Cherryville

Mr. Serois is on the sick list. Several have started plowing here. The weather is fine and work of all kinds is being rushed.

Runaways have been the go here the past week.

Vincent B. Friel has been spending a few days visiting friends and having a general good time at Sandy since last Thursday.

A small serpent, one hundred and seventy-five feet in length, made its appearance at Cherryville last Sunday and it only costs $5 to view the same. Ask George.

Mr. Weber of this place purchased 40 head of full blood Angora goats, which he intends to fatten on huckleberry bushes. He is going to make a farm of his place. It will pay others to watch and learn a few things.

George Odell and Vincent Friel had a runaway experience coming from Sandy Friday evening. Their team starting at the top of the Cook hill, ran to the bottom before they could be stopped. Vincent lost his hat, which could not be found as the wind was very strong.

Mr. Banta considers himself very lucky that he is able to be about. On the 19th he was moving a small out building a few feet and was holding on a pry under the building when the roller under the same came out, leaving the whole weight of that side of the building upon him which was more than he could hold. The result was the building crushed him to the ground. Several in the neighborhood heard his call for help and soon lifted the building up, his life probably being saved by the projection of the eaves of the roof.

While Mr. Rugh was hauling a load of hay down the hill back of his place, the team becoming frightened started. Mr. Rugh's daughter, Genevieve, was driving at the time over the corduroy, it being very rough. She was thrown from the load, dropping the lines to save herself. Mr. Rugh, in trying to get the lines, fell onto the horses and became entangled in the harness. He was dragged for a considerable distance. Mr. Rugh received quite a few minor injuries but Miss Genevieve very luckily escaped without a scratch.

Boring

Rev. A. B. Calder will open an Evangelical Mission at Boring on Thursday evening, January 25, 1912. During the meetings neighboring pastors will preach, and Rev. Dr. Watters of Portland will be with him for one Sunday.

The Epworth League members will give an entertainment on Tuesday night, Feb. 13, at the Methodist church. This is the date for their regular business meeting and as an inducement for others to come they thought a little entertainment might help some.

Miss Adra Maulding had the misfortune on Sunday to fall and strike her hand on a nail which caused a very painful injury. She is still doctoring it but at present it is some improved.

The dance given by the Boring Athletic club on Saturday night at Allison's hall was well attended. There were nearly fifty numbers sold. The music was first class and was furnished by Beers' orchestra. The club expects to give another dance some time in February.

Revival meetings began last night in the M. E. church here. Rev. A. B. Calder is in charge and expects to have the aid of some evangelist in a few days. They expect to hold the meetings for a couple of weeks. It is hoped there will be a good attendance and much interest shown.

On Tuesday night the Athletic club held its regular meeting. One new member was added to the list. A committee was appointed to buy boxing gloves, punching bags, playing cards, rings, poles, etc., and they are going right in for a good time.

O. A. Palmer shipped two carloads of wood from his dock here to his woodyard in Portland.

The telephones are once more in working order. J. W. Roots and O. W. Boring have had two crews at work repairing wires and poles for the last week.

A lumber of the farmers living near Boring are making great improvements on their places in the way of clearing. The noise of the heavy blasting is heard daily. C. Gantenbine having let a contract for the clearing of eleven acres which will be done by the aid of a donkey engine. H. Anderson and J. W. Stone are both having clearing done. O. A. Palmer still has men at work at his clearing, also Mr. Duncanson.

Turner Art Exhibit, Jan. 31-Feb. 2. There is something for every taste, and no one will be disappointed.—Columbus Citizen.

Rockwood

C. S. True, the merchant in Bells old stand who traded Hood River property to J. E. Kittinger for this property and strove hard to make a success of business here, has boxed his goods and is shipping his stock to Hood River where he will open up business. He regrets that his undertaking here has not been a financial success. He proved himself a worthy citizen and has labored hard to find the road to success but failed. May fortune smile on him in his new location.

Terry

Mrs. E. M. Coons has rented ten acres to S. W. Long.

Geo. Proctor was renewing old acquaintances the latter part of the week.

Work of clearing the Multnomah Farm is progressing very rapidly.

Miss Elsie Calkins is able to teach school again after two weeks' illness with the mumps.

J. W. Coons was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

Pleasant Home

Mrs. E. M. Douglass returned to her home at Pleasant Home from Portland where she has spent the past few weeks. Miss Irene expects to enter the Washington high school in Portland soon.

Clackamas County

It is hinted that the Portland, Light & Power company is planning to build a new depot at Eagle Creek this summer.

Mrs. May Younce of Estacada was severely hurt in a runaway last Sunday while out riding with her husband and friends. She was riding near Currinsville when her horse started on a gallop and soon broke into a run and she lost control of it. The horse ran between a telephone pole and the fence, throwing the lady. Her injuries consisted of a dislocated knee, a broken wrist, and many severe bruises about the face.

Deputy State Master J. D. Chitwood of Damascus installed the officers of the Eagle Creek Grange last Saturday. The new officers are, F. W. Bates, master; Mrs. Adelle Marshall, overseer; Mrs. S. E. Bates, lecturer; George Smith, steward; Ward Douglass, assistant steward; Mrs. Lucy Glover, chaplain; Henry Hoffmeister, treasurer; Mrs. Maggie Bates, secretary; Edwin Bates, gate keeper; Mrs. L. V. Gibson, Ceres.

Garfield Grange will meet and install officers tomorrow, Saturday, January 27.

There is a strong probability, says the Estacada Progress, that the Ministerial association of the Salem District of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold its annual session at Estacada this spring. An interesting and instructive time is looked for, as there are always some of the most prominent men of the church present.

The county court of this county was asked to assume the indebtedness of $8000 on the Canby fair grounds and take over the property. The court did not do this but paid the interest on the debt amounting to $564, which is probably all the help the Canby fair will get from the county this year.

Fairview

The city council will meet in regular session Saturday evening and a full attendance is earnestly requested and a cordial invitation is extended to every citizen of Fairview as some important business will be before the council which will interest everyone and we want a rousing meeting.

Otto Staub has hung out his shingle telling the world that at his place is where all can have their soles saved as well as their harness repaired and all other leather work attended to in A 1 shape.

Fairview Carrier Imposed On.
Dr. Britling of Portland is surely a firm believer in parcel post and if all were as he, it would prove a bonanza to the farmer. The doctor received some twelve sacks of potatoes as his share of crop raised on his big farm at Curtis station. Not wishing to go to the expense of hiring a team to haul his crop into the city at one load, for fear of gluing the market and busting up several Front street merchants, wrote to the man in charge of his crop asking him to take the potatoes to the mail route and have the carrier bring them in as he heard that a mail wagon passed that way every day coming to Portland after mail to be distributed and as the carrier came in empty could bring in the spuds without any cost to him. Oh the blissful sublime ignorance of some is worthy of a brass button!
