C. L. Tomlinson of Portland has been giving his orchard in Buena Vista Gardens special care lately. He contemplates building a bungalow there this summer.

Mrs. M. H. Wheeler of Boring was in town today having her hand dressed by Dr. Bittner. She cut it badly Sunday on a fruit jar and some pieces of glass remained in the wound.

A choir meeting will be held at the M. E. church next Friday evening. All singers are urged to be present for special practise.

W. H. Addis of Russellville was in town today putting up cards for his friend, Walter M. Pierce, of Union county, who is democratic candidate for United States senator to succeed Boarne. He is said to be the only man for this office who is a farmer.

A new walk is being put in in front of Carlson's building on Powell street.

A pleasant surprise party was given on Laura Davis last Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis. Many of her young friends were present.

Captain and Mrs. C. O. Branson are spending a few weeks at their summer home at Melrose, after several months of arduous labor in the evangelistic field. They will lead in meetings in southern Oregon during May and June.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lindsey and family also Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Idleman of Montavilla took a trip today to Warren in their autos, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson. It is expected that Mrs. E. C. Lindsey, who has been there for some time, will return with them.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the Free Methodist church Thursday, April 4, at 2:30. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lord of Park River, North Dakota, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Honey.

C. E. Risher and family were surprised Sunday by a call from A. Toles, and Mr. Leonard, old friends from Kansas, who are making a tour of the coast.

J. T. Stillion has sold one-half interest in his plumbing shop to E. Magee of Portland. The new firm has bought the stock of Hunt & Hall, and now have practically an open field and full equipment in their line.

E. T. Jones & Co. have the contract for building a five-room modern bungalow for Peter Anderson on Wallula Heights where he has recently purchased an acre and a half. This will be one of several fine residences built on this tract this summer.

L. E. Sauvie, deputy county assessor was in town yesterday instructing Guy Fieldhouse in his duties as deputy county assessor to take the valuation of personal property in Gresham, Fairview and Troutdale. Mr. Fieldhouse enters upon his duties at once. Guy is so well known as a good fellow that some were disposed to take it as a joke but he means business.

The Multnomah County Union of the Farmers' Society of Equity will hold its second quarterly meeting in Gresham at 10 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, April 3.

Mr. Keeley of Keeley & DuBois of Underwood, Wash., is in town looking after his property recently bought in Buena Vista Gardens. He is an expert fruit man and is pleased with the orchard prospect here.

Rockwood Grange will give its third monthly entertainment tomorrow evening in the contest between the men and women. The program will be given by the men under the leadership of George Crane. Although the men expect to lose in the end they are going to give the women a close rub for the supper and have lots of fun in the meantime.

Oscar Golein of Portland visited at the home of H. E. Davis last week.

Aubry Taylor, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Taylor, who was so seriously hurt a few weeks ago by being thrown from a horse, has returned from the Portland hospital where he has been for treatment. He has nearly recovered from his injuries.

Little Vivian Hevel took a ducking in the Sandy one day last week, and narrowly escaped serious injury. She with several other children were playing on a large rock overhanging the river, when she was accidentally pushed off, falling head first into ten feet of water. A fisherman pulled her out when she came to the surface. It was fortunate that the little girl fell into the water instead of onto the nearby jagged rocks.

Miss Azalea Bell, niece of Mrs. Ella Hornish and a pupil in the Gresham public school, was thrown from a buggy against a mail box post while driving with a friend on the Latourelle road Sunday and sustained a fracture of the right shoulder. She is at present confined to her bed at the home of her aunt, Mrs. P. B. Gregg, near Corbett.

The Dairymen's meeting will be held at Fairview Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is an adjourned meeting at which a report will be made by the committee of which H. E. Davis is chairman, regarding the purchase of certain creameries in Portland. It will be an important meeting and all dairymen are requested to be present.

Mrs. Kidder's and Miss McNeill's Sunday school classes will practice Wednesday afternoon at the church at 2 and Mrs. Sterling's class at 3 the same day in preparation for the Easter exercises of next Sunday.

Representative Lafferty of Portland, Oregon, led the fight for the Borah-Jones Three-year Homestead bill, and the same passed the House last Saturday. It looked for a time as if the Lenroot amendment, preventing a homestead filing on any land chiefly valuable for timber, would be adopted. Lafferty made the closing argument on the floor today in opposition to the amendment, and on the vote being taken the amendment was rejected three to one. Thereupon the vote was taken on the main bill, and it passed without a dissenting voice.

Waldemar Seton for Judge, 4
