sent must have given satisfaction and that is what we propose to have go with every order. "Peerless quality at popular prices" is the motto which should induce you to give us a trial order.

GRESHAM

Mrs. C. M. Harvey of Lents is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. I. Neal. Miss Helen Bickford is assisting Mrs. Scott Aton in the care of Mr. Aton this week.

W. P. Miller of Lallas was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. F. Hopkins last Sunday.

Henry Kane is quite poorly. Mrs. Kane is slowly regaining strength after a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gedamke and daughter Lucile, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Talbot on Sunday.

A masquerade ball is being planned for Thanksgiving evening, November 30, at the Gresham Skating rink.

J. S. Albel returned Monday from a trip to Nehalem. Next week he expects to go to St. Paul, Oregon.

F. Chance and father of Portland called on Mr. Aton Sunday. They were old Kansas friends of the Atons.

Mrs. Carrie Hanson spent Sunday with her daughter, Mary, at Salem, where she is attending Willamette University.

Rev. J. F. Dunlop, former pastor of the Methodist church here, now at Cresswell, was calling on friends and looking after business interests today.

As Thanksgiving draws near it should be understood by all that the holiday this year comes on the fifth Thursday in the month, the 30th.

The W. H. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. K. Hamilton Wednesday afternoon. An interesting program will be given. All ladies are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. McClurg of Boring were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Aton Sunday. Mrs. McClurg is Mrs. Aton's only sister.

F. H. Goudy, cashier of a Portland bank and a brother Workman of Scott Aton's, was a welcome visitor at the bedside of the latter Sunday.

Joe Pateneau arrived home last Wednesday morning from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, where he went some time ago to attend the funeral of his father. Mrs. A. H. Dowsett, who accompanied him, is expected home Thursday.

Miss Laura Bulkeley and Miss Emma Johnson spent Sunday in Portland at the home of the former.

The highest priced land yet sold near Gresham is a small strip of land adjoining the Howitt building, sold by T. R. Howitt to the First State Bank recently at a price that would amount to $192,000.00 per acre.

Six years ago this property sold at administrator's sale for less than $1,000.00 per acre.

A man by the name of Talbot was injured last Monday in the Gresham yards of the Mt. Hood railroad. A car was being pushed along on one track by means of a timber placed against the engine which was on a track along side. The timber slipped and fell, badly splintering Talbot's leg.

E. A. Easley and family, have arrived here from Little Rock, Arkansas, and occupy the Shattuck house on Powell street. Mr. Easley was here last June and made a good survey of the county studying the advantages of various localities but decided this was the place.

Mrs. Wm. A. Shane and Mrs. J. C. Parker of Portland were callers in Gresham yesterday. They both expect soon to locate on property recently purchased in Cleveland's acre. Mrs. Shane has one acre and Mrs. Parker, two.

Women Customers

We know that many women do not feel as much at home in a bank as they do in a department store, and we take particular pains to make banking transactions easy and pleasant for our women customers—in short, we try to take from banking all the terrors which unfamiliarity with its usages have given in the minds of many women.

At this busy Bank we always have time to assist women customers.

Our hope and effort shall be to serve you so well that you will be pleased to recommend to your friends this Bank and its services in all matters of banking.
