William A. Baker.

Sunday evening May 5, at 7:45 in the Commercial club hall, William A. Baker, lecturer for the International Bible Student's association, will deliver his widely known and popular lecture on the unique subject, "To Hell and Back, who are there and why? Have they any hope?" When questioned relative to the topic announced Mr. Baker replied, "None of us but have lost some loved one who has died outside the pale of the church, and, if popular theology be true, inside eternal torment and hopeless despair. Our normal mind turns in horror from the contemplation of such a picture. If the doctrine of eternal fire and misery be true we ministers should preach it, daily, hourly; if not, we should frankly admit it and thus remove this foul stain from Jehovah's holy name."

Mr. Baker is a thorough student of the Bible and in this lecture is said to be at his best. He claims that his position is that taken by all the educated and intelligent students of sacred literature. You cannot afford to miss this rare treat. Seats free and no collections are lifted.

Missionary society, of which Mrs. Sterling is recording secretary. Miss Flemming went as a delegate from the local Queen Esther circle. She was elected secretary of the District Circle.

C. M. Zimmerman, proprietor of the Gresham garage, has equipped his auto with an automatic air pump which he finds a great convenience when he is called out into the country to repair autos.

The directors of the Multnomah County Fair will meet next Monday at 1:30. Important business is to come before the meeting.

The members of the Gresham Volunteer Fire Department met Wednesday night in the Commercial club rooms and talked over various plans for improving the companies. Those who had circulated petitions for raising funds reported a measure of success. It was decided that Wednesday night would be the regular night for fire drill.

The regular meeting of the council will be held next Tuesday night.

Karl J. Hagberg from Duluth bought two acres from the ranch of Frank Johnson near Gresham, and expects to bring his family here in June when he will take possession.
