Work of clearing the new county farm has ceased on account of the stormy weather.

Elmer Townsend was a weekend guest at the home of R. W. Calkins and family.

J. W. Rogers has taken up his residence with Clark Hardin.

R. W. Calkins has been busily engaged hauling poles from the C. R. Cavanaugh farm.

Mrs. Annie Faris, wife of F. H. Faris, is ill with consumption, which developed from pneumonia.

Although the weather is stormy our mail carrier, C. G. Fancher, has been able to carry the mail all the time.

School is closed on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Elsie Calkins.

Up to the present writing the pneumonia patients are getting along as well as could be expected.

The telephone lines running north and south are all down on account of the heavy sleet the past week.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood.

When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural healthy action. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all dealers.

Cherryville

Dr. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Portland, has bought the 20 acre ranch across the road from Prof. Geo. Coupers, and it is his intention to have his brother live on the ranch and farm it. Dr. Boyd intends having it for a summer home. He has also been negotiating for some additional land in the near vicinity and various other parties are contemplating the purchase of land in Cherryville for summer homes. Dr. O. Botkins has recently divided a part of his 80 acre ranch into lots and contemplates putting them on the market for summer homes.

A number of young people gathered at the school house Sunday and had a coasting party.

Dr. Boyd has decided to build a new house on his recently purchased ranch and Dave Douglas and Dr. O. Botkins have already hauled the lumber for their new houses and Prof. Geo. Couper has been engaged to build one or more of these houses. It will keep him busy all spring and summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCabe are back from Portland.

Rev. D. Runyan spent several days visiting Mrs. Wm. Rugh last week.

The silver thaw broke down a number of Wm. Rugh's fruit trees.

Chas. Newland left for Portland last week where he will spend the balance of the winter.

Charley Harris is back from Oregon City.

Dr. Botkins intends butchering his hogs as soon as the weather gets a little warmer.

Francis McCabe has returned to his ranch again after his trip to Portland.

Rhodes' shingle mill is now in full blast and last Friday sawed twenty-nine thousand shingles.

Roy Murray, who was working for Bornstedt Bros., of Sandy, spent Sunday with his family in Cherryville.

Miss Lillian B. Averill of Cherryville, the Marmot school teacher, who has been spending the holidays with her parents here, spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Corey are back from Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Allen had a quilting party at Hotel Cherryville last Saturday and a number of young people were there and enjoyed a social time.

Powell Valley

The Missionary meeting which was held at the home of Charlie Unis was well attended. Rev. Carlson made a short speech. The same officers were re-elected. Mrs. C. A. Lingren, president; Mrs. P. A. Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Emanuel Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. Wm. Anderson, secretary.

Rev. Mr. Carlson will preach at the Lutheran church Sunday, Jan. 14, at 3 o'clock. Sunday school at 2 o'clock.

The little baby of Mrs. E. Palmquist is still quite sick.

A number of farmers in this vicinity lost a number of fruit trees during the sleet last week.

Conservation of Health.

The first of a series of four lectures on the conservation of health given at the Oregon Agricultural College this month by George F. Skyes of the zoology department, covered the science of health as to its principles of heredity and hygiene, its factors of disease, its scope, the history of disease ravages and their effect on national life, and the health and longevity of various nations.

The fact that health is an obligation of the citizen to the community is to be emphasized in the second lecture, January 11, and the improvement of the race by environmental will form the main topic discussed January 18. The last lecture of the series, January 25, is to be on eugenics and the improvement of the race through heredity.

Boring

Mrs. Robert Jones and son Earl of Fairview came to Boring on Tuesday and will remain some time with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Roe.

Despite the severe ice, snow and rain storm of the past week, our three rural route carriers made their regular trips, not missing a trip.

James Emil returned home after visiting several days with relatives at Clackamas.

Rev. R. S. Bishop of Taulatin, Oregon, visited a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boring.

The recent storm did considerable damage in this locality. Nearly every orchard suffered and some are completely ruined, being broken off close to the ground. The telephone wires are nearly all down, some are broken off. The electric light wires are all right, and every one has had lights with the exception of two or three times when they disappeared for a few minutes. Car service has been considerably injured and mail very much delayed.

