AFFERTY TALKS HIS CONVICTIONS

Representative A. W. Lafferty made known his views upon public questions the other day in the House of Representatives, in no uncertain tones. The bill relating to the use of white sulphur in the manufacture of matches, which has been shown to be dangerous, was under discussion. Mr. Lafferty said: "Mr. Chairman: I favor this bill because I place humanity, even though clothed in overalls or calico, in absolutely no comparison. (Applause.)"

When I first came to Congress I could not conceive how a patriotic body like this could continue to delay in the passage of a law giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix rates based upon physical valuations. But I have learned a few things that ought to be humiliating to every American citizen. Big business, so called, is swaggering around this capitol and throughout the country, attempting to control politics and legislation. It attempts, first, to coalesce members of this body, and to fill in that it seeks to intimidate them and make them fear the results of its power in the next succeeding election.

I might be alarmed myself if I was so distrustful of the intelligence and courage of my constituents as to believe that they could be stampeded with a weapon made up of a knob with a lightning bug on the end of it. The ammunition of the interest-serving newspapers fighting me is just about that caliber. In this House I have stood for exactly what I promised in my campaign for election. If I am advocating wrong governmental policies, the people of my district are responsible, and I think they are willing to accept that responsibility. I have introduced LaFollette's appraisal bill here, and have made speeches for it. I exposed the Oregon & California Railroad Land grant fraud, asking this body to take up the slumbering litigation pending at Portland in reference to it, and to see to it that no further delays are tolerated.

I have not flinched, and I do not propose to flinch. If I give up the fight, the bugle will have to sound the retreat from the rear. The people of this country are paying dividends upon billions of dollars of over capitalization. No one denies it. Yet no remedy is forthcoming. Why? Big business in politics.

Oregon has taken the initiative in leading the country out of this big business bondage. Oregon gave us the direct primary, statement I of the initiative and referendum and recall, and last, but not least, the presidential preference law.

Last year in Oregon the old guard made its last stand when it held an assembly. In that fight I was elected to this body. It is my hope and ambition to make good and prove the wisdom of the Oregon system. The same crowd that held that assembly are now backing my principal opponent. They belittle my fight for the people, and promise for their candidate "action, no words." If they can explain to me how they can get action in this body without words, I will subscribe to their slogan.

A public-service commission in each state and a national public-service commission are needed to control monopolies. These commissions should be given power by law to fix rates and prices of monopolies based upon physical valuations. When this is done every man who works for a living, either at his trade or profession, will be able to buy with the money he takes in good living for himself and family. He will be able to take a vacation of at least 30 days each year. He will be able to educate his children. He will be able to lay by a little for his old age. This legislation should be followed by an eight-hour law for men and women in every state in the union.

In concluding Mr. Lafferty paid a fine tribute to Senator LaFollette who represents his ideals of fair and honest government.

WILSON FOR CLEAN COUNTY GOVERNMENT

The political meeting last night drew a fair-sized audience to hear J. T. Wilson, the auctioneer, candidate for sheriff and George Rossman, an attorney, candidate for the state legislature.

Mr. Rossman, tall and commanding, with a deep penetrating voice, held quite a crowd on the street as he told what his ideal of a legislator was and that he would try if elected to bring about some of the much needed legislation. Mr. Wilson spoke in the hall and was listened to by both ladies and men. He had been 23 years in business and previously had had experience as sheriff and detective. He told of his connection with reform work in Portland and showed his interest in better enforcement of laws. The impression he made was altogether favorable.

Additional Gresham Locals

H. L. Bulkeley and Wm. Chamberlain of Montavilla were in Gresham last evening to attend the meeting of the Masonic lodge.

Fred Dalton, superintendent of the West Coast Life Insurance company, was in town today and in company with W. E. Wood, was looking after the company's business here. About $7000 has been written up in his company during two weeks.

L. D. Howard recently spent a day at Cherryville where he has taken up a homestead.

C. A. Wood has just finished spraying the large orchards of Chas. Cleveland, about 250 trees. Mr. Cleveland engaged Mr. Wood to come from Milwaukie for this work and is well pleased. Mr. Wood uses a modern power spray and is thoroughly up to date on sprays and methods. He is spraying other orchards in this vicinity.

Miss Henrietta Beatrice Honey, who so delighted a large Gresham audience a few months ago with her readings, will be here again for an evening's entertainment, at the M. E. church, Monday evening, April 15. It is expected that the church will be filled on that night. There will be several musical selections.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts that may be incurred by my wife, Martha Brandt, hereafter.

THEO. J. BRANDT.

Bids Wanted.

Bids will be received at the office of D. M. Roberts until April 20, 1912, for building a brick sidewalk in front of I. O. O. F. hall on Powell street.

For particulars call on D. M. Roberts.

