Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Altman Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Waincott recently from Drain, Oregon, enroute to a new home at Culesac, Idaho, was a guest of her cousin, D. D. Jack, and wife. Mrs. Waincott was an old schoolmate of her relatives during pioneer days, in an old rough board schoolhouse, with home made, uncomfortable seats, and rude, clumsy desks, when the teacher "boarded around." Many incidents of those days were recalled, both amusing and otherwise.

Gust Peterson is improving his home with a nice wire fence. This improvement shows to a better advantage the beautifully planned lawn already set out to roses and other blooming shrubs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strauss spent Memorial day in Portland.

D. D. Jack was a Portland visitor Monday. He was a guest at the Western Union outfit, which is located at present in Portland.

Prof. G. E. Jamison, wife and daughter, LeConie, were guests of B. C. and Mrs. Altman, Thursday.

Alice Jack, accidentally brought her hand in contact with a cross-cut saw, making an ugly gash in the fleshy part. At last accounts the wound was doing nicely.

Terry

J. W. Rogers has been spending a few days at his farm near Clatskanie, Oregon.

"Bob" Hughes of Lebanon, Oregon, but formerly of this place, has been visiting with old friends the past few days.

Andrew Tolleyson, who had his spine quite badly injured several weeks ago, is once again able to walk around on the lawn.

Mrs. E. M. Coons spent Friday of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Pelton, of Sellwood.

Mrs. Frank Eberle has been quite sick for the past few days at her home here.

J. J. Shipley, who has been spending several weeks at Hot Lake, Oregon, was visiting at the home of R. W. Calkins and family last week.

Wm. Hanning made a business trip to Montavilla last Monday.

Messrs. Claude Pickett and James Hayden were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. E. M. Coons.

Powell Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Palmblad and Mr. and Mrs. Swan Magnuson and Albert Palmblad visited their sister, Mrs. R. Gustafson in Portland last Sunday.

G. B. Buck of Warden, Idaho, is visiting at the home of his niece, Mrs. McClung.

Pleasant Home

A number of friends of A. W. Shipley and family called at their residence on Thursday evening to say goodbye, as they are about to move from Pleasant Home. A good many young people were present. Refreshments were served. Misses Laura and Mabel Shipley were presented with two beautiful volumes of standard works by their young friends. The presentation speech was made by Rev. A. B. Calder. All went away bidding them Godspeed as they depart for their new place.

Many people visited the cemetery and decorated the graves of the old soldiers and of friends buried here. A Quay and wife are in Portland. Mrs. Fitzgerald of Boring spent the day Thursday with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Stephens.

A. F. Wikstrom has completed the little booth for ice cream at the cross roads.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley was the recipient of a fine carving set from her Sunday school class. Mr. and Mrs. Shipley and family leave Saturday for their new home at Corbett. They will be there during the summer. In the fall they go to Couger mountain, where they have bought a place.

The school board, at their regular Wednesday night, showed their approval of the management of the school, by re-electing the whole corps of teachers. They are Chas. M. Quicksall, principal, Miss Bessie Osborne and Miss Mahoney. A very satisfactory record has been made by the school during the year.

Mr. Day has taken possession of his new house in the new townsite.

Mr. Newland is improving his home acres recently purchased in the new townsite.

Mrs. Smart of Portland was the guest of Mrs. J. A. Stephens this week.

The Country Life movement is making good throughout the state. The idea is growing and it is expected to interest 75,000 children in the work. C. H. Lane, representing the Department of Agriculture, has been in the state during the past week giving practical talks on the subject. It looks like the plan to make Oregon soil produce everything needed to feed Oregon people will succeed.
