Farmers Refuse Right of Way.

The farmers and property owners at Sycamore and Jenne Station are not willing to surrender their rights and privileges to the Light and Power company for a right of way across their farms for a high power line. The P. R. L. & P. Co. has been negotiating for a few weeks past for this privilege. They wanted the right to erect towers across some of the farms. Among those effected were Gus Richey's, Jenne's, Lehman's, Olson's and others. The farmers made such a strong protest that the company has apparently abandoned the plan.

Fans to Welcome Rieben.

Joy reigns on the O. A. C. diamond, for George Rieben, their star pitcher, has decided to return for another semester's graduate work, and is already in the field, helping to whip into shape the green men from whom this year's nine must be picked.

"Slim" Cooper will be back on first base, making high dives into the atmosphere for swift ones, and Harry Henkle of Raymond, Wash., another of the old guard, will contest the catcher's position with Lige Phillips of Salem, who caught with Moore two seasons ago.

Fire Alarm Brings Out Crowd.

A fire occurred at Fairview today noon which threatened to destroy the business part of town. The Scott house, occupied by John Moller, caught fire from a spark. The quick action of the Fairview Volunteer Fire department saved the business part of town from destruction.

List of Letters.

The following list of letters remain uncalled for in the Gresham postoffice for the week ending March 3, 1912:

I. McCOLL, P. M.

The Outlook will visit a relative or friend for you 104 times during the year, brim full of news. Isn't that worth something to you?

GRESHAM

Rev. W. M. Anderson of San Diego, California, was the guest of Rev. J. A. Hopper on Saturday and is assisting Mr. Hopper in revival meetings at Estacada.

The Outlook has an apology to offer, or rather two of them. Through a mistake of the compositor's two ten-pound girls were recorded for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson, and none for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Welling. Now we realize that the parents of a fine new girl baby would appreciate having the fact duly noticed. On the other hand the parents of such a fine new girl baby would not care to have another credited to them. Little Miss Welling arrived Thursday, Feb. 29. The Gustafsons' little daughter came Monday, Feb. 26. From present indication women's suffrage will win out in the near future.

The school board convention for the county of Multnomah will be held here the first Saturday in April. Full announcement will be published soon.

County School Superintendent R. F. Robinson was in town yesterday and met with the Fair board in the afternoon to help the board arrange for the juvenile industrial work in connection with the schools. He is arranging for a field meet to be held here on the Fair grounds the last of May.

E. Zurluh of Lents was a Gresham caller yesterday.

Will Hessel arrived Saturday from California looking hale and hearty. He says he didn't feel a drop of rain since leaving here January 2. It is said to be the driest year for fifteen years in the Bay state. Will is home to stay for the spring and further the interests of the machinery business in which he is associated with his father, J. C. Hessel.

Fred Powell, who is in the drug business at Killingsworth and Albin avenue, Portland, was out Sunday for a visit with the folks.

Miss Emma Johnson spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Laura V. Bulkeley at the home of the latter in Portland and were guests of Nelson and Bulkeley at the opening of Montavilla's new moving picture show. The Business Men's club of Montavilla, through the courtesy of Alexander & Dering, the managers, had charge of the opening Saturday afternoon and evening and they handed out the tickets with a lavish hand. The show room is 50x65 feet, has three double exits, a stage with drop curtain and music furnished by a handsome orchestra. On the opening night, there were many extras on the program. Mrs. E. D. Levey rendered several vocal selections, also Mr. Will Ross. Little Miss Dorothy Wharfield sang. It was a great success and was well attended, the estimated attendance being placed at 5,000.

Gresham has some men of genius who are applying what they know along inventive lines. C. R. Crenshaw has applied for patents on a new style of gas generator which is said to be the simplest, cheapest, best thing of the kind devised. Geo. Parker has devised a new ice cream dipper which is novel and convenient. These two inventions it is believed will find a place of usefulness and will help to make Gresham famous as well as their inventors.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church. All members and friends of the work are urged to be present.

The cottage prayer meeting will be held tonight at the home of F. L. Rugg. These meetings are being well attended and are helpful.

John Roberts, a charter member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Gresham attended lodge Saturday night and says it is in very good working order and doing excellent work.

Miss Lena Rembold has been calling on Gresham friends.

Ed. Roberts and wife went yesterday to their home at Welches, after a few weeks enjoyable visit with Mr. Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts.

The senior class of the Gresham High school has decided on the play "College Town." They will give it about May 1.

Mrs. W. O. Gregory returned from a visit with her parents in Clancy, Montana, yesterday. She brought back a fine son, Edward Alfred, two months old.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Carlson are expected home this afternoon. They have spent more than two months at various southern California points, and will be welcomed home by all.

The opening at the Gresham Millinery Emporium held Friday and Saturday attracted many visitors. Mrs. Vogel says the styles in hats this season, while distinctive, are not so striking as last year, and many men will agree with her that they are more sensible than formerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Everson and baby visited over Sunday in Portland.

John Freeman has been transferred from route 4 to route 2 to begin the first of the month. Wm. Childers, who has been substituting on route 2, will become regular carrier on route 4 after April first.

H. H. Hunt and Mr. Hall have just finished installing water for John Conley and Dr. W. C. Belt.

The O. W. P. is clearing the ground and getting ready it is supposed for a new depot at Gates Crossing. One is badly needed at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Boyle and daughter Mabel are moving here from Portland. Mr. Boyle will occupy the new Ross building with an exclusive line of bakery and lunch goods.

Miss Chenault, of the Gresham public schools, was taken sick yesterday morning and was unable to teach her room. Mrs. Jas. Elkington is substituting for a few days.

Mrs. A. J. Cummings and baby of Portland are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. M. Vogel.

Mrs. Emmet Kelley is visiting friends in Aims.

Gibson and Wilson are getting their place nicely fixed up and announce a grand opening next Saturday afternoon and evening.

The Junior class has arranged to give their play "Uncle Rube" at Estacada next Saturday night. It is hoped that a good company of Greshamites will accompany them.

The Truth Seekers met at the home of Miss Maude Burch, March 2d. A large number was present. After the business meeting light refreshments were served after which games were played and a good time was enjoyed by all. Those present were, Miriam Brown, Ada Doane, Mae Dougherty, Arlie Gibbs, Maude Burch, Ava Thompson, Bessie Camp, Azelea Bell and Mrs. Sunday.

The regular meeting of the council will be held tonight.

The Commercial club will hold a meeting tomorrow night March 6.

An important meeting of Dairy-men's association will be held in Fairview, Friday afternoon, March 8. Mr. J. D. Mickle of Forest Grove will be present and address the meeting. All interested in dairy work and dairy development are invited to be present.

The case of Burkholder vs. Gebhardt, filed in Justice Rollins' court here, has been compromised, as also the case of Saruwatashi vs. Olson.

Are You Going to Build?
