

GRESHAM HAS MANY AUTOS

The popularity of the automobile and the prosperity of farmers and others in this locality is shown by the number of automobiles owned and the constant use made of them for business and pleasure by residents of this section.

A canvass of the matter has recently been made and it is found that 16 business men of Gresham own and use 18 automobiles. Several are used by Portland business men who reside in this vicinity, and four or five are owned by farmers in or near Gresham.

Several others are owned by farmers or business men within two or three miles of town. In all it is found that in Gresham and nearby localities there are about 50 automobiles. This includes several at Fairview, Troutdale, and Rockwood. Fully ten or a dozen more are found farther east in the county.

With a first-class garage at Gresham, on the main thoroughfare, passed by autoists going and coming, this is getting to be an automobile headquarters. With the complete and modern equipment put in by Mr. Zimmerman it is to the interests of the many owners and users of autos to know that they can get here promptly and reasonably whatever they use in the auto line.

In no part of the county are there such splendid opportunities for longer or shorter pleasure trips as in eastern Multnomah. Gresham is on the Portland-Mt. Hood automobile road on which thousands of dollars have lately been spent in grading, building bridges and other improvements, making it one of the most scenic trips in the country. Only a few miles east of Gresham is the Portland automobile club house, which is now being built and will be a rendezvous for autoists. Any of the good macadamized roads from Portland, passing through or near Gresham, are on the line of the new Portland-Hood River auto road now being constructed. This will rival the trip to Mt. Hood and soon become a part of a more extended tour including both routes. This trip up the Columbia will have wonderful scenic attractions and surpass the trip up the Nile or the Rhine.

FRUIT GROWERS EFFECT UNION

A consolidation of fruit growers, representing about 50 per cent of the fruit growers of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, and an investment of over $250,000,000, has been effected with the purpose of creating a wider market for the fruit products of the Northwest and better distribution of the fruit through those markets. This it is believed will result in lowering the price to the consumer and also getting better returns for the grower.

The Roseburg Commercial club is planning a gala time from May 14 to 18. On the 14th, 15th and 16th it will entertain the members of the State Grange at their annual meeting and on the 16th, 17th and 18th will hold a strawberry festival carnival.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE IS GAINING GROUND

Equal suffrage is sure to come nearer carrying in Oregon, if it does not carry, this fall than heretofore. The men and women who favor it are becoming more determined every day and the arguments they put forth are more convincing.

Mrs. LaFollette, who is touring Oregon with her husband, Senator LaFollette, in his political campaign, is giving the cause quite a boost. She says what Eastern women are working for is to get at least one state east of the Mississippi for suffrage. It would break the ice, she thinks, and prove to the nation that the idea is not merely a western fad. She declared at Pendleton last Saturday that the reason western women were so fortunate was because they have progressive men to add them. "I regard the equal suffrage movement as a decidedly progressive one," said she.

CANDIDATES HOLD FORTH ON STREETS

Candidates for various county offices held open house on the streets of Portland Saturday night. Some spoke for themselves, others were well represented by friends. Banners, brass bands and other music were features used to help draw and hold a crowd.

The largest crowds were attracted by speakers for Walter H. Evans, and their words were cheered vociferously. The lie was hurled at assertions of various of his opponents that Evans was being supported by "big business"; that he had bought out the candidates who have withdrawn from the race in his favor, and at charges affecting his private life.

Outside of refuting the charges of the opponents of Evans the speakers did not indulge in personalities, but devoted their arguments to showing the necessity of electing a competent and honest man to fill the District Attorney's office. They pointed to the record of Evans as Deputy United States District Attorney in proof of their assertions that he was the proper man for the place.

M. De Wavrenmont. Imported Belgian Stallion, owned by the Multnomah Belgian Horse association of Gresham will be found at the following places: Buxton's barn, Troutdale Mondays and Tuesdays; Leland's barn, Gresham, Wednesdays and Thursdays; W. Hillyard's, Pleasant Home, Fridays and Saturdays; Sundays at Jas. Pounder's, Corbett. E. M. Canniff, manager. 21

SUPPOSE

Suppose you fail to vote at the primaries at which good, honest, capable men should be nominated for office, and as a result of your failure, your lack of interest, your apathy, and that of a few others—or it might be of yours alone—some man entirely unworthy of public confidence, an "unfit" office holder, should be elected to administer the law or the business affairs of the county; suppose the administration of said office-holder should be a discredit to the people of Multnomah county, encouraging lawlessness, the open saloon, the uncurbed road house, the gambling and social evils, making this a rendezvous of criminals of all classes; suppose you are way laid some dark night; or your daughter defamed, or your boy made a drunkard, or your property made worthless, or your friends insulted; suppose with all this your taxes are burdensome, your rights are trampled on without redress—WHOM WOULD YOU BLAME?

