Pleasant Home

S. Etter of Portland was the guest of the Stephens family Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Carpenter is very ill. Grandma Durst of Butler, Wash., visited her son-in-law J. Fitzgerald. She returned home Monday.

Mrs. Bell was out from Portland to visit friends Sunday.

Many in this vicinity are planning to take a trip to the mountains or the seashore during the warm weather.

Wanted—A signboard, for the benefit of the travelers who pass the crossroads after midnight. They sometimes call the farmers forth at 2 a. m. to inquire the way to or from the mountains.

Mrs. Jewell Takki has returned to Orient to live, after several years spent in Spokane. The Takki family were the first Japanese in this part of the country. They have many friends here.

Mr. Newsome has installed a concrete flue in his new house which adds much to its appearance.

M. H. Maxwell and Mrs. H. Nelson were callers at Mrs. Cleggett's recently.

Thousands of pleasure seekers go to Bull Run over the Mt. Hood railway every Sunday, while hundreds pass the county road in autos and motor cycles.

FLOWER SHOW RIGHT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Regner are not only lovers of flowers, growing many beautiful ones themselves, but are going to do their part toward encouraging others to enjoy the beautiful. They announce a flower contest at their store, Saturday, June 15. The details of which are given in their ad. One generous feature of the contest is that not only are cash prizes given but the flowers will be distributed to the churches for Sunday floral decorations.

Miss King of Eugene visited Mrs. Walter Johnson over Sunday and brought home Ruth who had been visiting relatives at Eugene for a few weeks.

The woman of today who has good health, good temper, good sense, bright eyes and a lovely complexion, the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct it. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Are You Going to Build? If so, consult W. H. Karr, Gresham, Oregon. Plans and estimates furnished.

GRESHAM

Mrs. S. T. Crow attended Memorial day exercises at Forest Grove, returning later in the day to Portland where, in company with Mr. Crow, she visited Lone Fir cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harlow of Eugene visited several days last week with W. H. Bond and wife. Mrs. Harlow is Mr. Bond's sister.

C. E. Rusher and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lansdown of Cottrell.

Jas. Modaffari has accepted a position as night watchman on the Mt. Hood railway. He was formerly in the employ of the N. P. Terminal company of Portland.

The popular dances given by Rockwood Grange will be discontinued during the summer season. Probably they will be resumed after the fair. Due notice will be given.

Mrs. Florence Wilson was married to Mr. Geo. Rodgers of Portland on May 27. They will make their home on the John Fancher place at Powell Valley. Mrs. Rodgers was Miss Florence Fancher.

Mrs. Inez Miller, whose school at Myrtle Creek closed last week, has come to Gresham with her boy to make their home with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLain, during the summer. Her year's school at Myrtle Creek has been one of the most successful ever held there and she has been re-elected at an increased salary for another year.

Mrs. Fritz Stoker is among the first in town to have sweet peas in bloom. It is early for this favorite flower and means there will be a long season of beautiful bloom.

A. H. Gould is building a 5-room bungalow on his lots in Thompson's addition. W. H. Karr is the contractor.

George Reynolds started yesterday for Walla Walla, Wash., for an indefinite stay. He expects to have his eyes treated while there, and hopes to have his sight restored.

Robinson & Witter are finishing the Halliday cottage in Zenith addition and report much work ahead.

Mrs. Fritz Stoker invited a few friends to be present with her to help celebrate her sixty-second birthday at her home here on May 25. Those present were Mrs. John Spitzenberger, and daughter, Mrs. Patterson, and son, of Portland, Mrs. Wilson of Powell Valley and Mrs. Stoker's sister, Mrs. Ammerman of Portland.

D. M. Roberts and family and Viola Dinger took an auto trip Sunday to Highland in Clackamas county to visit John Shram and family. Mr. Roberts said that as usual he got off the road and went ten or fifteen miles farther than was necessary. He found some good roads, and some—well, they were not in Multnomah county. There were rough roads, steep hills and thick mud a foot deep. They found the Shram family well. Miss Eva Shram who was paralyzed about two years ago, is much improved and hopes to regain her health.