D. M. ROBERTS, Trustee I. O. O. F. No. 125.

MASONS START LODGE HERE

At a special meeting of the Masons held in the I. O. O. F. hall last night a special dispensation was given the members of this fraternity to work until such time as the grand lodge grants them a charter. The lodge was called to order by Most Worshipful Grand Master of the state of Oregon, Mr. Thomas M. Baldwin. Mr. W. G. Schellensberg, grand junior, acted as grand senior warden and Mr. E. A. McPherson as grand junior warden. Mr. James Robinson, grand secretary. The following officers were placed in their respective stations:

W. M., W. H. Congdon.
S. W., Charles Cleveland; Jr.
J. W., O. A. Eastman.
The following officers were appointed pro tem:
S. O., Max Schneider.
J. O., Emil G. Kardell.
S. S., L. L. Kidder.
J. S., W. K. Hamilton.
T., James Peterson.
Chaplain, Geo. F. Hopkins.

After the ceremony there were several speeches by the Grand officers and members of Fairview lodge, which were highly appreciated by the members of the new lodge. Mr. Chamberlain of Montavilla gave a splendid talk on the friendship that should exist between the members and not a word of it was lost. Gresham can well be proud of this new order, for the Masonic order is considered by all to be the mother of all lodges. It has been handed down since the days of King Solomon, who was the first Most Excellent Grand Master. St. John, the evangelist, was at one time the grand master of this noble order.

The members of Gresham have worked hard and long to get this lodge instituted here. Mr. Congdon and Mr. Cleveland have been the prime movers in bringing this about. The regular meeting will be held on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month and the latch string will always hang on the outside to all Masons in good and regular standing.

Troutdale Man Injured

Dr. Belt, who is attending Mr. Tollyson of Troutdale, who was injured by falling from his buggy and striking on his head, last week at Troutdale, says that Mr. Tollyson was suffering from concussion of the brain and injury to the spinal nerves. Very often an injury of that kind is mistaken for intoxication. The accident happened in front of the blacksmith shop on a steep hill. He pulled up his horse rather suddenly and pitched out on his head. He was found wandering around town acting strangely and was placed in bed by the marshal. After some hours it was discovered that he was partially paralyzed and unable to walk straight. He was taken to his home where he is under treatment. The doctor says he is slowly recovering.

To Taxpayers.

Anyone holding statements of assessable personal property, please hand them to Guy Fieldhouse, deputy county assessor, at Aylsworth's store, between 6 and 7 o'clock on evenings convenient to them. x

MILKMEN WANT CREAMERIES

FAIRVIEW, April 9.—The dairymen got down to real business at their meeting held here Friday afternoon. A paper circulated around the room for the purpose of ascertaining how many of the dairymen would take stock in an incorporation whereby one-half the stock was controlled by the producers and half by the creamery company was signed by nearly every dairymen present. Thirteen names representing 225 cows, which at the rate of $20 per cow, the rate fixed by the creamery concern, means $4500 of the $12,000 required, and not 5 per cent of the dairymen of the county were present at this meeting, hence it is not anticipated that any difficulty will be had in securing the necessary stock. Each member present was appointed as a committee of one to solicit stock from his neighbors and to report his success to President H. E. Davis, who will take up the matter of getting up articles of agreement with the creamery company.

The petition protesting against the tubercular test gotten out by the dairymen of Sauvie's Island, was circulated here and well signed. The dairymen protest vigorously against the present system and desire to have a trial case to ascertain the constitutional value of the ordinance pertaining to the inspection of dairy herds and milk. The milk men will gladly submit to tests they say, but object to the discrimination made in the present system. The next meeting will be held on May 3rd at which time Mr. Davis hopes to either be ready with articles of agreement with the creamery in question or have a representative of that company present at the meeting.

Jenne Station

With spring upon us and the grass making a good showing a few people in this section who seem to care for no one else's interest but their own have seen fit to let some of their cattle run at large much to the disgust of the law abiding citizens who predominate in this large and growing community and at the last meeting of the Jenne Station Improvement association there was considerable dissatisfaction expressed with the actions of the above class of residents and the association will, if they continue in their practice, take advantage of the law that governs this class of violators.

It is with a deep feeling of regret that we announce the sickness of Grandpa Lawrence. He is suffering from an operation he underwent some time ago for appendicitis. We trust that he will withstand his sickness and soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Marasco spent Sunday with their parents near Gresham and returned in the evening and spent a few hours visiting Mr. and Mrs. Regal.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lang, Mr. Ulysses G. Gingrich, Ross Rolier, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, Master Maurice Mann, Walter Metzler and Mrs. Alex. Durrant spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dell Regal.

Eugene S. Jenne has started to put three coats of pure paint on his house and he says it will be whiter than snow when he is through with his job.

We are reliably informed that James Dyer, formerly known about this section as "Pancake Jim" has taken unto himself a wife. Jim says no more butterfly life for him for he has absolutely settled down and it only happened three weeks ago, but Jim says he feels himself settling a little each week.

Progress is certainly exemplified at Jenne Station and advancement seems to be the motto of the day. G. B. Middleton now rolls about the country with pleasure with his new 1912 Model Reo 4-cylinder 5-passenger auto, so does our old friend Mart Kronenberg keep just a little ahead of the times. Mart has been driving a Reo for a year. Our esteemed friends Eugene Sylvester Jenne will soon, we are informed, have a chug-chug wagon and then Dell Regal says he is going to buy a road house. (He calls the motor cycle this bad name.)