Would you blame Seneca Fouts, the guardian spirit of the red light district, who, hay then be district attorney? Would you blame Mr. McAllister, the legal light of the saloon business, the author of saloon legislation intended to destroy local option, who may then be sheriff of this county? Would you blame Mr. Fitzgerald, the so-called working men's candidate, who may then be sheriff, who is believed to be allied with the "interests." Could you blame any of the undesirables who may get into office through your failure to do your duty?

Suppose the next state legislature is made up of incompetents, undesirables and grafters, working for the "interests," appropriating the state funds and passing laws to enrich themselves and burden the taxpayers; suppose you and I will have reason to be ashamed of their legislative doings,—WHOM WILL YOU BLAME?

If you did not vote at all or did not vote intelligently, can you blame the men who get into the places of power? If you have done your duty and these men still get into office you cannot blame yourself. It is up to you Mr. Voter to do your full duty next Friday.

VOTE FOR GOOD MEN.

You will have a clear conscience and it will pay financially. If you don't know that a man has qualifications and is well recommended don't vote for HIM.

TITANIC SINKS; 1200 LOST

Sunday night the Titanic, a large ocean steamship, of the White Star line, struck an iceberg off the coast of Newfoundland and in a few hours sank to the bottom of the sea. It is feared that more than half the crew of over 2000 went down with the ship.

Man proposes, but God disposes. It was ever thus, and it is a solemn reminder that comes to struggling humanity from the sinking of the largest passenger ship afloat, a new magnificent ship, taking her maiden voyage. The ship cost upwards of $10,000,000. On board were over 2000 souls, 1200 of whom are reported to have perished. Among these were many of the world's notables, men and women of money, high position and influence. It is stated that a billion dollars' wealth was easily represented by the first-class passengers.

Friends and relatives of the lost passengers are scattered all over the country. Several Portland passengers were rescued. W. W. Cotton, who with his wife has been touring Europe, was scheduled to return on this ill-fated ship but fortunately delayed and will not leave for a few weeks.

Jenne Station

Now that the spring sunshine has induced the hen to contribute more liberally to the egg tray and the time of the setting hen will soon be on us and the fresh green pastures may soon be depended on to increase the flow of milk which means more butter, and the time will soon be here when we can go out in the garden and gather nice fresh vegetables the birds singing their praises of spring, the flowers blooming forth all their luster. Such are the conditions at Jenne Station. Now what more does a person want, and in case there is anything else needed or wanted, there is no doubt, if it's to be had, you can get it by coming to Jenne Station.

Last week there was a meeting in Moore's hall at which time there were a few candidates for office spouting and playing hide-and-go-seek with those present for their votes. They were very profuse in their promises and a few wise old foxes were present that took their talk with a grain of salt, for their promises were like the pie crust that Regal makes, it's too easily broken. One person present took the opportunity to call the attention of those present to the fact that the present county court was entitled to a great deal of credit from the residents of this section for putting in new road and giving us the attention they have in the past and also for the donation of $2,000 to help make the fFair in Gresham a success, for anything that is done for Gresham or eastern Multnomah county helps Jenne Station and the country surrounding here.

At the last meeting of the Jenne Station Improvement association a vote of thanks was tendered the Gresham Outlook for the publicity they have seen fit to give Jenne Station, and they also requested the Outlook to publish the road laws in reference to cattle running at large.

D. Putz Regal is a popular man Sundays. He's a good cook and he pilots the crawfisher to the hiding place of the crawfish, shows them how to set their nets, how to get them out, when they get in the net, and he knows how to cook them and he also knows how to eat them. Now that's going some for Putz Regal.

