GRESHAM

Principal Quicksall of the Orient school, and A. F. Chase and Grant Sloop, of the Orient school board, were in attendance at the school board convention Saturday. Mr. Quicksall says the recent school entertainment was a success, reflecting credit on the school and helping financially toward improving the school library.

Rev. F. M. Burtch preached last Sunday to good audiences. The Easter service and sermon on The Living Christ in the morning was especially helpful. The pastor preached at Orient in the afternoon at 2:30. Revival meetings are in progress at Orient with Edgar Cofer, of Portland, assisting the pastor.

Harold and Nellie Swafford, of Oregon City, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clanan and Earl. The latter took the party by auto to Latourell Falls, returning in the evening the visitors were taken to Oregon City. They found the road down to the Falls in excellent condition.

J. F. Wilmarth and family and Miss Bickford were visitors at the home of Mrs. Ella Aton Sunday. In the afternoon the party visited the cemetery.

Roy McCarter caught a fine large trout in Johnson creek near the McCarter House. It measured 14 inches.

Mrs. Nellie McGrath stopped at Gresham a few days on her trip to Eugene. She thinks Gresham is a very prosperous place.

The Easter exercises of the Sunday school at the M. E. church Sunday morning were very interesting. There was a large attendance and everyone was well pleased with the songs and recitations by the little folks. The pastor preached to a large audience Sunday morning on the Satisfaction of the Resurrection. The choir rendered three special musical numbers.

Pastor F. H. Freund preached at Easter sermon at the Zion Evangelical church Sunday morning. The service was well attended.

Henry Kane visited his mother, Mrs. Kane, Sunday and together they went by auto to Mr. Goger's at Scenic.

The Martha club of the Zion Evangelical church was entertained last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mullenhoff at Pleasant Home. The pastor Rev. F. H. Freund and nearly twenty ladies were present. The day was pleasantly spent.

Miss Lottie Davis has been home for a few days' vacation.

An adjourned meeting of the council will be held tonight.

Mrs. Chas. Dannels of Portland was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Sterling, on Saturday.

Laura V. Bulkeley and Emma Johnson spent Easter at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bulkeley of Montavilla.

The Women's Home Missionary society will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sterling. The Mesdames Brande, Albertson and Sterling will be hostesses. Conveyances will leave the Methodist church at 2 p. m. All are invited.

O. E. Stanley of Portland, who has been surveying the new street just west of Main street was in town yesterday laying off the new street for forty feet, according to the petition allowed at the last council meeting.

Mrs. Frank Rembolt went this morning to a Portland hospital where she will undergo an operation.

E. C. Lindsey and Helen Metzger took a trip to Warren last Sunday to call on Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson and see the new baby. Mrs. Lindsey, who has been there for several weeks, returned with them.

W. H. Johnson was in Gresham last week and rented a house of E. C. Lindsey and made arrangements with the Leutke Mfg. Co. of Portland to get out fixtures for his new drug store.

Miss Pearl Jones has accepted the position of night operator at the telephone office and an extra operator has been put on to help during the busy times of the day.

F. E. Todd, our sign artist, is putting his attractive work in evidence in all parts of the city.

E. Dukes of Sandy was in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker returned to Gresham Monday after a short honeymoon and were given a grand charivari last night.

Shattuck & Lindsey are stocking up in many lines of goods for spring and summer.

A very fine display of jewelry and Indian arrow heads has been made by Fred Fieldhouse in the front window of his enlarged store. The arrow heads are the property of Ernest B. Thompson and were gathered by him in eastern Oregon. He has altogether about 700.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tasker and sons of Regina, Saskatchewan, were callers on the editor and family this morning. Glad to get away from the cold of the northwest, they are, in company with relatives, enjoying a fishing trip out in the mountains towards Mt. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Look of Montavilla visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Sunday.

Next Saturday will be Grange Day at Gresham and a program of special interest is being prepared by Mrs. McKay the lecturer.

Mrs. G. M. Lewis of Milbank, South Dakota, is visiting her sisters, Miss Dottie Nilmot, and Mrs. Fred Lambert.

P. E. Jewell of La Grande, Ore., spent Sunday with his nieces, Mrs. G. M. Lewis, Mrs. Fred Lambert and Dottie Nilmot. He had not seen them for 18 years.

Robinson & Witter will begin next week the construction of a one-story bungalow for F. A. Halliday fronting on Powell street in Zenith addition. The house, the plans for which they have drawn up for Mr. Halliday, will be a seven-room bungalow of very neat design and thoroughly modern, and will cost about $2000. This house will be the first to be built in what has long been quite a gap on Powell street, being about midway between the Manning residence and the Alexander house.

Mrs. G. F. Hopkins entertained her Sunday school class of boys last evening at her home.

The Queen Esther circle will meet at the home of Gertrude Nelson on Friday evening. All members are urged to be present.

Robinson & Witter, have taken a contract for building a $2500 residence for Parley Kimball, on Going street near Union avenue. Mr. Kimball is a nephew of S. H. Kimball who lives southeast of Gresham.

CLIMB UP

Look over the list of our captains of industry in the United States and note their humble beginnings. Carnegie a telegraph operator, James J. Hill a laborer, Charles Schwab a messenger boy, John D. Rockefeller, a low salaried clerk, John D. Archbold, bartering in a country store, Anthony N. Brady, a clerk in a tea store, Frank Vanderlip a reporter on a Chicago newspaper, A. Barton Hepburn teaching school, Chauncey M. Depew a lawyer's clerk. And so we might go on with the great list of successful business men now recognized as of commanding influence in their spheres.

Each formed the Banking Habit early in life always saving a portion of their income. Each a firm believer in the assistance afforded by a good banking connection in climbing the ladder of success.

You cannot form the banking habit too early in life or be too careful in the selection of a bank whose business is transacted in a careful conservative manner.