Miss Grace Lawrence spent Saturday night and Sunday in Portland the guest of Miss Edith Gordon, formerly of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Crow entertained several guests Sunday, among them were Jack Wright of Forest Grove, Elmo Cain of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harrison of Portland.

Rev. Edwin Hight and family now occupy the Free Methodist parsonage on Fourth street. Mr. Hight is from Portland and is a recent graduate from the Seattle seminary.

Mrs. Arthur Dixon of Kelso, who has been under treatment at Good Samaritan hospital for several weeks returned to Gresham a week ago and spent several days visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Pulfer and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harve Metzger. She has gone to her home in Kelso, taking with her the three children who have been cared for in Gresham during her stay in the hospital.

Mrs. W. J. Wirtz is a great lover of cats, and also of chickens, but she does not like to have the cats too fond of the chickens. Last Sunday when she saw a cat trying to carry a fine young chicken under the house, she went after it with the nearest weapon, her foot, but instead of kicking the cat, she kicked the concrete foundation of the house, with the result that she received a double sprain, and a fracture of one of the bones of the foot. She will be laid up for a week or two.

Miss Olive Marston has been visiting during the past week with her uncle, Ed. Eby, of Portland.

Miss Alice Manning of Seattle is visiting her uncle, L. P. Manning. She is on her way to Oakland, Oregon, to visit her parents.

Baptismal services were held at the Orient chapel, Pleasant Home, last Sunday, June 2. Seven persons were baptized by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Burtch, as a result of the meetings recently closed there.

J. E. Stubbs arrived last week with his family from Hood River, to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. M. Stubbs. Mr. Stubbs has just completed his fifth year as principal of the Hood River schools, and was unanimously elected to serve another year.

Mrs. L. P. Manning is visiting her son Lafe and family at Montavilla today.

Mrs. Colby Marston has recently had a visit from her father, Mr. Eby of Philomath.

D. M. Roberts has at his office samples of decorating material for use on automobiles for the parade on Wednesday, June 12. It consists of Japanese parasols, festoons, and flags. It is very cheap, and will help to add to the gala day appearance. Everybody should have them for autos or vehicles of any kind.

The senior and junior classes of the Gresham High school are on a picnic to Latourell Falls today.

The meeting of the Queen Esther circle is called at the home of Mrs. J. Sterling Wednesday evening at 7:30. A full attendance is requested as it is the time for annual election of officers.

The regular council meeting will be held tonight. There are indications that a full evening's business is before the council.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dabney gave a picnic dinner yesterday, in the grove at the Fair grounds, to a few friends and relatives. Those participating were Dr. Harry Dabney, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Dabney and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hefferlin and daughter and son, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan and Earl Clanahan and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dabney of Gresham. After dinner the party took an auto ride to the Sandy river near the Automobile Club house, where they spent the afternoon at Dabney park the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dabney. Mr. Dabney has several acres which he is parking and planting to ornamental trees and shrubbery. He is laying out automobile drives and walks, making swimming pool and trout lake, and otherwise beautifying the place.

PROCLAMATION.

Inasmuch as the Rose Festival has become of so much importance to the state of Oregon and almost of national importance, and that the people of Gresham and vicinity are closely allied to Portland, and believing that the citizens of Gresham and vicinity will wish to visit the Rose Festival on one day, I hereby proclaim, Wednesday, June 12, a legal holiday, and urge that business be suspended. The time taken on such an occasion is not time lost. Let us be loyal to our state and town and help to make the Rose Festival in the Rose city the best known event in the world.

LEWIS SHATTUCK, Mayor.

In the Famous Powell Valley

EAST OF GRESHAM

Delate lillhee ten acre tracts furnish an excellent investment for a young man or woman—a few trees on each tract—all have cleared land; five have running water through summer months, two have running springs on high ground.

All of these tracts are most excellent buys. Some as low as $150.00 per acre. Ten per cent cash is all that is asked, balance can be paid monthly, quarterly or semi-annually and the young man or woman who is working for a salary and is fortunate enough to get hold of one of these tracts can in a few years have a comfortable home and never miss the cash that he or she has paid into the property—like making deposits in a savings bank. All payments may be made at this bank.
