Dr. J. J. Murray, V. S., has opened an office with J. W. Parker in the Gresham Livery stable. He is a graduate of the Veterinary college of New York and a licensed veterinarian for Oregon. He will make this his headquarters and can be called on at any time. He has been practicing for 30 years in various parts of the country and comes well recommended.

Work has begun on the new bridge being put in by the county on Main street near the O. W. P. depot. The bridge will be made 24 feet wide and will be very substantially built.

It is reported that several sales have been recently made in this tract and there are indications that these choice home tracts will be taken up quickly.

A. K. Williams and wife have gone to Cleveland, Wash., where he has taken up a homestead of 160 acres. Mr. Williams was born and raised near Gresham, and is well known to the older residents, who wish great success to him and his wife in their new home. Before going he came in and subscribed for the Outlook, that he might keep track of the doings of this locality.

Geo. Camp of Gresham, and Mrs. Maude Andross of Sherwood, Oregon, were married yesterday at the court house in Portland. Mrs. Carrie Noble and Miss Katie Camp, sister of the groom, were present at the ceremony. They will live at the Camp home in Gresham until their house is built.

Cecil Metzger was surely born under an unlucky star. His latest accident occurred Wednesday morning on the race track where he was working with the graders. Two teams with scrapers got mixed up together and Cecil mixed up with them. He got out of the fracas with some bruises that makes it necessary for him to walk with crutches for a few days, and is glad that it was not more serious. It is needless to say Cecil carries an accident policy.

Five thousand dollars for five bushels of wheat is the value of the prize offered by the Northwest Development League this year. This is the world's biggest prize for wheat and is said to be five times as much as was ever offered for any class of prize grain in the United States. The wheat is to be displayed at the Northwest Products Exposition, Minneapolis, Nov. 12-23. No entry fee will be charged. The prize consists of a traction engine and set of plows.

Which is the Cheapest to Spray Your Hen-house With?

Crude Carbolic Acid at 90c per gallon or coal oil at 11c per gallon, or HESS DIP at 2c per gallon and every drop kills lice, mites, ticks and fleas. It is not gone in a day like coal oil, but stays right there and keeps on killing. It is the cheapest preparation for you to use and also acts as a general disinfectant. One gallon makes 70 gallons of the solution. Comes in all sizes.

Its price is so low that the spending is not merely a saving, but an investment which saves you many times its price in eggs and healthy chickens.

A booklet telling of its many uses can be had for the asking.

Security

In estimating the security of a Bank in which to keep your funds it is the Bank's Own Money that should be considered.

Our Paid in Capital is.....	$ 30,000.00
Surplus for protection of Depositors.....	7,500.00
	$37,500.00

This sum is all for the protection of our depositors. Another feature is the management. Seven years under the same officers means a great deal in the handling of any business. Experience is valuable.

A third strong argument for safety is conservatism. Care in making loans, so as to have a sure income from investments, with as few losses as possible, and constantly keeping a strong cash reserve on hand and in depository banks.

In seven years of business loss in loans has been less than Twenty Dollars. This means safe investments and security for the depositor's money.
