Pleasant Home

Rev. A. B. Calder commenced revival services Sunday evening, Feb. 18, to continue some time. A chorus of twenty voices have volunteered to assist in singing which adds much to the success of the meeting.

Rumors afloat say a postoffice is to be established at the new town site at Depot on the Mt. Hood railway and the old name of Pleasant Home to be changed to Senic, which will be very appropriate as this country is all a beautiful scenery as a landscape picture. With the opening of summer great crowds from the city will hold their picnics at Bull Run, a more picturesque spot cannot be found on the map than on the Mt. Hood railway.

Max Davis, Sandy's energetic real estate agent, has been looking over our village with a view to locating here.

Miss Shriner is having a vacation from her work at the telephone office and staying at home.

E. Walters of Washington has returned to the city, after spending several days here.

The Misses Stone of Anderson were guests of Mrs. Stephens Sunday.

Mr. Nesome, station agent, will build on his acre tract recently bought of the syndicate, and improve for a home.

Miss Hester Thorpe of Gresham was the guest of Misses Rose and Rena Beers Sunday.

Miss Helen Dunham spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Sandy.

Rev. Smith of Portland preached at the Baptist church Sunday evening. He expected to preach Sunday morning but missed the car.

Mr. Wiley and family expect to move on Mr. Andrew's place the first of next month.

Mr. McDougal has finished the carpenter work on Mr. Andre's house and has returned to Portland.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the surprise party given by Frank Eder in honor of his birthday last Saturday evening.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Boring

The scarlet fever epidemic here is still spreading, though every effort is being put forth to check the spread of the malady. The public schools were closed Tuesday by order of the county health authorities and it is expected that all public gatherings will be prohibited within the next few days. Sixteen cases are reported at this writing and more are appearing daily. It is reported that several children from infected homes have been attending the public schools and a general epidemic is feared. The disease this far has appeared in mild form and no serious results are expected.

The local chapter of the Epworth League held their monthly business meeting in the M. E. church last Tuesday evening. After the general business of the chapter was transacted a good literary program of eighteen parts, in charge of J. F. Wilmarth, the fourth vice president, was rendered as follows: Opening song by choir, "Our Youth are Marching On"; recitation, Who is My Neighbor? Roy Frank; song, Stella and Kye Stone; recitation, Ward Wilmarth; recitation, Viola Frank; recitation, Fannie Myer; song, "Saved by Grace," Ruth and Carrie Gregson and Eva Dodd, guitar accompaniment; recitation, The Master Heareth, Morris Wilmarth; recitation, On the Frontier, Escher Myer; song, "Down on the Old Homestead," Stella, Nola and Kye Stone; address, Bible Study, Rev. A. B. Calder; recitation, Nora Myer; recitation, The Creed of the League, Claude Cross; song, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," Ruth Gregson, guitar accompaniment; closing song, choir, "Nearer My God to Thee." A large crowd was present and many expressed themselves as well pleased with the exercises and the good that has been accomplished through this chapter. The local chapter now has a membership of about forty.

Rockwood

Rockwood Grange is endeavoring to get its young people interested as well as the old in the Grange, so have started a literary contest between the men and women. Geo. Crane is captain of the men's side and Hester Thorpe of the ladies, and after the contest runs for several months, the points will be counted and the one getting the most points will be treated to a fine supper and dance by the losers. Many invited guests, Grangers or not, are invited to these programs, which are free and after each program a small dance will take place for those who wish to stay. The next Grange night is Wednesday, March 6.

Last Saturday Rockwood Grange, No. 323 held their monthly day meeting and took in two new members, Mrs. Mary Richmond and Miss Lillian Richmond. Also six new names were balloted on.

Earl Stanley, who was threatened with appendicitis, is improving quite fast.

Hester Thorpe was the guest of Rose and Rena Beers and Elsie Browning of Cottrell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Engberg of Lents were calling on the latter's brother, John Freeman, last Sunday.

A party was given by Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kaser of Rockwood last Wednesday evening. About thirty guests were present including young and old.

Grandpa Landon was seen walking up the road to his daughter's, Mrs. Spath, with as springy steps as a youngster's. A new grandson seems to make him feel young again.

Those milk reports are going fast. They are just the thing for the dairyman. Each sheet will do for 16 cows one month, morning and evening record. Very cheap at Outlook office.

Bull Run Water.

Have you made arrangements for water? If not, see G. W. Hunt. He handles the Peerless-Pacific line of plumbers' supplies and knows how to do the work right. He needs you. You need him.

Cherryville

The Syrian boys have completed their contract of clearing for John T. Friel, Jr.

County Superintendent of Schools Gary was a visitor of the school here Wednesday.

John T. Friel, Jr., and wife are visiting a few days in Portland.

A party was given at the home of John T. Friel, Jr., in honor of the Syrian boys Wednesday evening. Their friends came to bid them good-by. Mr. Friel took them to Portland Friday.

Mr. Clarke of Cottrell is going to move his family to this place in the near future.

The salmon hatchery at Salmon River is again opened and in operation.

E. Baxter left here Friday, having accepted a position at his trade of meat cutter at Firland.

We hear lots of railroad rumors but nothing very definite.
