Pleasant Home

The Sunday evening meeting at the Gipsy Smith tabernacle was attended by about one hundred and fifty people from Pleasant Home and way points, going down on the regular five o'clock train and returning by a special at 11 o'clock p. m. E. R. Ernsberger had reserved seats for the delegation but at 7 o'clock they were given to others. The train was somewhat late and the delegation arrived a few minutes after the reserved seats had been taken. J. P. Brower and Harlow Douglass, formerly of this place, at the request of the ushers, went out to look for the delegation they were sure must be outside unable to get in. Harlow Douglass located them and slowly worked them into the auditorium one and two at a time. However, many of them would not stay with him and some had separated from the party before, so only fifty or so got in. When Harlow gained the policeman's consent to get them in, a great many onlookers decided that they came from Pleasant Home, so it became necessary to call or point out all who were in the party. The people were well pleased with the meeting and were glad they had the privilege of hearing Gipsy Smith speak, but felt that when seats were reserved for people coming from a distance, they should be kept for them until they came. Seats had also been reserved for Hood River people, but were taken by others.

Miss Eunice Rook from the Rose City sanitarium, spent Wednesday and Thursday last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Rook. Mrs. Rook was a Portland visitor Friday.

About fifteen of his little friends gave Clifton Hillyard a party Friday evening in honor of his 11th birthday. It was planned for a surprise party but boys can't keep a secret. The story goes that the little fellow who told was punished by receiving his invitation to the party so late that he had despaired of getting it at all.

Irene Douglass went to Portland Saturday evening to remain a few days and attend the Gipsy Smith meetings. Mrs. William Harris and daughter, Hazel, also were in Monday.

The seventh, eighth and ninth grades have taken up debating. The first debate last Friday afternoon "Resolved, that the Indians have more complaint of the treatment of the whites than the negroes" was won by the affirmative.

Thursday evening a number of Mr. Jackson's friends gathered at his home to honor his birthday. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Lila Hale, Mr. Hawk, B. Andre and sons, Glen and Earl, Miss Elva Andre, Mr. and Mrs. Cline Bertie Cline, Mr. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson. Refreshments were served, after which the evening was spent in music and conversation.

A. R. Reynolds of Washington has rented the Andrews meat market and is now in charge assisted by T. J. Wiley, who recently came from Kansas. Mr. Reynolds will put forth every effort this winter to accommodate and please the customers and work up a large trade. Andrew Bros. are intending to go elsewhere with their parents who have rented their farm and will locate on a cattle ranch.

Dale O. Northrop has moved the building purchased from Geo. Carpenter, onto the west side of his property, and will soon be ready for photograph work.

Forrest Louderback and George Carpenter were Portland visitors Wednesday and Thursday.

John Camp of Seaside is visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Earnest Otis this week.

Mrs. E. M. Douglass has gone to Sandy and taken the Mt. Hood hotel in charge, which she rented out last spring. Her daughter, Irene, will be with her, spending two days of each week here and in Portland, teaching music.

Mrs. T. Breeden spent Wednesday of this week in Portland on business.

F. S. Woodbury, private secretary for the general manager of the Mt. Hood railway, called on S. J. Newsome Wednesday.

W. E. Markell was in the city the middle of the week.

Mrs. Mary Anderson of Albany spent Sunday and Monday at the Cannon home.

Mrs. W. E. Markell and Miss Arletha Cannon went in Thursday morning to hear Gipsy Smith speak and will return today.

Charles Hunter came out from Portland Sunday in his automobile to visit his mother and returned Monday. His wife, who spent a few days here returned with him.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your cold you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by Gresham Drug Company and all Dealers.

Fairview

Powell Valley

Fred Wood has taken about 500 bushels of potatoes off an acre of new ground on the A. B. Elliott place. Other tracts in this locality are yielding an average of 250 to 350 bushels an acre. This has been a good year for potatoes but not as many were planted this year as last.

Fred Griffis has gone to California for the winter. He will visit his aunt Mrs. Ladd at Santa Ana.

Herbert Simmons, who used to live in this locality, writes from Ridgefield, Wash., that they are well and prospering. They have built a large barn and are now building a house. He sends for the Outlook so he can keep track of his old neighbors.

John Danielson has bought two acres of Mrs. New's place which he will develop into a chicken ranch.

A powder company has leased 400 acres on Sauvius Island for a powder factory. The harbor facilities are said to be fine. This was the old Waupato Island of the Indians—their council island. Here wars were planned of old. Now the pursuits of peace and industry claim its use.

When you have rheumatism in your foot or instep apply Chamberlain's Liniment and you will get quick relief. It costs but a quarter. Why suffer? For sale by Gresham Drug Company and all Dealers.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The large barn on the old Boone Johnson place near Damascus was entirely destroyed by fire early on the morning of the 16th inst. together with a large quantity of hay, grain and potatoes. In fact, nearly the entire crop of the season is lost. As yet no clue as to the origin of the fire has been discovered. Saturday, November 25, Pleasant Valley Grange will meet in an all day session. All grangers are cordially invited.
