GRESHAM

The pastor preaches in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, the morning topic will be, "Faith an Essential of Life." The evening topic will be, "Men with Iron in Their Blood." The services are interesting. All are invited and will be welcomed.

C. W. Cochran, who had his arm injured while raising a house about two weeks ago, is still unable to use that member and is suffering considerable from the effects.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Roberts of Hood River, son-in-law of Mr. Camp, are visiting for a few days in Gresham.

The Queen Esther Circle will meet in the M. E. church parlors Friday evening, at 7:30.

The regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge was held Wednesday night and Mrs. S. E. Toepelman was installed as noble grand. The Rebekahs meet the second and fourth Wednesday nights of each month.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Telephone Company Wednesday night, Theo. Brugger was elected president and Chas. Cleveland, vice president. Arthur Dowsett will hold the secretary's office until some one can be secured to take it.

Stockholders meeting of the First State Bank was held at Bank building January 9. The usual five per cent semi-annual dividend was declared and all of its officers re-elected for the ensuing year.

A. J. W. Brown was down on the street yesterday for the first time since he was shot in the arm on January 2. He went to the doctor's to have the wound dressed. He is improving nicely and will soon be able to attend to business.

Wil Hockinson has been assisting in the Gresham Meat Market the past few days. With Mr. Brown out of the shop it has been a busy time for August Schirmer.

J. C. Belleu has found it necessary on account of the bad roads to give up several of his regular trips with the meat wagon.

Although much work has been done to clear away the dirt that has blocked the traffic on the Mt. Hood railway near Sandy river, there still is such an amount of debris, resulting from the slide, that the trains cannot get through to Bull Run.

G. W. Hunt of Hunt & Co., who has been ill for the past ten days, is able to be about again.

B. W. Emery, street and water commissioner, has his hands full these days, trying to look after the streets and water works and steer clear of several property owners who want him to save their property from washing away.

A revival prayer meeting has been held at the Baptist church each afternoon for the past ten days. These meetings are growing in interest daily and will continue indefinitely. All, especially Christians, of whatever denomination, are invited to attend and unite with us in seeking an outpouring of God's spirit. Week days 2 p. m., on Sundays 3 p. m. F. M. Burch, pastor.

Services at the Baptist church at the usual hours on Sunday. Sabbath school at 10 o'clock; Roy Shoemaker, superintendent. Classes for all. The pastor will preach on two vital topics. At 11 a. m., "What a Church Should Be." At 7:30 p. m., "A Common Sin With an awful Penalty." We invite your attendance and we are expecting a revival.

Miss Birdine Merrill, who has been in quarantine for smallpox, is now fully recovered. Her sickness was very light. The health officer is expected at any time this week to raise the quarantine.

Mrs. L. L. Shumate is recovering from the recent severe sickness and expects to go to the hospital next Wednesday for an operation for appendicitis.

School was dismissed at Melrose last Monday for the remainder of the week on account of roads being too bad for the children to travel. Mrs. Biddle made the trip last Monday in her auto but the attendance was very small.

If you think advertising don't pay, don't take advantage of the bargains offered by the advertisers in this issue.

Harry Lusted of Lents was a Gresham caller today.

B. R. Sells of Washington, D. C., was in town today on business for the government.

Chas. Palmer and Wm. Jones, representatives of the newly organized Boring Athletic club were in Gresham on business today.

C. H. Elston of Portland, traveling salesman for Albers Bros. Milling Co., is stopping at Hotel Congdon and will meet with the Dairy-men's association today, to introduce a new dairy food for stock.

The next meeting of the Commercial club will be held next Wednesday night and will be an important one. Be sure to be present if you are a member, if not, hand your name to the membership committee and get in line for work.

Lawrence Parker is sick with the grip.

One of Gresham's prosperous merchants says he has had a large sale of suits and overcoats this winter, but still he has a good selection at attractive prices.

E. C. Lindsey was a business visitor to Portland on Tuesday.

Ed. Osborn was doing business in Portland Wednesday.

The meter for the Gresham water system that has been expected for many days past, has been found at last. A few days ago it was located at Huntington, on its way to Portland. The storms have caused further delay but it is expected to arrive soon.

Geo. Parker was a Portland visitor today.

Orville W. Boring of Boring wash a Gresham caller today. He says the damage in Boring and vicinity to fruit trees by the recent storm was quite severe. Many trees were uprooted and others so broken they can hardly be saved.

Those milk reports are going fast. They are just the thing for the dairyman. Each sheet will do for 16 cows one month, morning and evening record. Very cheap at Outlook office.