The county court has been fit to be kind to us and they are showing the kindness we appreciate. They are now grading and fixing Jenne avenue and it looks good. We hope they will continue to fix up all the little things that need it in and around the roads while they are at it.

C. B. Middleton has just about completed his neat little home on the forty acre tract he purchased not long ago.

CANNERY HAS $1000; WANTS $500 MORE

The Outlook erroneously stated that $100 had been subscribed toward the cannery now being promoted by the Farmers' Society of Equity. It should have been $1000. About $500 remains yet to be subscribed in order to incorporate and start the business going. It is hoped to do this right away. Mr. Lyman, the secretary of the Gresham local union and also of the county union, says he has every encouragement that the needed stock will be subscribed and the cannery made a success.

Troutdale

The county this week begins the macadamizing of the old Sandy road and the improvement will be extended from Troutdale to Rose City Park. The crushed rock is obtained from Rooster Rock and shipped to Fairview and Hemlock (Zimmerman) by the O. W. R. & N., thence hauled by team to the various points as needed. Fifteen teams will begin at Troutdale.

J. C. Belien, who has been connected with the meat business at Gresham for years has bought the Buxton shop here and will conduct a first-class market. He has purchased a home and will move his family here at once.

Men are at work blasting out the old foundations in the Sandy river getting ready for the new bridge. The contract will be let tomorrow and the bridge completed in about 90 days.

C. E. Cree began work yesterday on a $3500 bungalow for J. P. Province at Fairview.

Electric lights were turned on at Fairview for the first time last night.

FAVOR COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

The second annual convention of the school boards of Multnomah county, outside of the schools of the city of Portland, met in the assembly room of the Gresham schoolhouse last Saturday.

There was a fair attendance of delegates and teachers with a goodly sprinkling of interested visitors. The papers were well prepared and called forth lively discussion. Especial interest was taken in the discussion of county high school, it being the consensus of opinion that the county should in every way encourage the pupils of rural schools to take a high school course, and should establish a well equipped school, or schools, centrally located for the pupils. The following resolutions on the subject were drawn up and adopted by the convention:

Resolved, By the committee appointed for the purpose of considering the subject of county high schools that it be the sense of this convention that measures be taken to secure petitions to have the same placed on the ballot this November election.

Resolved, That the districts contribute pro rata for the expense of circulating the petitions for high schools provided county court fails to pay for same.

Resolved, That it be the sense of the committee that medical inspection be inaugurated in the rural and village schools of Multnomah county wherever practical. The work to be done by local physicians. Resolution committee—Theo. Brugger, R. J. Burley, A. F. Chase, J. E. Tauch, R. Tegart.

The afternoon session was held in the Commercial club hall, on invitation of the club. Several women from the Civic Improvement League met the delegates at the station with autos and took them to the schoolhouse. In the afternoon at the hall they served cake and punch. Resolutions of thanks were adopted by the convention, for the courtesies shown by these two organizations.

ORIENT ATHLETES WIN IN BASKET BALL

The Orient basket-ball quintet, in a game with the Lusted school team, played at Orient last Friday, won out in a score of 58 to 21. The Lusted boys played well but were hindered by being on a new field and not being as well trained as their opponents who have had the advantage of an experienced trainer in Principal Quicksall. They will have a chance to get even with the Orient team in a game to be played April 19 on the Lusted grounds. It being election day, the Lusted boys believe it will be in their favor.

On April 17, 18 and 19, an exposition of goods manufactured in Llan county will be held at Albany under the auspices of the Albany Commercial club. It will be a part of the "Made-in-Oregon" campaign of the State Manufacturers' association. Lebanon and Brownsville will participate and the products of two furniture factories, one tannery, one paper mill and one woolen mill will be displayed. The first day will be devoted to a rally of the Commercial clubs of the three towns.

Dr. Lowe, Friday

Waldemar Seton for Circuit Judge, Dep't No. 4

Waldemar Seton who is a candidate for the nomination for judge of the circuit court, Dept. 4, is well known in this part of the county, and his special qualifications for the office which he seeks are recognized by all. Mr. Seton was born in 1865, and has lived 20 years in Oregon, 16 of which he has engaged in the active practice of law in the courts of Oregon. He served as deputy district attorney from 1897-1898, as assistant U. S. attorney during 1900, and as justice of the peace for the East Portland district from 1902-1906. He was three years city attorney for Gresham and is at present a member of the executive board of the city of Portland. His law office is 432-3 Worcester building, Portland. Mr. Seton married Miss Dottie Hurlburt, daughter of the late John Hurlburt, in 1893. (Paid Adv.)

Demands a Public Morgue

Dr. James C. Hayes for Coroner.

The strongest antagonism that has been brought to bear against Dr. James C. Hayes, Republican candidate for coroner, originated among the undertakers. The reason is apparent. Dr. Hayes believes in the establishment of a public morgue, while they believe in allowing the undertakers to dictate how dead bodies shall be taken care of. (Paid Adv.)