C. C. Wagner received word from the Mt. Hood railway company to go at once to Bull Run and take charge of the depot there. He left for that place on Wednesday morning.

J. E. Burnett, a Portland commission man, has been in this berg several days buying potatoes.

On Tuesday night about twenty-five of Boring's wide awake gentlemen met at Louis Ritzer's hall and organized what shall be called the "Boring Athletic Club." They will meet every Tuesday night at Mr. Ritzer's hall.

On Saturday night, January 20, they will give a dance in the old Allison hall, in west Boring, which they are fixing up so as to have it comfortably warm. They will hire an orchestra from Portland and hope to have good music and a good crowd.

Miss Evra Pitts of Westport, Wash., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Johnston, was given a very pleasant surprise on Saturday night. There was about forty young people present and games and music were indulged in. Refreshments were served and at a late hour all departed for their various homes.

Dr. Pfifer of Hotel Boring has been having a bad case of lumbago accompanied by the grip, but today, he seems somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Boring were transacting business in Portland and Oregon City on Thursday.

O. A. Palmer has given A. Dodd a contract to clear some land for him and has sent East for a stump-puller.

On Saturday, Jan. 13, the teachers of Boring and neighboring towns will hold a meeting at the Boring school house. There will be a program and a basket lunch at noon. Everybody is invited and especially parents, who should show their interest in the school by making it a point to be present.

Mrs. Joe Lunday, who has been on the sick list for the past two or three weeks is reported as being some better.

Jack Collins is having a time wrestling with the lagrippe, but present indications seem to be in his favor.

Mr. Litten, a wood-cutter, living in a small shack about a mile east of Boring had a narrow escape from being badly injured or perhaps killed. He heard a limb from a nearby tree strike his shack and went outside to investigate and just as he got out the door the tree fell, smashing the roof and almost demolishing the house.

H. H. Hughes, who formerly lived in Boring, but left here several months ago, has returned and will again take up his law practice. He will also conduct a dairy. His brother, E. M. Hughes came with him with the expectations of remaining.

Mrs. Wm. Knighton of Portland was a Boring visitor on Thursday.

C. Z. Lake and daughter, Miss Althea, were Boring visitors from Oregon City this week.

The Outlook will visit a relative or friend for you 104 times during the year, brim full of news. Isn't that worth something to you?

Pleasant Home

The silver thaw visited this vicinity last week and lasted about 48 hours. While with it was ruler and king. Trees in the forest, also fruit trees, fences and telephone wires were encased in ice. Poles were torn down with the weight of the ice. Looking in every direction we beheld its majesty. A chinook came and the ice and snow made a hasty retreat. At this time it looks favorable for a settlement of weather. J. Lauderback's young orchard suffered the greatest of any during the storm. J. B. Kelley's 35 acre orchard was badly damaged.

The chimney on the east side of Mrs. Stephens' residence here, which was so beautifully covered with ivy, was partly torn down from the weight of ice.

J. Larkins, who is steambating on the Willamette river, is spending his vacation with his sister, Mrs. Hoffman.

E. Walters of Tacoma is a guest at the Stephens' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey of Estacada were snowbound and waited for traffic to open up on the railroad to return home.

Jennie Collins is on a vacation from the hospital, and is spending the time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis.

The Cannon family, Chas. Hunter and wife entertained at the home of Markell's during the New Year.

A birthday surprise was given Mr. Chase on a recent evening. About thirty of the neighbors were present. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Another one of the triplets of Mr. and Mrs. Trimble was buried Jan. 9th. Little hopes are entertained for the other one.

Mr. Reynold's son, 16 years old, recently came here from Nebraska. His mother and sister will follow soon. They intend making this their home.

Mr. Maxwell has vacated the place which he has occupied for a great many years. Mr. Johanson has platted it to lots and acre tracts and will put up a feed mill north of the Grange Hall at the railroad crossing, and a lumber yard. This is an enterprise the community will appreciate. Watch us grow!
