Troutdale

TROUTDALE, Dec. 5.—The contest over the office of treasurer and that of marshal caused a small stir at the election, but the day passed without any great excitement. L. A. Harlow was elected to succeed himself as mayor, without opposition. C. S. Wilson was again elected as recorder. F. E. Harlow won out as treasurer over S. S. Logan, the present incumbent of that office. Wm. Southerlen defeated Wm. Light as marshal. Alle May, I. N. Buxton, J. R. Knarr and Wiley Richardson were elected as councilmen, being the only candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Richardson are the proud parents of a daughter, born on December 29.