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Sharp, formerly pastor of the Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church, but now professor of Greek and Latin at the Albany college, Albany, Oregon, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Jenne last week for a few days. The doctor and his wife always enjoy the visits with old friends, and of course, he enjoys the water, air and surroundings of Jenne Station.

Gus Richey has sold 10 acres of his ranch to a party in Portland. Among the candidates for the state legislature are some who should be given an opportunity to remain at home. From the Eighteenth Representative District there are 26 men on the Republican ticket, 12 of whom are to be nominated. Voters are urged to know the record of these men, and not vote blindly. The Oregon Journal in its issues of Saturday evening and Sunday morning gave a fair statement of the political and private records of the men up for nomination, on the Republican ticket, for the legislature, for the Thirteenth Senatorial and the Eighteenth Representative Districts. It is impossible to refer to each of these candidates, we would call attention only to some of those who should not be supported. Adolph M. Brunsvick gained notoriety in a divorce suit brought by his wife a year or two ago. He will be remembered as the man who compelled his wife to palm off an infant as their own, in order to gain property from her father. He also compelled her to practice her father's handwriting that she might be able to forge a will. Continued on page 6.

TAFT'S DIPLOMACY AIDS CAUSE OF PEACE

"If by the sacrifice of my life I could insure the renomination and re-election of President Taft, I would gladly go now, for I am sure that I could render no greater service to my country, either for the present or for the future, than to insure the continuation of the policies that are represented by the 'lantern bearer of peace,' William Howard Taft." Thus spoke Dr. J. Wesley Hill of New York, in a campaign speech Saturday at Eugene, showing his deep faith in the President.

"Wu Ting Fang told me," said Mr. Hill, turning to another phase of Taft's character, "that the action of President Taft was all that made possible a successful revolution that has advanced civilization and Christianity in China and prevented the partitioning of the empire among the powers of Europe.

"Taft, by his diplomacy, prevented a break with Japan and earned the respect and friendship of that people. Taft, by his foresight, prevented rash action by Congress, and now has Russia ready to enter a treaty that will respect American citizenship, regardless of religion.

"Taft is a great peace-maker, and were it not for the actions of Theodore Roosevelt and his friends, treaties with England and France would have been signed, in a large measure abolishing danger of war. He is a man whom the American people can trust, and I sincerely hope the people of Oregon will show their appreciation of the administration of Taft by indorsing him and his acts at the polls next Friday."

who intends to build a home and take up his residence here. One by one they steadily come. Another link in the chain toward the incorporation of Jenne as a beautiful city.

L. R. Lewis, the surveyor, who knows every knot hole in the fences and the stakes and monuments in and around this section, is surveying for Henry Kummell who will put up new fences if he does not put his tract on the market. Henry has one of the neatest homes and well kept farms facing on Powell Valley road.

Our old friend, C. B. Schieler, who has been getting along slowly since his accident of falling off a load of hay, is improving. Since a doctor from Portland found his backbone out of plumb, and seems to have straightened and stiffened it, with the aid of canes he can get out and show his authority. A man can't do that lying in bed. Here's hoping Schieler grows a new backbone which will be better than ever.

There is another prominent industry coming to the front in Jenne Station. That's a new nursery. They have 17 acres and have planted 200,000 rose bushes and other various bushes and shrubs which are kept at a first class nursery. They have and will make a feature of all kinds of imported plants. Next season they contemplate putting up new buildings and clearing considerable. So they will front on the Powell Valley road. They expect to call their nursery the Meadow Brook nursery.

The busiest man in Jenne Station is Walter Metzler, the superintendent of Springhill Farm. He says he is busier than a cranberry merchant with the prices going down. He's plowing, painting, fencing, planting, house-cleaning, piping water to his garden for irrigating and if he did not have a disposition like the climate here (that's sunshine) he might do a little swearing.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann, Master Maurice Mann, and Mrs. Alexander Durrant, spent Saturday and Sunday at their country home, the Springhill Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Frazier called on Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sylvester Jenne Saturday evening.

Henry Kummell was a caller on Mr. and Mrs. D. Putz Regal Sunday.

Had His Doubts. A doctor was attending a serious case of fever in a house where a Scotch butler was employed. On calling one morning he said, "Donald, I hope your master's temperature is much lower than it was last night."
