GRESHAM

The Powell clan held their annual family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr Saturday afternoon. Fifty persons were present. A general banquet was served under direction of Mrs. O. W. Tarr, and short speeches were made by several present. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. The family being an old established family in this part of Oregon, of pioneer stock, there are many descendants. Powell Valley was named for the early settlers.

Hon. J. D. Stevens, an authority in Direct Legislation, will speak on Anti-Single Tax, at the Grange hall, Gresham, Thursday, May 30, at 8 p. m. A large audience should greet Mr. Stevens, as the single tax measure is one of the most vital ever presented to the people of Oregon.

Miss Laura Burroughs, recently from southern California, enroute to her home in New York, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. C. S. Smith. She is also visiting her uncle, H. L. Goodrich.

The O. W. P. is making extensive improvements at Linneman. An addition to the freight house is being made, new gravel put on the station platform, and the track is being regraded and ballasted for some distance each side of the station house. These improvements when completed will help the appearance of the Troutdale junction point immensely. What an improvement it makes in the appearance of the lawns and home grounds to get rid of the old picket and board fences. Several beautiful places of Gresham have been improved recently in this way and the change is very noticeable. The appearance of homes is the first thing strangers notice, and it should be pleasing to the owners as well as to the passersby.

Ross Brown, the Oregonian carrier, has had an unfortunate experience with a bicycle. He recently purchased a wheel of John McLin of Rockwood to use on his Oregonian route. The other day he was informed that his wheel was one of the many bicycles recently stolen in Portland. The owner came out and identified his wheel and took it away. McLin bought the wheel a few weeks ago of a stranger who is now thought to have been the thief.

A petition is being circulated to include in the city limits the ten acres of the Honey property and about ten acres of the John Roberts' property. The special occasion for this is to make it possible for the residents in the section to get Bull Run water. It is said this will place in the limits property valued at about $40,000. The petition will come before the council at its next regular meeting and a special election will be called. This property should be included in the city limits. It is being improved as residence property and needs the advantages of city improvements.

Miss Buck, of Idaho, is the guest of Mrs. F. E. Aton.

Mrs. Jas. Sterling has been visiting her sister at Lyle, Wash.

Mrs. F. E. Aton expects to start next week for Kansas to visit relatives.

Don't forget the firemen's meeting tomorrow night at the club rooms.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the Methodist church Thursday afternoon. The meeting will be a mothers' meeting in charge of Mrs. Davidson. An urgent invitation is extended to all.

The report was circulated a few days ago that E. P. Smith had disappeared and quite an anxiety was felt by his friends and relatives here. He was on a visit to Woodburn and it was reported from there that he was missing. Mr. Smith returned home last Saturday and is found to be slowly improving.

Mrs. A. F. Vankirk, of Hillsboro, visited her sister, Miss Norma Hundley over Sunday.

The rural carriers will have a holiday on Thursday, Memorial day. Rural patrons can get their mail at the postoffice between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m.

The school entertainment, "A Merry Company," by the primary grades, will be given tonight in the Commercial club hall. There will be some special numbers. The prices are low and a good time is promised.

The Gresham Commercial club will meet Wednesday night, in an adjourned regular meeting. Plans for participation in the Rose Festival auto parade will be considered. It is especially desired that all members, business men and auto owners be present.

Mrs. H. E. Davis is quite sick with the grip.

The Gresham Millinery Emporium has secured a location in the Ross building on Main street near the City Bakery, and will occupy the new rooms beginning early next week. There are two rooms, giving a light front room for display and a good large work room. Mrs. Vogel and daughter will occupy living rooms in the Regner building.

The Decoration Day exercises, in charge of the Post and Corps, will be held in the Grange hall on May 30 at 11 a. m. John Huntington, an old soldier of Lents, will be the speaker on that occasion. His subject will be, Fifty years ago, or Two Flags on the American Continent. School children are expected to take part in the exercises. There will be music appropriate to the occasion.

Rev. J. A. Hopper and Rev. S. P. Roper, conference evangelists for the Free Methodist church, will leave for The Dalles the last of the week, where they will begin tabernacle meetings next Sunday morning.

A slight mistake was made in the report of grades won by eighth grade pupils as published in the last Outlook. Walter Belt won the highest average, which was 91.2. He was followed as a close second by Ada Doane with 90.5.

The Outlook, twice-a-week, is only $1.50 a year. Keep up with the times.

Spray your lawn with a fountain, 50c at Sterling & Kidder's.

Jenne Station

The sun has been shining only periodically at Jenne Station the last week but the rain was welcomed for it has put the gardens in elegant shape, and if Jupiter Pluvius will only let go now a while there will be some building going on here.

It is with regret that we announce the loss of Mr. and Mrs. William McKnight Gregan from our midst, as they have been good neighbors. They have bought a small country home at Jennings Lodge but they will be back before long and build at Jenne Station, we think.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church of Jenne Station gave a Pink tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenne last week. There was a very large attendance and a large contribution was offered for missionary work. Among those who were present were, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenne, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Giese, Mrs. Culy, Mrs. I. W. Butler, Mrs. Berke, Mrs. W. V. Moore, Mrs. Fred Lehman, Mrs. T. R. Berry, Mrs. Fred Ruegg, Mrs. George Ruegg, Mrs. Wm. McKnight Gregan, Mrs. Paul Bliss, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Hole, Mrs. Bort, Mrs. Poppleton, Mrs. Chas. Harrison, Miss Cora Giese, Mrs. Hazel Berke, Miss Leona Kesterson, Mrs. Belle Beard, Mrs. Baker, and several others.

Rex Baldwin spent the weekend with Forrest Jenne. Rex has not been out for some time but says he sees improvement every visit. Rex lived with his parents when he

DID YOU GET IT?
You looked for it, but did it come?
Your share of the big jobs and large fortunes that were handed out in May—was your drawing a blank?
Big jobs go to the men who have proven their worth. Nothing will better endorse your integrity and worthiness of a place higher up than a bank account. It says to the employer, "This man can be trusted; he is thrifty."
Large fortunes come from judicious business investment. Investment requires capital. No man ever got capital without saving it. Saved money is safe in this bank from fire, loss and theft. You will begin to make good when you have proven your worth. Start now with an account in this bank.

was a small lad in Sycamore, and he longs for the folks to locate here at Jenne Station once more. He says also that the birds sing sweeter, the flowers seem to bloom better, and the girls look prettier at Jenne Station than any place he has ever been. Come again Rex, and bring your "nitten."
Mrs. Josephine Regal returned Sunday from a three weeks' theatrical engagement down in the Coos Bay country. She enjoyed herself immensely and drew crowded houses wherever she went, the people coming for miles around to hear her. The novelty act she produces has never been shown in this part of the country, and as a consequence Mrs. Regal was a star performer and had several very flattering offers to continue down the coast into California. But she turned them all down to come back to Jenne Station. She says she enjoys her little bungalow better than any place on earth.
Chas. R. Frazier, the president of the Crescent Paper Co. of Portland, called on Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenne Sunday, wearing a smile that would make Teddy Roosevelt or even William Taft ashamed of themselves. Charles was presented by Mrs. Frazier with a large and handsome baby girl. Why wouldn't he smile?
Walter Metzler, the superintendent of the Springhill Farm, had his uncle and John G. Brady from Kalama call on him Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mann and their son Maurice spent the weekend at their country home, the Springhill Farm.
They say good rich ground attracts moles, at least where there is something good in the ground you find the mole. Dell Regal has found 18 up to date, and with his little gun has sent them to the happy hunting ground where there are no shot guns to bother them when they take a notion to dig.
