GRESHAM

Mrs. H. Ralston of Park Place, is a guest of the Hallidays.

Mrs. N. W. Kenady of Portland was the guest of Mrs. Guy Mathews last Wednesday.

O. Eastman and E. G. Kardell and their families spent yesterday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conley went Wednesday to Eugene where they will visit relatives for a few days.

Lottie Davis is enjoying a short vacation. She came Wednesday night from Corvallis and will return Sunday.

L. D. Howard has his house in Whitehead's addition nearly completed and will move in soon.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons last Tuesday.

The pastor preaches in the M. E. church Sunday morning on "Unused Resources," and in the evening on "The River of Salvation." Do not miss hearing both of these sermons.

Leon Randall and daughter Ethel of Sellwood were callers at the home of A. R. Lyman last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Randall is a cousin of Mrs. Lyman, whom she last saw in Maine, twenty-nine years ago.

Mrs. C. L. White and little daughter Murrell of Lents visited with her mother Mrs. S. I. Daily and her sister Mrs. Guy Mathews, on Tuesday.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will have for the subject of the meeting next Sunday evening "Messages at Bethel; the Courage of Truth," Mrs. Risher, leader.

Mr. Green, chef at The Congdon has rented H. A. Gould's bungalow in Thompson's addition and will move his family into it in a week or two.

The Gresham Realty Investment corporation reports considerable activity in their line. They have sold one third of the entire Wallula Heights tract, and all the lots on Powell Valley road but one.

The Junior class of the Gresham high school is preparing to give a play on the evening of February 29th, in the assembly hall. Uncle Rube is the title of the play. It is said to be extra good. Don't fail to see it.

O. I. Neal is serving on the jury this month. He spent the holiday yesterday hauling potatoes to the O. W. P. depot where he and Tom Townsend are filling a car. They are shipping to California through S. E. Toepelman.

Mr. Perisho, who came here from Canada some months ago, has bought two lots in Whitehead's addition and is having a small house built on them. W. K. Hamilton is doing the work. Mr. Perisho will move his family into the house as soon as completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Larson entertained C. Larson and his mother, Mrs. H. M. Larson of Erie, Pennsylvania last Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Larson were strangers in Gresham and were looking for their old time friends Andrew and Gus Ryberg of Powell Valley. Mrs. Larson has returned to Portland. Her son is spending a few days with the Rybergs.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Oswald have moved into their new house on South Roberts avenue and are at home to their many friends. Last Sunday they entertained at dinner Carl Oswald and Miss May Gasper, all of Portland. Later in the day several other friends came in, among them Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Work, Mrs. Henry Plaff and Mrs. Lewis Metzger, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Toepelman and Mrs. D. W. Metzger of Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald were given a house warming long to be remembered.

A. J. W. Brown, of the Gresham market, had the misfortune to sprain his ankle yesterday so badly he cannot touch his heel to the ground and is obliged to use crutches. He will be confined to the house for a few days.

Earl Thompson is visiting the home folks. Earl is attending O. A. C. at Corvallis.

Will Hockinson still has Jesse Belleu's place on the meat wagon, the latter not being well enough to take up his old work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Faris entertained at dinner last night Miss Hope Anderson, Miss Maud Michel and Guy Fieldhouse.

G. H. Sunday came down from Bull Run to attend of a little business yesterday and returned this morning. He is carpentering for Takio Bros. who are putting in a sawmill about two miles above Bull Run postoffice, on the road to Marmot.

The T. K. S. girls met with Miss Hope Anderson yesterday for their annual meeting. There was a full attendance and many matters of importance were discussed. They expect to make the coming year one of the best in the history of the club.

Mrs. Bertha Smith has returned from a trip to Mist, Oregon, where she went with her four youngest children to visit her sister, Mrs. McDaniel. She left the children in her sister's care. They will go to school and have the best of care and may be there for several months. Mrs. McDaniel is on a farm about ten miles from Mist.

A note from R. R. Carlson from Long Beach, California, dated February 20, states that he and Mrs. Carlson will leave that place in a few days. They will visit several places of interest before coming home but will not remain long enough in one place to get the Outlook, which Mr. Carlson says has been a pleasure to receive and has aided in making their sojourn in that part of the world happier.

Miss Nellie Fox of Portland, county librarian, entertained a few friends at tea at her home yesterday in honor of Miss Alida Culy, who has been working under her direction for several years past.

Miss Gertrude Holmes, teacher of history and Latin in the high school, is sick with measles.

Margaret Sharp is reported to have whooping cough.

Miss Laura V. Bulkeley and Miss Emma Johnson went to Portland last evening.

Mrs. Clannah called on Mrs. Nellie Forester Cone of Firwood last week. Mrs. Cone, who will be remembered as a former resident of Gresham, is rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter, Jean, at her home. Several Gresham friends of Mrs. Cone received the announcement about two weeks ago and all join in best wishes for the little stranger.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Elkington were Portland visitors last evening.

Mrs. Vannice of Portland was a Gresham visitor a few days this week, the guest of Mrs. Wm. Dahlquist.

A Wise Old Owl

Said Shiftless Sam: "It is easy enough to make money if you have money to make it with. I see chances every day to make money if I only had a little stake to start with, but a fellow that has no capital doesn't have a fair shake in this world."

Said the Wise Old Owl: "You never will have a stake until you start. Stop your spending and try saving. Pinch out a little of your earning and start a bank account no matter how small. Add to it. The longer you put it off the longer opportunity will give you the cold shoulder." Which one was right, Sam or the Owl?
