I. McCOLL, P. M.

A special committee of the Portland Commercial club is boosting flax culture with the hope of building up an industry in this state. A meeting was held during the week and considerable progress is being made. Investigations have shown that flax of exceptionally long fibre can be grown here and all facilities are favorable for linen manufacture.

Hood River and Albany have half their apple fairs and are ready to show their prize-winners at the Oregon Apple show in Portland, November 15-18. Both fruit displays were a credit to the two apple centers and they will be heard from when the prizes are awarded at Portland. Preparations are complete for this event and it promises to be the best exhibit yet held by the State Horticultural society.

GRESHAM

H. L. Goodrich expects to move in to his new house on his place north of Gresham.

Excitement was caused early this morning by a fire alarm turned in from the Regner building. There were indications of a fire in the attic. It seems that a long pipe through a hallway into which other pipes lead from rooms, was burning out and filled the upstairs with smoke. No damage was done.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. A full attendance is desired.

Miss Emma Steffanson has returned to her home near Pleasant Home.

Max Davies of Sandy was in Gresham on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Larson attended the Gipsy Smith meetings last Sunday.

Forty or fifty persons will go from here on a special car tonight to the revival meetings conducted by the great evangelist, Gipsy Smith. The car will leave the O. W. P. depot at 5:30.

The Methodist choir will practice at the church Wednesday evening, and begin preparation for a Christmas cantata. About forty voices are wanted. All singers are requested to be present Wednesday evening. C. W. Albertson is an excellent leader and the practice will be a benefit to all who can take part.

The Farmers' Society of Equity will hold a meeting in Sandy, November 24, Friday at 2 p. m. in Meinig's hall.

Alva Hevel, Geo. Camp, Alex. Gullickson, Ezra Thomas, O. Davis, Ben Rainey and G. W. Kenney started for Seattle this morning on a hunting trip.

Shattuck & Lindsey had a big day last Saturday. Crowds of people visited their store and carried away many choice bargains.

Justice of the Peace, Ben Rollins, is confined to his bed with a severe attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey.

It is reported that Mrs. Burgess will soon establish a steam laundry in Gresham.

L. L. Connet of Lebanon is visiting his uncle, C. E. Pugh.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Gresham interested in the building of a gymnasium will be held in the Commercial club hall Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Plans have been prepared and the matter will be presented by those who have been taking so much interest in it. A good attendance should be on hand to discuss matters of importance. Every citizen is interested in this. Come everybody.

A talk on Single Tax will be given in the Orient Grange hall on Saturday, the 25th of November at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Annie Anderson from Mt. Vernon, Washington, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Keller.

W. W. Cotton, who recently was operated on for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital, is reported to be gaining slowly with every chance of recovery.

Gives Celery to O. A. C.

Some unusually fine celery was given Prof. A. G. B. Bouquet of the vegetable gardening department of the Oregon Agricultural College for classroom use by J. M. Hollowell of Gladstone and W. H. Dodge of Salem. Some of the stalks were 22 inches high and all was of excellent quality.

O. A. C. Men Speak in East.

President W. J. Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural College and Director James Withycombe of the experiment station speak this week in Columbus, Ohio, before the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations. President Kerr's address is on ways of getting more students into the gymnasium and athletics. Dr. Withycombe will lead the discussion on institutes. He is to spend about a month visiting eastern experiment stations, and President Kerr is to go to New York and Washington, D. C., in the interests of the Union, Umatilla and Sherman county branch experiment stations, which are partly supported by federal funds.

HOME PLANS SHOULD BE CAREFULLY STUDIED

In the last few years the small house has grown in attractiveness and in simplicity. Many of the pretty little bungalows one sees in the outskirts of the city or adorning some hillside farm are so simply constructed that the everyday man with a taste for mechanics could almost build one in his off hours.

The following list of books in the Public Library will be found full of helpful suggestions for those planning to build:

Allen:
California bungalows. Plans and pictures with approximate cost.
Brown:
American homes and bungalows.
Comstock:
Bungalows, camps and mountain houses.
Hodgson:
Practical bungalows and cottages for town and country. Perspective views and floor plans of low and medium priced houses and bungalows.

House & Garden:
Low cost suburban houses. Designs and pictures of suburban houses costing from $1,000 to $10,000.

Lambeth:
Specimens of California cottage and bungalows. Gives plans, pictures and estimated cost.

Menken:
California bungalow homes. Bungalow craft; a book on bungalow and cottage building in its latest development.

Saylor:
Bungalows; their design, construction and furnishing.

Sherwin Williams Co.:
Your home and its decorations.

Stekley:
Craftsmen homes.

Voorhees:
Western home builder. "Ye Plantry" bungalows.
